GOVERNMENT IS CRITICIZED BY DRY ASSOCIATION

Non-Enforcement of Temperance Act Alleged and Officials Scored

ST. STEPHEN, Oct. 7.—The semi-annual meeting of the N. B. Temperance Alliance met here today with a good attendance present. President Donald Fraser in the chair. The report of the executive committee was submitted and passed with some changes. The session was taken up mainly with a consideration of present conditions and the authorities were subjected to severe criticism for alleged present non-enforcement of the law.

Complaints were general from all parts of the province. These complaints found expression in a resolution of a general character calling upon the government to carry out the will of the people and appealing to legislators who had given certain pledges to redeem these pledges.

TO QUERY GOVERNMENT

It was decided to address certain definite questions to the government asking for an answer. These questions have to do with reported permission to sell beer during the Old Home Week at Newcastle, the distribution of over-strength beer from New Brunswick breweries to the New Brunswick trade for illegal purposes and the issuing of vendors' and beer sale licenses to those guilty of violation.

A clause in the executive report says: "We believe that no effort is being made to stop or even curtail the distribution of over-strength beer from New Brunswick breweries to retailers in the province."

It was decided that temperance people be urged to appeal direct to the Attorney-General in cases where officials disregard the law.

During the discussions the chief inspector and the government were constantly under fire.

HARRIMANS PLAN LOFTY BUILDING

Will Have 36-story Structure to House Their Varied
Interests

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A thirty-six-story building is to be erected in the shipping row, at the lower end of Broadway, to house the varied interests of the Harriman family. The half acre at 36, 37 and 38 Broadway, extending 200 feet back to Trinity Place, which the Harrimans have owned since 1920 under the corporate name of the 89 Broadway Company, is the site for the new addition to lower Manhattan's skyline.

It was two years after the close of the war that the Harrimans took over this realty for $2,175,000. At that time the Harrimans were especially interested in the shipping business, operating many steamship lines. Following their purchase 89 Broadway became an important business center because there were gathered the various Harriman interests.

PRaise FOR Pyle

Walter Hagen Says Promoter's
Methods Will Help Game

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 8.—"C. C. Pyle is doing a lot to help not only tennis, but sports in general," Walter Hagen, distinguished for keeping his professional golf title in a year notwithstanding had for amateurs, declared here today.

"A good class of professionals," he continued, "will be of immeasurable benefit to tennis. It is a game that everybody wants to learn, but so far they have had inadequate opportunity to do so because professionals were rare and the cream of the field was in the amateur division."

"Why amateurs, and especially those who are college graduates, should be criticized for turning professional is a thing I don't understand. A college boy works just as hard at his sports as he does at his studies. If a Red Grange, for example, shows that his real talent lies in playing football, why should people find fault with him for making football his career, any more than they should find fault with a boy who becomes a lawyer if he finds that he is especially fitted for the study of law?"

Hagen expressed his opinion that an open tennis tournament for professionals and amateurs alike would make the game of more interest to a larger class of people than ever before.

AUDIT MATTER IN LANCASTER TO BE GONE INTO

Ratepayers Called to Meet
Saturday Night—May Go to Legislature

A large number of residents of the Parish of Lancaster are deeply concerned over the fact that a petition presented to the Municipal Council requesting that an independent audit be made of the parish accounts was not acted upon at the meeting this week, and have decided to hold a public meeting of all rate payers to be held in the school house of Beaconsfield on Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

COUNCILLORS NOTIFIED

Harold P. Crouse, chairman of the committee stated last night that he had sent a letter to each of the councillors representing Lancaster district requesting them to be present at the meeting on Saturday and meet the ratepayers of the parish and give a statement why they did not act on the request of the petitioners. Mr. Crouse further stated that this meeting is only the first step towards appointing a strong committee to carry the matter to the New Brunswick Legislature. If the Municipal Council still refuses to grant the request of the parish taxpayers in the petition presented to them.

Hold Meeting On Sunday School Work

The officers and teachers of the Ludlow street Baptist Sunday school met at the home of the superintendent, R. H. Parsons, last evening and after a devotional service, Mr. Parsons reviewed the work done in each department of the school, showing the Sunday school to be in a flourishing condition. There was a general discussion as to how best to increase the attendance and more extensive use of the Bible in the school was advocated in preference to the Sunday school quarterly, the aim being to make the school a Bible school. Rev. W. A. Robbins gave helpful advice and stated that the outlook for the fall and winter activities was encouraging. Mrs. H. H. Brannon, who has recently taken up residence in West Saint John, was welcomed as a member of the school. A social half hour was spent at the close of the evening.

Mr. Doherty was a cousin of the late May Agnes Fleming, a Saint John lady who won fame years ago as a writer of many stories of fiction that commanded a large following among the reading public. He is survived by his wife, who was, before marriage, Miss Tole, sister of Joseph Tole, well remembered here, but for some years resident in the vicinity of Boston. There are also three daughters surviving, Misses Grace, May and Katherine Doherty, all at home. They and their mother will have the sympathy of many friends.

While taking keen interest in public affairs, Mr. Doherty had lived mostly in the atmosphere of his business and family life. He was a warm supporter of Liberal principles in the politics of the Dominion. He also was a member of the city branch of the C. M. B. A. His funeral will be held on Saturday morning at 8.45 o'clock from his late residence to the Church of St. John the Baptist, Broad street, for high mass of requiem.
