Exploding Mines by Rifle Fire

Leading Stoker T. WILLIAMS,

c/o G. P. O. London.

"Allow me to thank you for a wonderful cure of nervous breakdown. The use of Phosferine for a month made a new man of me.
I was in the submarine service for nearly four years. One of my shocks was, being rammed by one of H. M. Ships about 20 feet below water. I am now mine sweeping and we are getting up about 400 to 500 mines a day off Norway. Many of my shipmates have sent home ing immediate attention.

"Allow me to thank you for a wonderful cure of nervous breakIn Mr. Beck's opinion, the solution of the whole problem would be the adoption, by each of the provincial governments, of laws ensuring protection by an adequate means of reforestation. He regarded the question as vital and rekuiring immediate attention.

He said that the conservation and perpetuation of Canada's forest resources, upon which depended a continuous supply of the raw materials needed to carry on the pulp and paper industry of this country was one that was very much involved in the question of whether or not Canada's pulpwood resources should be thrown open without restriction to the paper manufacturers of other countries, as had been proposed.
