

e Pember Featherformations as .They make the head graceful, the outhful from it appearance, and parted and dressed of becoming ways. of words will not eauty, quality and e aged and elderly ell as younger wo-

visit and a private

Store cade TEA A00

tween

shone

becoming bit of head dress. The Tourist Cars.

any hour in the day.

Don Road may get the Old Mill, in house, on the Don

SUNDAY MORNING

Toronto's Summer Visitors

By Margaret Bel neck spieler could never be found in all the encyclopaedias of all the genera-tions. I was rather amazed to hear The social pages of Toronto's papers. summer time, are made up, that the new library of Victoria Uni-versity was the building for the edu-cation of ministers, and almost fell off chiefly, of comings and goings, most narticularly comings, for Toronto is my seat when the information was giv-en as to Queen's Park being dotted essentially a summer city, and many are the visitors who wander in, from with trees, not one of which was a the wharves or depots, to spend a few fruit tree, but in the evening there were several peaches and pears to be found scattered beneath them. The parliament buildings contain many wonderful things, according to this effervescing individual. The rows of days sight-seeing. Oh, the diverse styles they bring with them, too! Hobbles have been coming now for some time, a harem or an appearance, but Indian pictures are portraits of first governors of the Dominion; the fates porfend that the newest of all effects, the bandage skirt, should appear on one of our modest streets.

samples of ore are valued at millions. I should strongly advise a coat of mail Alas, for the peace of mind of to be secured, to envelop the whole of the the buildings, for fear some of the wearer all the rest of her days! Not even Anna Held and her "most beauti-ful chorus in the world" could have a valuables therein contained be stolen or lost. In front of the Alexandra more striking effect. This latest de-cree in Dame Fashion's book calls for Apartments an urchin stood holding a bulky parcel, which the spieler soon showed to the passengers. It containvards of material in its unmade state, ed several photographs, which had been taken at the four corners. What to be wrapped around the figure, a la Anette Kellerman, the idea obviously to lessen the amount of lingerie bills. a rapid system these "rubber-neck" photographers" have for money-mak-New York has seen it, but Toronto not yet. I chanced to see a very pretty harem skirt the other day. The wearing devices After a tour in one of the tourist coaches, the visitors are usually ready er came out of one of the fashionable hotels and seemed not to notice the for some slight refreshment, such as Toronto's numerous tea-rooms and ice looks which were hurled toward her. cream parlors can supply. The names The costume was of navy serge, trimof each variegated menu sometimes med with black braid. The slits in the prove as enigmatical as the proverbskirt on each side, and back and front, ial Chinese puzzle, but the tired easewere bound with the braid, and under-neath, glistening out from beseeker manages to find some item which is tasty as well as decorative the criss-crosses of braid, Many of these specials take on a pat-riotic form of nomenciature, particu-larly at this time of the year, when diaponous black silk. effect was quite charming, and much more subdued than the regthe streets present such a gala appear-ance to the tourist, as he swings up Yonge. Not one member of the royal ulation harem. This was decidedly an improved variety. The short box coat was finished on both sides in the same family is forgotteh, the distinguishing feature of each being in the addition or absence of maraschino or wallnut way, and a small black turban made flavors. Visitors from across the border can

the

The postcard shops are well patron-ized, also the linen departments of be readily distinguish by their taste in wearing apparel. Just now, fashion seems to favor the large foulard efthe stores. A group of well dressed women were looking over a pile of variegated picture postcards in one of fects, judging from the numbers which can be seen on Yonge-street about boat time. Small sailors are everythe stores. They evidently could not find just what they wanted. One of them turned to me, with a most puzwhere in evidence, and short skirts showing two of the daintiest pumps, above which gleams sheer silkiness.

zled expression on her face. "Tell me," she asked, "have they any dd touches of piquancy to every cospictures of King George's residence in tume. These pumps show to even better advantage, if the wearer chance You know, I'd like to send some of them home, as it is coronation to take a ride over town in one of the time over here." numerous "rubber-neck autos." which Possibly my face expressed my am whizz and clang all thru the city at azement, for she added as a rapid af-No place is left terthought, "He has a home here, unmentioned, from Bond-street., which "spieler" informs the tourists is hasn't he?"

