The habit, universal in Germany, of spending a great deal of time in the open air during the summer weather, is certainly admirable, being so healthful and pleasant. Every family that has the use of a garden is sure to build one or more arbors in it, and there long afteruoons are spent and meals are taken regularly by the family in fine weather. The German hostess entertains her lady friends there, particularly and provided by their captains to fight members of other corps. Each member must fight at least once during the term or lose his standing. The duels are fought with rapiers, the right hand, arm and eyes being well protected. The duellists dare not flinch from their respective positions, no matter how severe the slash they receive may be. A surgeon who is employed by these fighting corps, stops the contest if he sees there is likelihood of further blows endangering life; but if the almost all circles. Gentlemen are occasionally invited to coffee by the head of the house, but the company is not often a mixed one. The guests sit from four until six or half past, chatting pleasantly, sipping their coffee, and eating cakes at intervals, filling up the times between with crocheting or other fancy work. Elaborate specimens of the confectioner's art in fancy dishes are sometimes served after coffee has been on for an hour or so. THE GLOBE has special arrangements by which it possesses the sole right in Canfiction, such as Wilkie Collins, Miss Braddon, Justin McCarthy, B. L. Farjeon, Sarah Douchey, Wilfiam Black, Mrs. Oliphant, Hugh Conway, and others.

A story of enthralling interest, entitled WYLLARD'S WEIRD, by Miss Braddon, is now running in The Daily and Weekly Globe, and will be continued till completed. It will be succeeded by a story from the powerful pen of JUSTIN McCARTHY, and after the last named story is completed there will follow one from B. L. FARJEON, the famous novelist.

In addition to the regular continued story, there are always running in the 12 and 3 o'clock editions of DAILY, and in THE WEEKLY GLOBE one or more additional novels by authors of world-wide repute. In this manner readers get five or six complete novels each year.

AS AN AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER THE WEEKLY GLOBE IS UNSURPASSED SPURGEON'S SERMON (Revised by Spurgeon's own hand), given every week in Saturday's Daily Globe and in The Weekly Globe, under special and exclusive arrangement for the Dominion of Canada. The Rev. C. H. Spurgeon is, beyond question, the most widely-read preacher in the world, and is always racy, practical and instructive.
