Opening of Hebrew University in Jerusalem Celebrated in Saint John.

An impressive programme was carried out in the Hebrew school yesterday afternoon to celebrate the dedication of the Hebrew University taking place in Jerusalem. The hall was nicely decorated for the occasion and the children were all assembled at 9 o'clock. J. Eilman, chairman of the Hebrew Board of Education, Mrs. L. Isaacs, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the school, A. Babb, the teacher, Mrs. J. Goldman, president of the local Hasidim, and R. Guss, president of the local Young Judeans, each gave a short address. The children sang the national songs and cantor, Rev. O. Mandelblat, conducted the special exercises of the dedication.

PRAISES HOSPITAL

Words of commendation for the Saint John General Public Hospital were spoken yesterday by C. H. Christie, of Toronto, a member of the firm of Cowan & Co., who has been a patient at the hospital for about five weeks. He expressed himself as highly delighted with the treatment and care received.

LIQUOR AWAY FROM SHOP. In connection with a published report of a seizure of alleged alcohol in Brooks street early Sunday morning it was said that the seizure was made in a shop in that street and that the proprietor had been notified to be in court in relation to the matter. It was said yesterday that the visit was not made to the shop but to a place well in the rear and that the store owner had no connection whatever with the call.