better known as Starvation and Sal-And they talk of the enlightenment vation-alley, owing to its number of of the twentleth century! churches and boarding houses. Even I do hope she found some card which would take the place of the extremely the four corners, which have lived down old traditions, are still in exis- patriotic one she was seeking. tence, having been moved somewhere in the vicinity of Alen Gardens. "The four best corners in the city," the par-ro' man says, "Salvation, Legislation The second of the military balls will Miss Mabel Dunlop was the hostess be held at the Queen's Royal on Tues-

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

The large event of this week with be the annual pow-wow and shoot of the Canadian Indians who are holding their sixth tournament at the Queen's Royal. The high chief of the Ameri-can Indians, Chief Long Talk (Tom A. Marshall) has been invited and will be Charles Fisher

Society at the Capital

THE TORONTO WORLD

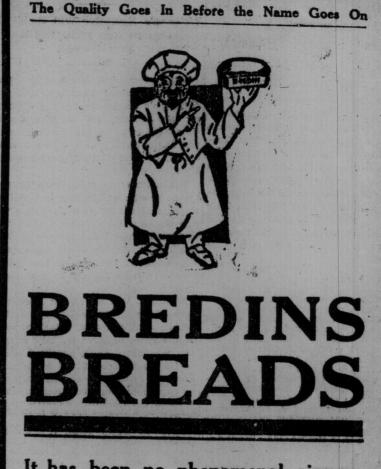

large number of Ottawans went up to Kingston to attend the Military College Ball on the evening of the 19th of June, among them being Mrs. J. J. Codville and her daughter, Miss Maud Codville, Miss Muriel Maunsell, Mrs. Travers Lewis, whose son, Cadet Jack Lewis, was one of the graduates; Miss May Lewis, Miss Marjonie Macpherson, whose brother, Cadet Huntley Maopherson, was among the gradu-ates; Miss Evelyn Maynard, the Misses Muriel and Eaith Hubbell, Mrs. and Miss Phyläis Winkiley, Miss Gertrude Courtlee, Miss Marie Coursol, Mrs. J. S. Irvin, Miss Incz Wright, the Misses Oloely and Aline Ruthertord, Mrs. and Miss Godwin, and Mrs. Harry Scott. Miss Pansy Mills, whose marriage took place on Wednesday to Mr. Vic-tor Drury of Montreal, was a much feted guest of all ther friends during the past week and among the several entertainmenrs given in her honor, in addition to those mentioned last week, were a most delightful dinner at which Miss Margaret Fitzpatrick was the hostess at the Country Club, covers being laid for twenty guests; a lundneon at which Mirs. Harry Southam entertained, which included ten of Miss Mills' girl friends; a most enjoyable tea to which Miss Elma Reid, one of the bridesmaids-elect, in-wited all Ottawa's prominent young peonle. Maophenson, was among the graduall Ottawa's prominent young people. Prof. C. C. James and Mrs. James

And Mrs. C. James and Mrs. James and Mr. and Mrs. Strachan Johnston of Toronto were in town for the Milis-Drury wedding, and Milss Hilda Murphy had with her as guests for the wedding Dr. and Mrs. Creelman and Milss Louise Creelman of Guelph, Mr. Bengeron and Mr. Campbell of Bengeron and Mr. Campbell of Calgary. Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Grey, Lady Sybil and Lady Evelyn Grey, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dougal Malcolm, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Salden, Lord Lascelles, Capt. Bingham and Capt. Freemantic, returned early in the week from Montreal after spend-ing a month in that city and in To-ronto. His Excellency entertained on Coronation Day at a very enjoyable state dinner at Government House. Their Excellencies will shortly leave for a fielding trip down the St. Lawrence.

