The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Managing Directors of the Grand Trunk, Great Western, Ottawa and Prescott, Brockville and Arnprior, Port Hope and Peterboro', and Northern Railroads, and to the Steamboat Proprietors, for their courteous reduction of fares to all Wesleyan Ministers and Laymen attending the Conference in Montreal; and that the Secretary forward to the head of each Company this expression of our gratitude.

THANKS TO THE FRIENDS IN MONTREAL.

Having received the most hospitable and welcome reception by the members of our own Church in Montreal, and from the members of other Protestant communities, this Conference presents its grateful acknowledgments for the unremitting kindnesses which they have received, and for the Public Breakfast to which the Conference was invited; and that this resolution, or its substance, be announced from the pulpits of all Wesleyan Churches in this city next Lord's-day.
