TYPOS' HOME.

HIGH cost of living is no respecter of persons. It however high their humanitarian objectives have felt the strain of the time in requiring an added income to cope with the situation, not in attempts to raise the standard, but in the actual maintenance of conditions of the pre-war period. In this respect the voluntary work has been pronounced for such as depended upon the fulfilling of their mission in this way and those who were enabled to have compulsion at their service had no recourse but to utilize same, however obnoxious to the affected.

The International Typographical Union members were recently called upon to vote on a proposal to increase their monthly contribution to their Home Fund from the present rate of twenty . hirty cents, and the withholding of asking for an increase to this late date of cost upheaval contains in itself one of the best commendations on the . mer in which tion at Colorado Springs has been conducted, that could possibly be presented. The request to the members was taken only after responsible officials had presented their reports upon the Home and its needs at the Albany Convention and the necessity for an increased ten cents per member being made apparent. Those responsible for the decision to make the request had no other recourse when it was shown that the twenty cents per member contributed during the past year had not been sufficient to pay for the conduct of the Home's essen-

The Home is, or should be, a matter of pride to the general membership, leaving aside the personal touch of what benefit may be obtained thereby, as it is now considered a monument to the International Trade Union movement, in the general concern taken in its membership by this organization, affording to other branches of the trade union family not so fortunately placed in this respect, a branch of splendid endeavor and success to be REAKING into the direct representation game in mild manner, the laborites of New Brunswick may be perhaps pardoned, remembering their close connection with the fishing industry. In this regard it is common parlance "that two at a time is good fishing" and this adage was followed in the election of two labor members to the Provincial Parliament.

"As Wolfe assalles the mountain, as Sherman led the way From Fulton to Satannah—as they, and more than they.

So comes another army; your wit cannot compute. The man-at-arms self-fashioned, the man you made the brute, From farm and sweatshop gathered from factory, mine and mill. With lever and shears and auger, dibble and drift and drill. They bear no sword nor rife yet their indices are on your walls. Though the housek is turned to a jumper, the jambeaux to gveralls; They come from the locomotive, the cab and the combler's beauch; and the wrench.

Now the calamity hower pragars' through the land, telling us that everything is wrong and that we want a change. It seems that hushness men are making too much profits and workingmen too much wages. Do we know what we want?

There are two phases of the immigration problem which are becoming more acute. A few weeks ago, the number of immigrants reaching the port of New York was so great, that it was impossible for the immigration officials at Ellis listed to handle the new arrivals. It was necessary to order some ships bringing immigrants, to anchor in the lower bay for forty-eight hours for more.