Lawrence. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Staden and family will leave early in July for Little Metis to spend the months of Little Metis to spend the months of July and August. Mrs. Drury of Halifax, N. S., was the guest of Col. and Mrs. Louis Coutlee for her son's wedding. Others from out of town points in town for that interesting ceremony were Prof. and Mrs. St. Barbe Harrison of St. Anne de Bellevue, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Drury of Halifax, Mr. W. H. Miaylock of London, England, and Mrs. Blay-lock, Mr. Hazen Porteous of Montreal, Mr. Leonard Shaw of Montreal, Miss Marton Creelman and Mr. Edward Savage of Montreal. Mrs. Berkeley Powell left recently

JUNE 25 1911

It has been no phenomenal circumstance that has made the demand for Bredins Breads

Increase Over 1,000,000 Loaves a Year for the Last Six Years . . .

Just the settled policy of the big bakery concern to crowd all the quality and other goodnesses in the half-score of kinds that come from the Bredin ovens every day in the year-and living right up to the policy-and going it one better where it was possible to add a quality point.

That's the only logical reason-for, with sentiment pretty well nigh crowded out of all lines

J. Smiley making in s Branches E. Tel. N. 4830 s in Summer frocks. ing outing and tailored and fitted. Oculists I. Special lenses dup-pairing. Prices right TLES, Optician der Lane.

Eyeglasses Spectacles

man pearl set cutt Murphy left for their Muskoka, the bride yy blue tailoredimade wn guests were the land took her party with four horses on on, dining there, and o'clock. The guests ses Katherine and lss Le Mesurier, Mr. n. Mr. Harvey, Mr. Kenneth McDougall, orld is delivered he-any address in Tor-for twenty-five cents c. M. 5308.

Buffalo, N. Y. arty on Coronation

"LIMIT." Coll. 3645

ro' man says, "Salvation, Legislation E-Lucation and Damnation." At which the v'sitors smile, and one or two who have been in Toronto before, murmur "Chestnuts!" Just at this point, a mysterious man with a photographer's outfit, appears from somewhere, and the car is brough to an abrupt stand-the guests were received in the drawing-room, which was charmingly decorated with peoples. Amongst tiling auto proceeds toward the north and the ever alert "man on the box". Thus Sinteers that they are nw going to see Toronto's most beau-t'ful residential district. Rosedale. What an honorable motive to have for a raison detre. Glen-road bridge is Name and work and many state of the fact that no two houses are allke, no street is straight, and there is not a store in a raison detre. Glen-road bridge is Name and many state of the fact that no two houses are allke, no street is straight, and there is of Rosedale! What an honorable motive to have for a raison detre. Glen-road bridge is Name and knew for a store in the satisform, Miss Margt. O'Hanley, Miss Margt. Donsidin, Miss Margt. O'Hanley, Miss Margt. O'Hanley, Miss Margt. Miss Margt. O'Hanley, Miss Margt. O'Hanley, Miss Margt. O'Hanley, Miss Margt. Miss Margt. O'Hanley, Miss Margt. Miss Margt. Miss Margt. Mis Iful residental. which is noted mainly for the fact that no two houses are allke, no street in straight, and there is not a store in sight. Worthy residents of Rosedal!
What an honorable motive to have for a raison d'etre. Glen-road bridge is pointed out, and smilingly alluded to ones, and the Gooderham residence very brilliantly termed "Alco Hall."
The store of wit and wisdom which is the store of with the store of wither store of wither store of wither the store of which is the store of wither the store of wither store of wither store of which is the store of wither store of which store the store of wither store of wither store of wither store of which store sto

The Ceremony of the Coronation of Our Beloved King George and Queen Mary

Has been successfully concluded, but the equally successful Three Days' Treatment for the Liquor Habit at the Gatlin Institute is still making good, with increasing satisfaction to its many grateful and appreciative patients.

