POOR DOCUMENT

ST. JOHN STAR, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1904.

Our advertising is a reasonable presentation of facts. We are aware that men know good clothing when they see it, and that, therefore, no superlatives are necessary.

The facts regarding our present sale are, that we have a certain number of Campbell's Suits which we wish to sell this month.

To effect this we are making great price concessions. All Worsted and Tweed Suits are divided into three lots marked $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00. Black and Blue Serge and Cheviot Suits are reduced to $10.00 and $12.00.

Our regular prices for Suits are $10.00 to $12.50, so that the extent of the reduction is ap-

Balfour Government Sustained in A Leap Year Ball Was Brilliant House of Commons.

MAJORITY OF FIFTY-ONE.

The action of the Irish party in voting solidly against the government was tonight succinctly explained to the Associated Press by John Redmond, the Irish leader, as follows:

"Ireland has suffered in the past equally from the protectionist as from the free trade policy of England. We are determined to use the complications which have arisen in the English parties solely for the purpose of forwarding the cause of home rule."

The most notable feature of the debate has been the hopeless division of opinion among cabinet officers, some favoring Mr. Chamberlain's out and out protection, while others seconded Mr. Balfour's half-way measure of power to retailate.

GRAND MANAN.

GRAND MANAN, Feb. 14.-One of he saddest incidents occurring in the history of coasting vessels occurred on the 9th inst., when Joseph Titus, the cook of the sch. Ella and Jennie, was lost overboard about forty miles east of Cape Ann on the homeward voyage impossible. The lost man was a native of Nova Scotia (on St. Mary's Bay shore) and having married here was settled down, and leaves a family of seven. He was in comfortable circular than the was in comfortable circular than the seven that the sev the address in reply to the speech from the throne censuring the government's fiscal policy and which was moved by Mr. Morley in behalf of the opposition. There were 276 votes in favor of the amendment and 327 against it.

This result, as forecasted in these despatches, was a foregone conclusion. The opposition did not entertain any idea that it would be possible to oust the conservatives. The division took the form of a vote of want of confidence in the government, which impelied many unionists who totally disagree, with the idea of protection, to vote to keep Premier Balfour in power. A general election is now expected in the autumn.

The address in reply to the speech from the formone day and Fridgy. Apply to MISS SULLIVAN, III. Leinster street.

Scarcely a member of the house who voted with the government tonight did not frankly admit his ignorance of the degree of fiscal reform to which the cabinet is really committed.

of Cape Ann on the homeward voyage from Boston. The weather was rough and thick vapor obscured the sea and a strong breeze was blowing, the vessel making eight or nine knots and the cook was standing amidships when he lost his footing on the loy deck and went overboard. The accident occurred so quickly the crew did not know of it till Capt. Ingalls saw the unfortunate man far astern. All efforts were made to rescue him, but in the rough sea and violent wind it was impossible. The lost man was a namer of the sea and violent wind it was impossible. The fire started in the forecastle of the vessel among a mat-tress, but soon gave every indication of becoming a serious affair. Nos 3 hose reel was sent down, and the tug Neptune ran in alongside as soon as it was known the fire existed. The tug did good work and the flames had been subdued before the fire department got
