SHERIFF deFOREST HOLDS FIRST COURT

Sheriff deForest presided yesterday at a session of the Sheriff's court for the first time since he has taken office. The case was that of Sims v. Gleeson, an action in which the plaintiff claimed $330 damages to his property in Pond street from the giving of a retaining wall which supported the property of Mrs. J. F. Gleeson, fronting in North street and adjoining Mr. Sims' property on the rear. The defendant said he had taken the matter up with Mr. Gleeson three years ago and he had obtained satisfaction. He entered suit some time ago. The suit was defended, and interlocutory judgment was signed. As it was a matter of damages and the court could not fix the amount, a writ of inquiry was issued to the sheriff. He empanelled a jury of seven members and convened his court, which sat on Monday and Tuesday, and yesterday assessed the damages at $175. H. A. THEFT UNDER EYES OF COURT

Paris, Jan. 29.—There was a peculiar exhibition of theft in the court here. Yvonne Motte, aged twenty-two, was in court on a charge of shoplifting, and was waiting her turn for examination by the investigating magistrate under the eye of a slony republican guard. A well-dressed lady who was waiting to testify in another case sat on the bench near by. The confidence inspired by her surroundings caused the lady to leave her reticule by her side. There was great excitement later when it was found that the handbag had disappeared.

The police started a search and found that the youthful Yvonne had succeeded in abstracting the handbag and concealing it under her blouse. Yvonne will now have to answer a charge of attempted theft in the Palace of Justice in the presence of a magistrate and the police.

RESCUE IN DARK ON THE KENNEBECASIS

Slating along in the gathering darkness on the Kennebecasis River last evening Merritt Scott of Baywater failed to notice thin ice until it was too late and he was plunged into the chilly waters. His younger brother of about fourteen years was with him. As it would be impossible to effect a rescue alone owing to the shallow ice, he skated with all the speed to the nearest light and summoned aid at the cottage of Samuel Southern. The latter's son, Wilfrid, went out quickly to where Scott was struggling. Young Southern and the younger Scott boy skated hurriedly to the spot and after some little trouble managed to get the elder youth from his perilous position. He was taken to Mr. Southern's home where he soon was resuscitated.

THINKS TYPHOID WILL DISAPPEAR

Paris, Jan. 29.—That typhoid fever will gradually disappear during the present century, just as smallpox vanished in the nineteenth, is the assertion of Professor Chantemesse, in a communication to the Academy of Science.

Professor Chantemesse cited the testimony of Dr. Frederick F. Russell, of the American Army, that since the employment of bacillus for vaccination typhoid fever had rarely occurred in the army.

The experience of France and other countries, adopting the same treatment, is equally satisfactory. In April last, M. Delcasse, minister of marine, authorized the treatment of blackheads and men at naval arsenals with typhoid bacilli, sterilized by heat, and the results of this measure at Cherbourg, Brest and Toulon have just been made known.

The majority of naval men, 67,845, refused to be vaccinated. Among them, from April to the end of December, there were 542 cases of typhoid fever and 118 cases of feverish gastric obstruction.

On the other hand, among the 3,107 men who consented to be vaccinated and have been living in exactly the same conditions as the other men, not a single case of typhoid fever occurred, and only one case of gastric obstruction which was cured.

THINK THEY HAVE PAPER WHICH WILL BRING THEM FORTUNE

New York, Jan. 29.—The lost link in a chain of evidence on which to base a suit for a $10,000,000 tract of land, now occupied by a part of the city of New Orleans, is said to have been found in the discovery of the late record of Joseph Valiere, on early French adventurer.

Persons claiming to be his heirs are seeking to establish title to the Louisiana property, a strip 120 miles long and eighty miles wide, along the banks of the White River.

The baptismal record of Valiere was found in Quebec. By means of this, showing his baptism in May, 1706, it is alleged that his descendants were traced in so direct a line that the heirs believe they can establish their claims.

HIS SOLUTION OF THE CURRENCY PROBLEM

Washington, Jan. 29.—The issue of paper legal tender based on government, state and municipal bonds and backed by a gold reserve of at least twenty per cent. was recommended as a solution of the currency problem by W. H. Barry, former state treasurer of Pennsylvania, on the stand before the currency committee of the house. Mr. Barry told the committee that the evil of the present system was, insufficient support of the extended credit demanded by the business interests of the country.

"The banking laws are responsible for the accumulation of money in the reserve cities," he said. "The law allowing the accumulation of millions of money in these reserve cities is responsible. A lack of cash in reserve restricts the banks in the credit they can allow, and this inevitably results in a discrimination as to borrowers. So long as this situation remains there will be a money trust."

A chart produced by Mr. Barry purported to show that panics followed an expansion of credit to a point where it was beyond the support of the available cash reserves.

THAT TRIPPING TELEPHONE

Several evenings ago a young man repaired to a telephone office and rang up his sweetheart at her residence.

"Yes, George, dear," came the reply. "Are you alone?"

"Yes, darling."

"I wish I was there."

"I wish so, too."

"If I were there, do you know what I would do with my darling?"

"No, George, I do not."

And then, somehow, the lines got mixed, and this is what she heard:

"Well, I'd pull her ears back till she squealed her mouth, and then I'd put a lump of mud in it. If that didn't answer, I'd give her a sound thrashing."

And then Marion faints.

Now they never speak as they pass by, and the men who were talking to his father will advise a man to put his arms around the neck of an obstreperous mare and whisper words of love in its ears ought to be hung to the nearest lamp-post.

Mr. Gurney, here's the cup of coffee we borrowed of you yesterday morning." —Chicago Tribune.

AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL WILL BE AT SUSSEX

Dominion Official Here Today With Mission to Establish It—The Project

A new school building is to be erected at Sussex near the one at present in use. One of the main features is the fact that it will be a practical school of vocations giving attention to agriculture, domestic science, manual training, and other such educational interests. Professor L. B. McCready, of Guelph, Ontario, director of agriculture in the college there arrived in the city at noon today, accompanied by Hon. Mr. Barrett and C. C. James to come to this province in connection with the matter. He was accompanied by Superintendent W. S. Carter.

Professor McCready is of the dominion educational department. He said that he thought the scheme would work out satisfactorily. This dominion government had made provision for the granting of $1,000,000 to the provinces to aid in matters which would be of benefit to agriculture. Such a school as proposed would come under this heading and the province would be aided by the federal government in its establishment and maintenance.

In addition to the teaching of agriculture Professor McCready thought it likely that a practical agriculturist, a graduate from a school of science would have an office in Sussex and general information could be had there by farmers concerning what was to be done in the best interests of fruit growing, general farming and dairying.

This appointment would be somewhat of a propaganda, having general farming information to impart and, besides giving it to the farmers at his office, would also visit their farms and aid them in every way possible. This scheme was now being worked out in Ontario with excellent success. The same man in the winter would conduct special classes in the school for farmers' sons.

One of the means for getting rid of the middlemen, said Professor McCready, would be through this science teacher organizing the farmers into associations such as was done in Ontario, governing the output, etc., of staples from the farm and dairy, providing better markets for them and in every way possible helping them promote the best to be had in farm life. Professor McCready will leave for Sussex tomorrow with Superintendent Carter.