THE GATLIN

The Treatment That Doesn't Hurt You

The Gatlin is a safe, harmless, that means so much. There are convenient treatment to take. It no hypodermic injections to torcontains not a cumulative poison-ous or deleterious drug-a child ture the patient, and treatment is administered under a plain con-tract that results shall be entirely could take it. It will do away satisfactory to the patient, or no with liquor craving and desire in charge. No pain or suffering, no the case of your husband, your withdrawal of liquor-everything father or your brother. It will confidential. Home treatment for make a man of your friend, your those who cannot come to the inemploye or you, in just three con- stitute for three days. Call, write secutive days of treatment. That or telephone for book of particuis not much time on something lars and other information

Gatlin Institute. Telephone North 4538 428 Jarvis Street, Toronto. A. HARCRAVE, Manager.

Miss Moss Chrysler, Miss Natale Niel-son, Detroit, Miss Sarah Lansing, Mr. Whitman, Major Caidwell, Mr. Stock-well, Mr. Rivett, Mr. Macdonald, Mr. Ernest Monerleff, Miss Eckensley, Dr. Irving Johnston, Mrs. Johnston, Major and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Hen-derson, Mr. and Mrs. Arnoldi, Mr. and Mrs. B. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Theorem Mrs. B. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Taylor, Misses Baul and others.

last week and went up to St. Catharines for the closing of Ridley College, which their son is attending. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnston and their two sons are at the Queen's for the next month. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Haas and their family are expected to be hired by the league.

his week. Miss Natalie Mielson of Detroit is the Miss Natane Messon of Detroit is the guest of the Misses Rosenmuller and is one of the belies of the dances. Mrs. George Thairs had a number of guests visiting her over the holiday.

Mr. George B. Smith, New York, formerly of Toronto, was at the Queen's Royal last week. Mr. Smith was recently married and is spending his honeymoon on a motor trip thru Canada. Mr. and Mrs. George Gooderham were over in their car last week and Charles Fisher. The Blue Goose Club (Toronto an Buffalo lawyers) will be held at the Queen's Royal shortly. Preparations are under way for the Difference and with the balance. Preparations are under way for the Charles Fisher. Lady Launder has gone to Beauhar-nois to spend a short time and her guessis. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laurier of Montreal and Madame Gagnon of Arthabaskaville have returned to their homes. Miss Katherine Christle was the homes. Miss Katherine Christle was the 25th Annual International Lawn Termis Fournament to be held on dinner at the Golf Club given especialthe grass courts of the Queen's Royal, commencing the last week in August. This is the oldest established lawn ly in honor of Miss Emily Ayres of New York, who is the guest of the Misses Hughson. tennis event in America and special interest will attach to it this year and Col. and Mrs. Fred White left last Saturday for Riviere du Loup where they intend spending the summer but May Sutton, Belass Wright, and other well-known tennis celebrities will take were unfortunately recalled by the sad news of the death of their som-inty-five cents per month.

"To Them That Hath"

A SHORT SERMON TO FAT FOLKS.

"To them that hath shall be given" is sentence that applies to fat people very

The Jeff and Mutt comic ature appears in every isfeature appears in every ison their way to Canada with the resue of The Daily World. To sue of The Daily world. To mains. Lady Futzpatrick and Miss Alice Futzpatrick have left for their summer See the entire series. The ioined by Miss Margaret Fitzpatrick.

Morning World is delivered who is at present the guest of Miss by carrier to any address in Mr. and Mrs. George Burn. Miss the city or suburbs for twen- Burn and Mr. Drummond Burn have recently returned from a trip to whom there were a very large number, drove to the residence of the bride's Europe, which covered the past few drove to the residence of the bride's parents in Gilmour-street, where con-

