of St. Mark's German Lutheran church of this city, was on her way up the river to-day to a resort on the Long Island sound. When just off about 125th street, persons on shore saw smoke and flames spring from the upper part of the crowded steamer. A panic ensued on the boat almost immediately. The crowds on the forward deck, panic stricken, began to spring overboard or to crowd to the after part of the boat.

The screams of the terrified passengers could be heard on shore and hundreds of small boats immediately put off to the rescue. Owing to the rocks on either side of the channel at this point, it was impossible to beach the vessel. The captain stuck to his post and
