C. P. R. Team Won

The baseball team representing the C. P. R. defeated Grand Bay on their grounds on Saturday afternoon 10 to 4.

Until the seventh inning the game was well contested and proved interesting, but from that on it became loose and many errors resulted. The line up of the teams follows:

C. P. R.: Dever, catcher; Sterling, pitcher; Seely, first base; Gaskin, second base; Cleary, third base; Gorman, short stop; Garnett, left field; McLaren, center field; McKennie, right field.

After the Game

The Henderson brothers were in great form. Allan pitched an excellent game and with good support would have won out. Albert was the scribe of the day, hitting a home run and making two splendid catches.

Gorman, Garnett and Dever were the big three for the visitors, hitting well and catching many bases.

C. Pendleton invented a new style of pitching and he gave an interesting demonstration.

Cleary may be small but he certainly walloped the ball.

Poor McKennie thought he would be sent back to the minors for striking out so often and in desperation swung at a fast ball and nearly took the cover off it. He over the Grand Bay boys at $1.25 for a new ball for the other one he is going to.

Seely has a rare assortment of stam and should give the best teams a go for their money.

Ed. Sterling was as usual in good form and pitched well.

Bob Pendleton took a Marathon. The reason, however, was obvious for he got a beautiful hit and ran to third so fast that he lost his wind on the way.

McGowan and Lightford batted well and earned the plaudits of the fans.

Somerville played a fine game at third and contributed seven assists to his record.

Gaskin played his usual good game.

Brenahan Beats Toe

An examination of the injury received by Manager Roger Brenahan of the Cubs discloses the fact that he will be a cripple for several weeks. He received a foul tip on his foot in the eighth inning but gamely continued playing. The big toe on his left foot was broken, RING.

"Kid" Williams Defeats Taylor

Jimmy Taylor of New York, was defeated by "Kid" Williams, world's champion bantam weight pugilist, on Saturday night in a fifteen round bout in Baltimore.

McDonald Won Fast Bout

Halifax Recorder.

Roddie McDonald, of Glouce Bay, added another to his string of victories at the arena last night, when he disposed of Chief Petty Officer Kinch, the bout terminating at the conclusion of the third round. There was intense interest in the bout, and not since Mickey McIntyre met Bay Wood early last year has there been such a gathering in the arena for a boxing contest. About 1,200 people were in attendance, including many prominent citizens and officers of the army and navy.

The last round was as follows:

McDonald got an opening, and suddenly landed his right on the jaw, staggering Kinch, and another blow sent him to the floor, he remaining on one knee; the crowd thought it was all over, as the navy man was being counted out, but though weak he was up again at the count of seven. McDonald placed another blow on his head opponent and he took a count of nine, when the bell rang for the end of the round. Kinch, who was weak, and suffering from an injury to his knee cap when he went to the floor, decided not to come up for the fourth, and Tom Foley, who made an excellent referee, declared McDonald the winner. Kinch had a scratch on his eye, and slightly puffed about the face, but it was his knee which troubled him most, and he felt that but for this mishap he would have done better. Kinch showed himself a clean sport, and boxed gamely under the circumstances.
