WALTER CAMP, JR., IN RACE FOR YALE BACK FIELD BERTH

WALTER CAMP, JR. PHOTO BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—When Walter Camp, Jr., was suffering from neuritis last summer the Yale coaches feared that he would be lost to the team this fall. His recovery was rapid, however, and he is now in great shape for the big game. Captain Spaulding and "Lefty" Flynn are assured of two of the back field positions, and football enthusiasts are watching the four cornered race of Camp, Philbin, Pumphrey and Marble for the remaining berth. Camp's punting ability, coupled with his accurate use of the arm, Philbin's speed and the plugging of Pumphrey and Marble make the race one of the closest in years.

Golf and Good Temper

The game of kings is rapidly becoming the game of dames. Each season finds women advancing further along the green so to say, and displaying greater skill. The play at Furness has been discussed in every golf club. I am sure throughout the kingdom, and it has to be admitted, I believe, that in some respects women have the decided advantage over men; I will not venture to say in what direction. But I may go so far as to express the opinion that the equality of the sexes is apparently a question that is to be settled on the golf course. And where could it be better decided than on such healthy ground as the links? Golf may be the sport of kings, but undoubtedly it is also the finest sport in the world for women. Who ever heard of a woman who is a keen and good player suffering from nerves? And my own experience is that women golfers are invariably good tempered. On men golf seems to have a disastrous effect, if one is to judge from their outward and audible sounds; but women appear to be able to lose or win with equanimity.—Ambrose.

ROUGH ON THE PROFESSOR

The mild-mannered old gentleman who was staying with Mrs. Gidkins was a geologist, and when, one morning, his landlady's little son informed him that there was a queer old stone in a neighboring field, he was in high place. "Come along and show it to me," he said. "I-I ain't got time, sir," said the boy and he began a hasty retreat. There were cattle in the field, but the professor took no heed of them until a terrible roar attracted his attention, and he saw a fierce bull advancing to greet him. It was a near thing, but the professor got safely out of the field. On the other side of the hedge he was surprised to see his landlady's son. "You little ruffian!" shouted the professor. "I believe you sent me into that field purposely. I believe you wanted to see me killed!" "No I didn't, sir; it was the mother did." "She 'ard a dog 'owling' outside our 'ouse last night, and as it means there'll be a death soon, mother thought it was only right to try and 'ave it out of the family' was the explanation.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Football Matches in States. In the football games in the United States on Saturday Harvard defeated Princeton 18 to 6. Dartmouth beat Amherst 60 to 0. Brown defeated the University of Vermont 12 to 7. Pennsylvania State College defeated the University of Pennsylvania 14 to 0, and Cornell was defeated by Williams 24 to 10.

St. John High Wins. The St. John High School football squad defeated the Rothery College team 6 to 0 in their game on the Marathon grounds on Saturday afternoon. Donnelly and Millidge scored for the winners. The game was well contested. In the last few minutes of play, Millidge, one of the half backs of the High School team, had one of the bones in the right forearm broken and was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Bresnahan Not After Job. St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 31.—Roger Bresnahan, it was announced today, received last Tuesday his notice of unconditional release as manager from the St. Louis National League Baseball Club. Unless one of the other seven National League clubs puts in a claim for his services by November 7, Bresnahan will be a free agent. Bresnahan, according to his friends, will not try to negotiate at present with any team as he intends to fight for the fulfillment of his contract. He is ill with a severe cold.

They Separate. Blossom Seelye, who appears with "Rube" Marston in a sketch at Hammerstein's theatre, and who on Tuesday secured a summons commanding her husband Joseph Kane, to appear yesterday in the Jefferson Market Court to answer her complaint that he had threatened her with violence, was not in court when the case was called. She had written a letter instead.

When Kane came forward, as his name was called, Magistrate O'Connor told him he had received a letter from his wife and read aloud the communication. It told of an agreement by husband and wife to separate. The case was dismissed.

Shan to Marry. D. Capul, who is a pennant winner as a ball player, has knocked a home run over the fence and right into "Dave" Shan's heart, friends of the crack short-stop of the Providence baseball team learn.

