FATHER BORGMANN SPEAKS ON DANGER IN BAD READING

The effects of bad and immoral literature were the basis of an interesting sermon in St. Peter's church, north end, on Sunday morning last, by Rev. J. H. P. man, C.S.S.R., who, in fore dealing with the advantages of

ONE BODY THAT OF ST. JOHN MAN

J. W. Fanjoy Formerly of North End, Dead in Motor Boat Ashore on P.E.I.—Companion Too, But Little Dog Alive

Sad news came to the city this morning in a message received by Mrs. Brown, wife of Capt. E. W. Brown, of Metcalf street, telling of the death of her brother, J. W. Fanjoy, a former North End man, off Prince Edward Island. No particulars were given, except that the body had been recovered. A dispatch to the Times, however, is taken to show that Mr. Fanjoy was one of two whose dead bodies were found in a motor boat which drifted ashore yesterday at Greenway Cove, near Charlottetown, and which was supposed to have left New Glasgow the day before, and thought to have been disabled.

At an inquest held upon the bodies of the two men it was the verdict that they had met their death by exposure after their motor boat became unmanageable. Mr. Fanjoy's companion was James Dersley, aged 35, a widower, employed with the Fraser & Thompson Motor Boat Co. of New Glasgow, N. S. The dispatch stated that they had left New Glasgow on Sunday morning for the home of Mr. Dersley's father in P. E. Island and that while crossing in a heavy gale they lost control of the boat. A little dog was found tied in the boat, still alive.

Mr. Fanjoy was a middle-aged man, well known in this city, where he had been in the employ of the St. John Railway Co., before going to New Glasgow, N. S., where for several years he has been in partnership with his brother, Burpee E. Fanjoy, in the clothing and mens' furnishing business. He had a wide circle of friends here and through Nova Scotia, who will hear of his death with regret. His last visit to this city was about a year ago.

His stepmother, Mrs. Edward Fanjoy, of North End, survives, along with three sisters, Mrs. A. T. Watters, Mrs. George Finlay, and Mrs. E. W. Brown, all of this city, and five brothers—William of Sydney, N. S., George and Hedley in Boston, Rev. Albert in Ontario, and Burpee E. in New Glasgow. The body is expected to be brought here tomorrow and burial will take place on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Mrs. Brown's home, 31 Metcalf street, North End.
