

DIGEST

OF THE

LEGISLATION OF THE GRAND LODGE.

ADJOURN—Motion to, not in order.

When a Lodge is in Session a motion to adjourn is not proper, but should be "That the Lodge proceed to close;" and this motion should not be entertained until the regular order of business has been called by the Chancellor Commander.

G. L. Session 1879.

AMALGAMATION OF LODGES—Members must sign the Lodge Roster.

Members of a Lodge which amalgamates with another Lodge must sign the Roster of the Lodge with which they amalgamate to complete their membership.

G. L. Session 1879.

Same.

The law in regard to amalgamation of Lodges, requiring Members to sign the Lodge Roster, is repealed.

G. L. Session 1880.

APPEALS—How taken.

An appeal may be taken by any Member from the action of his Lodge to Grand Lodge under provision of Art. XII. of the Constitution of Subordinate Lodges.

G. L. Session 1879.

Against finding "Not Guilty."

An appeal may be taken to Grand Lodge by any Member against the action of his Lodge in finding a Member "Not Guilty," and Grand Lodge has the power to entertain and adjudicate upon it, or may sustain or reverse the decision of the Lodge, or order a new trial, according to the circumstances of the case.

G. L. Session 1879.

ARREARS—For dues.

A Member cannot be in arrears for dues until the expiration of three actual months.

G. L. Session 1874.

For over twelve months.

A Member of a Lodge in arrears for over twelve months' dues, and not having been suspended, upon tendering to the Master of Finance twelve months' dues, cannot demand an official receipt as a Member in
