sion in Spring Rridge which has been in progress during the past six months. The new branch, now almost ready for use, has been a larger understaking than many appear to realize, the main treat heigh no less than the main treats heigh no less than the main treats height no less than the main treats itself being no lss than three miles in length, and having many tributaries giving the residents of those districts tract has not been without its difficulties, excavations frequently having to be blasted in rock, a fact which is responsible for considerable delay. Everything considered, however, the work has progressed rapidly, and is certainly a credit to those responsible for its supervision. As has been stated by the Times previously, this extension will prove a boom to the residential sections in the vicinity of Oak Bay Spring Ridge and as a matter of fact to all the northern districts of the city But it is not the intention to allow the work of giving Victoria adequate sewerage to remain stationary even after all the pipes now being installed are in their places. Some time ago the council voted $8,000 out of general revenue for putting in small septic tank districts, which cannot benefit by the present facilities. This sum has been divided in accordance with the magni tude of the respective undertakings $5,000 being voted to James Bay and $3,000 to the other district. Immediately Engineer Topp has finished operations upon the aforementioned addition he will turn his attention to the septic tanks. He figures upon being able to commence operations upon both in about a month. No time will be lost and it is believed that they will be complete long before next spring.

With these improvements installed, and Victoria given as perfect a system as possible, the revenue derived from the sewerage rentals, frontage taxes, etc., should reach $20,000 annually. This coming in annually, it is pointed out, leave a surplus which would enable the always add sufficient to the revenue to will have attained upon the completion | 200 men.

BANKER'S SON MURDERED.

Verdict of Coroner's Jury Which In vestigated Death of Carey M. Snyder.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 5 .- An Oregonian special from Hillsboro says that at an adjourned inquest yesterday the coroner's jury found that Carey M. Snyder, son of the Kansas City banker, whose skeleton was found Monday, came to a violent death at the hands of unknown persons. Doctors Bailey and Wood, of Hills boro, testified that death resulted from factures on the skull caused by blows from a heavy blunt instrument. G. W. Kelly, a neighbor, said he had overhead a telephone conversation between Snyder and George Perry, on December 1st, the day before the Forest Grove bank robbery, also to having been told that Snyder was seen returning home on the Forest Grove-Hillsboro road before daylight the morning after the robbery.

Perry's Story.

Kansas City, Oct. 5.-Geo. Perry, whose name has been mentioned in recent dispatches from Portland, Ore., as Forest Grove bank robbery, is at home in Independence, Mo. He does not deny the story that he talked to Snyder over the telephone from Hillsboro the night of December 3rd, 1905, but he explains the circumstances in this manplains the circumstances in this man-the fair, and while there wrote to names of the men they have selected to Snyder. He replied, begging me to take this course. All acting rank will be friends, and if intending members will come down to the ranch and spend a week with him hunting. I went and spent the week with him and then returned to Portland. Then he wrote me again asking me to come. I answered telling him that I was going back to Kansas City, and would stop off and see him and for him to meet me. When I got to Hillsboro, Carey wasn't there, and I decided to stay all night. Then I called Carey over the telephone, and asked him why he did not meet me. He was sore for some reason or other supposed he had had some trouble with his wife. I asked him when he was coming to town. He said that he did not know, maybe never. That Snyder, that is all a put up job on the

Some days ago an announcement of exceptional importance to Victoria was made in these columns, namely, that the Methodist general conference of for as could be desired.

At present gangs of men are employed finishing up the work of the extendant finishing up the work of the exte religious organizations, and that it meets only once in four years it may be better realized what a feather it is in this city's cap, II a city may be referred to as possessing such a thing, to have been selected as the scene of the next/conference of representative Methodists of the Dominion. Therefore, it would be unfair not to place the credit of turning the eyes of the delegates to the recent conference in the direction of the West, where it belongs. The campaign, for the achieve-PURCHASE SAWMILLS ment necessitated a vigorous and judicious plan of action, was organized by the Victoria Development & Tourist Association. And if that society had ione nothing else in six months to justify its existence its success in this particular would have been sufficient have earned the thanks of those having the interests of Victoria at heart.

Therefore, when a communication was received from the association the proposal did not come as Serious Fire in Important Industrial surprise, and the delegates were ready to discuss it without any previously made plans interfering with its

This was accepted, as has been an ounced in telegraphic dispatches. As cretary Cuthbert points out it is now "up to" Victorians to prepare for the reception and entertainment of the isitors. Of course there is plenty of time to arrange an appropriate programme, but he contends that the delay should not be too long because the welcome of the community to the delegates should be on a scale in keeping with the importance of the occasion. HEAPS' SAWMILL IN VANCOUVER DESTROYED

Works in Terminal City on. . Saturday Night.

On Saturday evening Heaps' sawmill in Vancouver was destroyed by fire. Only one building remains intact. The loss is estimated roughly at $200,000, and so far as can be learned, of this amount only about $90,000 worth is covered by insurance

By 9 o'clock the fire was fully under control, every hall in the city having contributed its quota to the army of fire fighters. It is owned by a company, in which Mr. Heaps, the manager, has a large interest, and his personal loss will be very heavy. Some of the most modern and up-to-date machinery has been installed within the past year or two, but all that can be seen of it to-day are the fag-end of the mill with the burnt frames of the bandsaws standing out like derricks, the boilers and brick chimney stack, and the huge smouldering heaps of lumber where the dry kilns stood before Saturday night's de

PAPERS JUST RECEIVED

One of Victims of the Columbian Disaster Was Burled in Victoria Yesterday.

> The White Horse Star of September 28th just to hand gives further particulars regarding the accident to the steamer Columbian, in which a few Victorians met their death or were severely injured. It will be remember ed that an explosion occurred aboard the steamer near Eagle Rock, five miles below the mouth of the Little Salmon river. In less then five minutes after the explosion occurred the entire boat was a seething mass of flames.

Captain J. O. Williams, was 'at, the heel at the time of the explosion, and although the wire connecting the pilot house and engine room was broken by the explosion, he put the wheel hard over and steered the steamer for the bank. She stuck bow on, swung off and again struck with her wheel, which rolled up sufficiently far to hold her, but not until a rope was made fast did Captain Williams leave his position.

Two members of the crew never reached shore, Mate Joe Welsh and Fireman Edward Morgan. Welsh was seen to fall into the river, and Morgan is supposed to have gone the same way.

There doelenged the steamer for the date, I intend to make application to the Hon. the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works for permission to purchase the following described tract of land, situated on the west shore of Naden Harbor, Graham Island, Q. C. I.: Commencing at a post marked W. Purser L. C. Cowper and E. E. Winstanley, the latter a Dawson miner. a young man who is said to have been working his way down, were both badly burned, but are recovering. A portion of the uninjured members of the crey did what they could for their injured shipmates, after reaching the shore, while others constructed a raft and floated down the river to Tantalus to wire the sad news of the accident to White Horse. Shortly after the news came the steamer Dawson was at once dispatched by Supt. Scharchmidt to the scene of the accident, he going in person and taking with him Drs. Cade, Pare and Miss Tollan, nurse at the General hospital. The exact cause of the explosion of the powder is unknown, but it is supposed to have been ignited from fire which dropped from the furnace into the ship's hold and crept forward along the woodwork over which the powder was stored.

Joseph Welsh, age 41 years, from Victoria; unmarried, was forward or lower deck when the explosion took place and, though not instantly killed the flesh it is said, was literally torn from his face. Later he fell or jumped into the water. The body has not been recovered. Fireman Edward Morgan; mother resides in Victoria. Deckhand John Woods, from Hardwick, England, age 25. Deckhand Carl Christianson,
