No 91 SAINT JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 9, 1874 VOL III. COOPER BROS. FLOOR and I took it. There stood a most oblig lag, deputy waiting to show us to the Cortes. He thought Spain in a bad way; he did not know what would be the east of it; of course lie hoped for the best. He was debounair, and look as though he might comfortably survive the loss of the Republic! but already I was becoming accustomed to the Spanish happy-go-SHE KISSED THE DEAD. MAPLE HILL.