TWO NEW STATES. WASHINGTON, June 24-The senate committee on territories, to-day voted gratulations were showered on the bride and groom, who are exceedingly popular. The house was profusely Misses Ball and others. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cox motored over to the Queen's Royal on Thursday, accommanied by Mr. Gordon Mytes, Mrs. Cox has taken over her horses and expects some delightful rides over the beautiful Niagara roads. Mr. Cox has just been appointed honorary col-onel of the Mississaugua Horse and rode at the head of this regiment for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Hume Blake with their Mr. and Mrs. Hume Blake of the second days Mrs. Jas. Mills, was maried to Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Hume Blake with their Mr. and Mrs. Hume Blake of the second days Mrs. Jas. Mills, was maried to Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Hume Blake of the second days Mrs. Jas. Mills, was maried to Mr. Mr. And Mrs. Hume Blake with their Mr. and Mrs. Hume Blake of the four Mrs. Jas. Mills, was maried to Mr. Mr. And Mrs. Hume Blake of the four Mrs. Jas. Mills, was maried to Mr. Mr. And Mrs. Hume Blake of the four Mrs. Jas. Mills, was maried to Mr. Mrs. Jas. Mills, was maried to Mrs. Mrs. Jas. Mrs. Mrs. Jas. Mrs. Mrs.

Laberge's comments on that body, performed the ceremony and the hundreds of articles of silver, challenge him to debate the value of church had been converted into a mahogany, furniture, pictures, cut vaccination publicly with a medical bower of flowers, peoples being the glass, etc., the bride being one of the man from Toronto or Boston, in a hall prevailing blossoms used and white most popular girls in the Capital. most popular girls in the Capital.

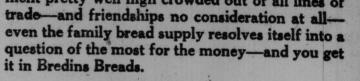

ritions outlining the guests' pews. The bride's wedding robe was of white satin with gracefully draped train, and bodice of lovely Irish lace, the

At Bon Echo. A party of Torontonians consisting of Messrs. George Rose, John Boham, Percy Temple ,members of the Simcoe yoke brilliant with tiny rosebuds of white satin. A filmy vell arranged in Club, are spending their holidays at Bon Echo, Lake Massanogo. Their first day's fishing proved very satiscap-like effect off the face was most becoming to the bride, who is a tall graceful blonde. The only ornaments neatly. It is common knowledge that worn were earrings of pearls and once a human being begins to fatten up, sapphires, and the bride carried a factory, landing a good string of salmon trout.

to what they have already is added more shower bouquet of white roses. than they want until finally a stage is Miss Louise Creelman of Guetph was or decided disadvantage results maid of honor and wore a dainty costume of white, a combination Canada. Mr. and Mrs. George Gooderham were over in their car last week and Col. and Mrs. J. B. Miller cre doing a lot of motoring about Nagara. A delightful children's parity was given at the Queen's Royal Clubbous on Thursday afternoon for Master Sandy Caldwell, scoord son of Master Sandy Caldwell, scoord the beautiful strounds, and having a fiftsh pond in the casino, after which tea was served on the wide verands of the clubhouse at a table decorated with present as a souverh of the day. A number of motors went up to Buffalo from Niasara on Friday for a fing after meals and at pet desired, or hold a single meal, doing a particle of harm or causing a solitary wrinkle. All their farm mais and are solity the scores were Miss Margaret Fitz-patick and Miss Helena Hugheno. Mr. Maarion Creeiman of Montreal; Miss Margaret Fitz-farmer Building. Detroit, Mich, table farmer Building. Detroit, Mich, table farmer Building. Detroit, Mich tab-let are sold by the Marmola Co., strong the signing of the register Miss farmer Building. Detroit, Mich, tabler Frauquier, Mr. and Mrs. Steersma and a number of to the table so well and generousy filled that even one produces ceirabe

9 kinds of Bredins Breads at

And the delicious Dessert Loaf at 10c

Phones College 761 and Parkdale 1585. Bakeries 160-164 Avenue Road and 1478-1496 Bloor Street West.

Will Visit America. LONDON, June 24.—George Tyler for the Lieblers, has arranged for a visit of the Irish National Theatre Co. to America in the Autumn.

Called to Pittsburg. HAMILTON, June 24.-Rev. John Young, pastor of St. John's Presbyter-ian Church, this city, has received a unanimous call to one of the largest resbyterian Churches in Pittsburg.

