GET ON WITH THE TUBES.

We are making some headway now in regard to tubes. There are two things, however, that we wish to bring prominently before our readers and the citizens generally. The first is, that inasmuch as we have at last got a lawyer whose main business will be to straighten out our traction tangles, we ought next to get, and right away, a traction expert who is posted as to surface and underground roads.

Our next matter concerns how we are to finance the tubes. We can build them on the proposition itself; there are contractors who will build the tubes as many miles out as we want on the bonds of the city, secured by the undertaking itself. We do not even need to go on the money market to borrow the money, we do not need to have these bonds interfere in any way with our debt or our other assets, but men will undertake gladly to build the tubes on the security of the proposition itself and nothing more, so that the tubes are already financed as a matter of fact, and the schemers and pessimists who are going about asking how will we get the money, have no foundation for their ground.

Let us get an expert and let us get the proposition outlined, and then invite a competition of engineers and contractors as to what proposition they will make. The city will be surprised and the citizens will be surprised at the magnificent offers that will be sent in and how quickly they will undertake to give us almost immediate traction relief, and how soon every radial may be brought into the city on the city's terms and to the advantage of the people so coming in and going out.

SOFT SAWDER JOURNALISM.

Ontario just now is the home of soft sawder journalism. It abounds mainly in Liberal columns. It is afraid to discuss traction and electric grievances; it delights to expound moral reform. There are some Conservative journals equally active in the service of electricity at high prices, and trolley traction to their readers at monopolistic rates.

Let the citizen who takes a paper gradually get to know this kind of a newspaper—and treat it as such. The Liberals will be surprised to see how many daily papers of this kind are doing business in Ontario.

WHERE IS ALECK?

These are days of refreshing. Where is Alex. MacKay, leader of his majesty's loyal opposition in Ontario? Is he going on the stump this summer to tell the people about electricity, traction, good roads, education, crown lands, drainage, the administration of justice, etc.? He should be holding a meeting every night, right among the plain people.

FIRE PROTECTION FOR COLLEGE HEIGHTS.

The trouble the aldermen are having in trying to locate a fire station on the College Heights is reminiscent of the old story of the man who tried to please everybody and ended by getting them all disgruntled. It's really funny—the residents crying out for fire-protection and then objecting to it! Why? Why should a fire station depreciate the value of surrounding property? Nowadays, the buildings here are constructed with an eye to appearance as well as for utility. And a well disciplined fire station permits no objectionable hangars-on.

There seems, indeed, only one reasonable objection—that of stabling the horses. But suppose Chief Thompson advised his committee to consent to the introduction of automobile apparatus? Detroit, a city in character resembling Toronto, is finding automobile fire apparatus—in the way of horse wagons, steam engine and a general utility truck—a real success. An automobile combination chemical and hose truck would be just the thing for the residential districts to the north, where it could cover a wide area. Let's be up-to-date.

THE MEDICAL HEALTH OFFICER.

Very little progress seems to have been made in the last week about securing a new medical health officer. Perhaps the board of control and the city council, having got over the typhoid scare, imagine that Providence will take care of the city until another thaw out of the winter sewage.

people have a different conception of the situation. Is the delay due to the increased pressure necessary to bring one or two of the controllers up to the point where he can feel that $5000 is not too great a salary to pay for a man capable of looking after the city's health? If the delay results in an accession of generous instincts governed by business-like acumen, the city will not grudge it. But the board of control must learn that a good man is not to be had for less than $5000, and if the figure offered approaches more nearly $10,000, the city will not regret it.

Dr. Amyot appears to be the only man under consideration at present, and no doubt he would make an efficient officer, even if his experience has been more confined to bacteriological laboratory practice than to practical outside work. The objection that is said to have been raised in some quarters touching Dr. Amyot's theological views would be ridiculous almost anywhere else than Toronto, but we are dealing with people in this respect, and the sectarian aspects of an epidemic give us pause.

There is a gentleman at Ottawa who has not been mentioned, and probably not approached, and it is doubtful whether he could be secured. A liberal salary would at all events be necessary, and he would be as unlikely as Dr. Hodgetts to descend to the huckstering which the controllers appear to think proper.

