Lastly Queen Victoria's monument was honored by the South African veterans, and unusual expression was given to the hopes that before next year the South African memorial would be erected.

Growth of Imperial Conscience.

As befitting the occasion His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor spoke in an inspiring strain. He traced the growth of an imperial consciousness from the

In 1866, he said, the invaders were driven out of the country by the Canadian militia. In1885-6 Canada quelled a rebellion within his own borders, but in the South African war we emerged into imperial affairs, and for the first time in history bore some part of the burden of empire. This sentiment would grow and he forecasted the bullding of the South African memorial as an imperial monument.

as an imperial monument.

A strong plea for the completion of a memorial to those who fell in 1812-14 was made by Lieut.-Col. L. Hamilton Merritt. He referred to the axisting memorials to those who had given up their lives, and laid deep and strong the foundation of this Dominion. The premier of the province was strongly in favor of the project, and there was no doubt the proposal

DIAMONDS At $75.00 Per Carat

See the pure white, round snappy stones you can buy of us at this price, backed by the strongest written guarantee in America, and remember we guarantee exact weights. Don't buy diamonds of any firm and take their word for it. Protect yourself and get a written guarantee as to what you are buying. Remember diamonds enter Canada duty free, and $75 to $100 per carat buys the finest white and blue white gems here. Why pay more? Don't listen to prejudiced argument, or be swayed by sentiment, call and let us show you the pure white diamonds, and save you 40 per cent. We have what we advertise, and we will forfeit $5000 if we can't sell diamonds cheaper than any firm in Canada; then, too, our expenses are nominal.