As a result of Cupid's hitting, Shan is to marry Mrs. Helen Toomey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Toomey, of East Boston. The marriage is to take place on November 10. The bride-to-be is an expert swimmer, and is one of the most charming girls in East Boston. She has taken a leading part in the annual shows of the East Boston Catholic Literary Association, and for the last four years she has been prominent in the social events conducted by that organization.

Deay O'Brien's Trade. President McAleer and Secretary McRoy have returned to Chicago and both denied any knowledge of a transaction by which Deay O'Brien of the world's champions was to be a White Sox possibility.

The story came out in a roundabout way. Ed Walsh attended the wedding of John Collins at Pittsfield, Mass., on Wednesday, and remarked to some friends that a deal for O'Brien had been closed during the stay at Comiskey's hunting camp. President McAleer and Manager Stahl being present as well as Manager Callahan.

Walsh named a couple of players who might figure in a deal for O'Brien, but Callahan said that he would gladly take O'Brien by purchase, but did not want any names mentioned, as a player is always dissatisfied if he is involved in a deal that never materializes.

Diamond Sparkles. John McGraw and Hugh Jennings are on the same vaudeville team. The reason why the club owners get the major portion of the world's series money is that they make the world's series rules. It seems as though a child could answer that.

George Simmons has been turned over by the Highlanders to Rochester. Four players are still in the major league who took part in the 1903 series. The only one who is making much noise is Wagner.

John Eves, recently made manager of the Chicago National Baseball Club, was tendered a banquet at Troy, N. Y., by a large number of his friends. Add Diamond Sparkles' daughter, George M. Cochrane, actress, is desirous of becoming a baseball manager. Through Jack Gleason he is attempting to purchase the Philadelphia National League baseball club.

English Athletic Records. At the meeting of the Amateur Athletic Association of England in Birmingham recently, the following records were accepted. One hundred yards in 9.45 seconds; by G. H. Patching, of South Africa; 200 yards in 19.25 seconds and 220 yards in 21.45 seconds; by W. R. Appleby; and one mile and a half relay race (880, 220, 220 and mile) in 21.45 seconds.

NEW HALF BACK WONDER IS DISCOVERED IN FITZPATRICK

FITZPATRICK

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Coach Alonzo Stagg of the Chicago University football team has his eleven in fine fettle for the big games on the schedule. The Maroons' adviser was dissatisfied with the showing the team made against Purdue recently and has made many changes. Fitzpatrick, a second string man, has been placed at half back and is expected to shine. He has been doing exceptionally good work in practice. He is a hard runner and an aggressive tackler. Minnesota will meet the Maroon team here on Nov. 23.

440 yards in 3 minutes 25.15 seconds, by the Polytechnic Minnies' team. The Ring Walsh and Lynch. Jimmy Walsh, the Boston boxing star, has been matched to battle Alf Lynch, Canadian lightweight champion, in New Haven on November 18. Walsh and Lynch met last winter and Jimmy was returned a winner. The Canadian title holder is a big favorite in New Britain as a result of his contest with Frankie Burns, Jersey City bantam, whom he defeated after a hard fight.

A MOVING PICTURE STORY. With our daily press and magazines filled with recitals of shortcomings of trusted individuals, of obligations forgotten in the mad rush for money, it is positively refreshing to flash upon the curtain of events even an occasional incident where gratitude stands supreme. Really the world is not nearly so bad as represented, for it seems to be a perverse element of human nature to magnify the wrong and minimize the good. Here is a true story which came to me unknown to the principal; in fact, I took no chances on asking his permission to print it, fearing he might refuse.

Some years ago a young man with more ambition than money went west in search of fortune. Through no fault of his he finally found himself far out on the plains without friends or money. He was fighting his way across the Rocky Mountains, walking by day and catching what free rides he could on the night freight trains. At last he found himself at a water tank, miles from any habitation, thinly clad, penniless, weak from hunger and exhaustion. Life seemed a failure and not worth the battle.

A freight stopped for water, and the engineer seeing his pitiable condition told him to climb into the cab. The dinner had been brought out and one of the two had a hearty meal. At the end of the run the young man was awakened and found himself literally over the mountain.
