William Hunt, 31 Erin street, appeared before Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning, being given in charge last evening, his wife for creating a disturbance while drunk. To the magistrate, Mrs. Hunt said there were several men in the house at the time and, fearful for herself and eight children, she had called in Policemen Quinn and Bell, who had put an end to the uproar and had taken her husband to jail. She said he did not assault her or call her bad names but was unmanageable.

Hunt said he could not remember anything of the affair and said if let go he would behave himself. He was allowed out on this promise, first being turned over to the liquor inspectors to ascertain where he and the men with him had obtained the liquor.

SUM PAID IN FOR ORPHAN FUND ABOVE $190,000

Next Installment Of $46,000 Is Due On July 1

ST. JOHN IS IN LEAD

Hoped to Have All Children in New Institution Next Month
A statement of the financing of the new building of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphan's Home shows that there has already been received more than $190,000 of the $288,000 subscribed. At the first of this year about $47,000 was due in pledges, and this is now being sent in. The next instalment period will be July 1, when about $46,000 more will be forthcoming.

Arrars Not Great.
So far arrangements are not very great, which the directors say is not only to the credit of those who pledged themselves to carry out the movement of supplying a united orphanage but which is a commentary upon the financial condition of the people throughout the province in spite of the extreme caution which appears to be governing many matters.

St. John County Leads in Number of Subscribers and Remittances, with Kings county in second place, Charlotte county third, Westmorland fourth, York fifth and Carleton sixth. The subscriptions to the orphanage have been fairly representative of the Protestant people of New Brunswick upon a proportionate basis.

Housing the Children.
It is hoped to get the children all housed in the new institution before the end of February, at which time the full availing of the reorganized work will have commenced. A considerable number of little ones have found excellent homes in the last few months. This policy of placing the children with worthy families will be more vigorously carried out in the future, so that every section of the province may avail itself of the home for its parentless children, allowing the institution to become crowded.

AMALGAMATION OF LODGES COMPLETE

Two Bodies of Sons of England Join and Install Officers.

Boyd, and then the ten past presidents and the two past vice-presidents introduced the members of New Brunswick Lodge, who were officially welcomed by the members of Portland Lodge.

District Deputy Lewis then installed the officers of the amalgamated lodge who are to serve during his ensuing year. He was assisted by the past district deputy, Fred Thomas.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17—Well, here I be! If the poster in that there Pullman car hadn't been a nice feller I'd a got lost fast thing. I didn't sleep none too much last night—when it come to gittin' dressed in the mornin' I guess I scandalized the folks some—but I won't never see 'em agin—'n' I'll know better next time. They was a feller in the tilt room that had enough fakin' spread out fer a hull family. I guess he was one of them lounge lizards—the way he polished an' powdered an' doted himself up. The fust man I seen when I got here was Mr. Lodge—'n' he aint a bit slick up sense he was made one of them 'face railroad magisters. No, sir, he has started in to charge me round some—like he done one time in Moncton when I wanted to see them there oil wells. He's got to interduce me to a lot of the big bugs. If Sile Jones could see me now he'd throw a fit. You might call up Hanner 'n' tell 'er I forgit to order that there feed fer the hens afze I left St. John. She'll say she expected it. Well, I'll write agin when I get round to it. HIRAM.
