

SECOND DAY.

After Morning Prayer in the Cathedral, the Synod assembled in the Synod Hall at ten o'clock for business, and the meeting was opened in the usual way, with prayer by the Metropolitan.

The Clerical Secretary then read the minutes of yesterday's proceedings, which were confirmed, and signed by the Bishop.

Report of the Committee on Foreign Missions, (see page 664) was read by Rev. R. Lindsay, who gave notice of motion for its adoption.

Rev. D. Lindsay read report of the Committee on Education, and gave notice that he would move for its adoption to-morrow. (See page 662).

Mr. Brydges read report of the Committee of Conference on the Metropolitan question. (See page 661).

Reports were read by the Rural Deans of Hochelaga, Bedford, Iberville and St. Andrews. (See page 653).

Rev. W. Henderson read a report of Committee to the Rural Deanery of Bedford, on the subject of the Ladies' School at Dunham. (See page 657).

Notices of Motion were received from Rev. Canon Bancroft, Rev. Canon Baldwin, Rev. J. Carmichael.

At eleven o'clock the Synod proceeded to ballot for the Executive Committee, the Bishop having named as scrutineers Rev. R. W. Norman, Canon Evans, and Messrs. Pangman and King.

Mr. BRYDGES moved, seconded by Mr. T. WHITE, Jr.

That the report of the Executive Committee be adopted.

With a view to the consideration of the report the Bishop read it aloud.

Rev. D. LINDSAY moved, seconded by Rev. C. BANCROFT, Jr., the following amendment to the resolution of the Executive Committee, adopted at its May meeting, (page 630.)
