ST. STEPHEN.

St. Stephen, July 13.—The most important social event of the week was the delightful at-home given by Mrs. Luoma A. Vaughan and Miss Helen Grant on Friday afternoon, from 3 until 6 o'clock, at the residence of Miss Grant. The day was lovely, and the ladies were all in the glory of dainty summer gowns, the bright variety of color adding much to the beauty and charm of the occasion. Mrs. Vaughan wore a pretty dress of black and white foxtail satin trimmed with black lace. Miss Grant was attired in a dainty gown of cream voile. The floral decorations were pink and white roses, asparagus vines and ferns. The dining room was a bower of roses, arranged most artistically. The young ladies who assisted in serving the guests were the Misses Winifred Todd, Geraldine, Grace Danduff, Alberta Teed and Mrs. Irving Todd. Miss Anne Bates served punch. There were more than seventy-five ladies present, the elite of society in St. Stephen and Calais, and the reception was one of rare enjoyment. Mr. Frederick Toller, of Ottawa, is the guest of Major and Mrs. D. Chipman. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Newsham, of Canby (N.S.), and their young daughter Edith, arrived here on Friday and are the guests at Christ church rectory, of Rev. Canon and Mrs. Newsham. Mr. Hazen Grimmer and Miss Annie Sullivan have returned from a pleasant visit in St. John and Fredericton. Miss Alice Crilly has been visiting friends in Fredericton during the past week. Mrs. J. Rankine Browne, of Woodstock, is visiting her father, Hon. Judge Stevens. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Newsham, recently resigned his position as general manager of the Frontier Steamboat Company, with which he has been connected for thirty years, has gone for vacation to a trip of a month to New York, St. Louis and other cities. Mr. Thompson's familiar figure will be greatly missed, not only among the business men but by the ladies and children who daily take trips up and down the river. His affable and pleasant manner in straightening out difficulties in traveling will long be remembered. Mr. Thompson is still a resident citizen of Calais, which is most pleasing to his many friends on both sides of the St. Croix. Mrs. Charles D. Eaton was the hostess and chairman of a dainty party on Saturday evening. Madame Blair is enjoying a pleasant visit in Ottawa, with her son, Mr. W. L. Blair, of the finance department. Rev. F. W. Robertson, rector of Trinity church, recently received a call to the rectory of the church in New Glasgow (N. S.), but has declined the offer, much to the relief and satisfaction of his congregation, who greatly esteem him, and among whom he is deservedly popular. Mrs. Wadsworth Harris is again in Calais this week, the guest of General and Mrs. Murray. Mr. Harris is a prominent member of the Maritime Theatrical Company, and will leave very soon to begin rehearsals for the coming season. Mrs. John Simpson, of St. Andrews, is the guest of Mrs. James Thompson during this month, while Mr. Thompson is absent attending the St. Louis world's fair. Mrs. D. A. Melvin and Miss May Clarke gave invitations on Monday to a reception at their residence this afternoon, from 3 until 6 o'clock. I hear there are a number of guests invited, and I hope to give a description of it in my letter next week. Miss Lyons, of Boston, is visiting her friend, Mrs. J. Edwina Cannon. Miss Lena Tait, of Amherst, arrived this week and is the guest of Miss Grace Deinstadt. General Warner, of St. John, and his young granddaughter, Kathleen Coster, are the guests of Mr. Charles A. Cooke this week. A party of ladies are enjoying camp life this week at Lake Cathlamet. Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mrs. F. T. Pote, Mrs. Charles Lyford, Mrs. Miner, Mrs. Frank C. Murchie and Mrs. Kate Washburn comprise the party. Mrs. Oscar Hatfield, of Cambridge (Mass.), is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred. Watson, and is most cordially welcomed by her friends.