Dr. Drum, or Major Drum, as he is known, is the gentleman we have in mind. He is acting director-general of the permanent army medical corps. He is a D.Ph. of McGill, and a medical graduate of high standing. His military training and his familiarity with office routine and his excellent executive record are just what is needed in the vacant position in Toronto.

AHEAD OF THE TIME.

Rev. Dr. By, undertook an unusually difficult task, when he set about introducing a broad-minded policy of Christian appeal to the unchurched masses in Toronto. Dr. Eby appears to think that it is better to get people in touch with Christianity, even if they are slightly heterodox or lacking in reverence for some of the creeds and requirements. But he "got in wrong" with the congregation in which he began his experiment, and the timid older Christians feared that the presence of theologically unkept and tattered creatures in the house of God might do more injury to the house than good to the visitors. It certainly looks as though Dr. Eby had more faith in God than his orthodox congregation has.

WILL REPRESENT CANADA.

Rev. Dr. Carman, Rev. T. E. Egerton Shore, and Mr. Justice MacLaren will represent the Methodist Church of Canada at a conference to be held with representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Asheville, N. C., on May 18. The object of the conference is to have those two denominations unite their missionary efforts in Japan.

Ottawa Sleeper Withdrawn.

Stole a Horse.

NORWOOD, May 5.—A man by the name of Cassan, who lives on the Mar-nora-road, east of Havelock, has been arrested for stealing a horse near Trent Bridge, and lodged in the Belleville Jail. The officer who visited the home to recover the horse also discovered a large box containing 15 live hens. Enquiries being made Miss Susan McPherson laid claim to them and identified the same as being her property, which were stolen from her yard last week.

Perhaps he may be able to find a congregation as willing to do missionary work among the heathen at home as to send workers to do it in China or India.

Col. Roosevelt proposes to preserve peace by going to war with any nations that propose to break it. This is reminiscent of the old saying that an Irishman is never at peace unless he is fighting. The ex-president must have a Celtic strain in his mental anatomy.

Earl Grey's estimate of the tremendous potentialities of Canada invites the reflection that, they measure her responsibilities. Vast resources that are not conserved for the public benefit can easily become the cause of a country's failure to achieve the position which appeared to be its destiny.

City planning is a live subject all over the civilized world to-day. Why should Toronto, which prides itself on being the most progressive community on the continent, be conspicuous for its indifference to this important matter? At present the city council does those things it ought not to do and leaves undone the things it should do. The remedy must come from an awakened public spirit on the part of the electorate.

Mr. Braag continues: "This firm did two kinds of business under three firm names, in two distinct rooms. In one room they sold ordinary books, and drove away at least one customer (and he a college professor and interested in the classics) by constantly showing the 'him' indecent books with disgusting illustrations. In an inner room this respectable firm had the books which were so stupidly and wrongfully condemned—according to your humble opinion. . . ."

"Now, sir, it may be well to call your attention to some cases which resemble those of the 'him' books. You, sir, let me tell you, for sending indecently filthy matter thru the mails, the sentence being the maximum, 2 years less one day. He also was paroled by you, serving until August 4, 1909. . . ."

TRIED TO BRIBE DOCTOR TO HELP FREE PRISONER

Charge Which Editor Makes in Returning to an Attack on Release of Skill and King.

MONTREAL, May 5.—The Canadian Municipal Journal, which originally stirred up the Skill and King case, and whose article last month read in parliament by A. C. Boyce was the beginning of the criticism directed against the minister of justice, returns to the attack in this month's issue. In an open letter to Mr. Aylesworth, Mr. Harry Braag, the editor, restates the minister's first article in parliament that the first article was an instance of a "newspaper writer fabricating his own news in his own back office" by quotations from the records of the case. Mr. Braag continues: "First, sir, let us ask whether it be true that after the sentence a relative of one prisoner (whose name can be supplied) came from Winnipeg with a letter to Mr. —, who suggested an interview with a certain medical official in order to secure, by means of a generous fee—a certificate of tuberculosis, upon which to secure a release; whether the official refused the fee; acted officially; but did not give the certificate desired. . . ."
