This is believed to have been merely a move to attract customers to the new concern, and other dealers claim the sugar is being sold under cost, but it is gen-erally taken as an indication that the tendency of the maraket is still down-wards. Several firms, which yester-day were selling sugar at 12c and 13c, reduced their prices by 1c today.

ROBBED PETER

Referee in Bankruptcy So Describes Financial Activities of Charles Ponzi.

Boston, Oct. 15—Charles Ponzi, whose international postal coupon scheme and offers of 50 per cent. profits in 45 days collapsed two months ago with millions of public investments tied up in it, was declared insolvent today by James D. Olmstead, referee-in-bankruptcy. In a report submitted to the federal district court, the referee found that Ponzi had no partners.

"While Mr. Ponzi is not to be classed in the same category with a a robber or a burglar," the decision said, "he was undoubtedly a clever manipulator who took advantage of the credulity of the investing public which in this instance is the usurer. The investors who loaned their money for a return of the principal and 50 per cent, interest would seem themselves to be guilty of usury if such existed.

"That Mr. Ponzi took advantage of a weakness of the community to be victimized is apparent, and is sufficient to condemn his acts. So long as the current of money flowed in he could pay his first investors with receipts from the last. It was another instance of robbing Peter to pay Paul."

Referee Olmstead added to his finding a statument that "there was no evidence originate or its use of the mails."
