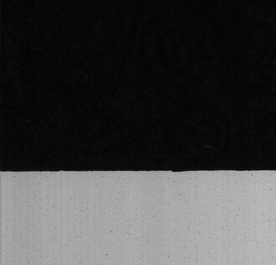
MILLIONS



Physicians Cornered!

I SUPPOSE there is not in the whole of physician's experience, anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy, and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal, suffering from that fearful disease.

RHEUMATISM!

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease; but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that Rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied, and rejoice more, than the conscientious physician, who has found out that cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and high respectability, and well known to the Canadian public, cannot fail to satisfy all that the

is a wonderful medical discovery.

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

MONTREAL, 21st March, 1874.

Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON,

Dear Sirs, I, with pleasure, concede to the agent's wish that I give my endorsation to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism, but now, after taking two bottles of this medicine, am entirely free from pain. You are at liberty to use this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so.

I am, sirs, yours respectfully,

JOHN HELDER ISAACSON, N. P.

FURTHER PROOF.

I AM ANOTHER MAN!

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after trying every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody suffering with this terrible disease to try it, and see if it does not do the same for them that it did for me.

Yours,

JAMES L. EAGLES,
Indiantown.

BARNES' HOTEL,
ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29 1875

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in stating that I put every confidence in your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the last two years with Rheumatic Pains, during which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men in the Province, and experienced no relief, until I tried the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three bottles, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly,

JAMES O'BRIEN.

There is no medicine which so promptly relieves the depressed vital action, restores the general and local circulation, allays the pain, dissipates the congestion, prevents inflammation, and restores the healthy action as the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!!

This medicine is for sale at all the druggists through Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock ask him to send for it to

AN ECHO OF CHOPIN.

"When we seek to explain our musical emotions, we look about for images calculated to excite similar emotions, and strive to convey through these images to others the effect produced by music on ourselves."—Howes' Musical Monthly.

Wind, and the sound of a sea
Heard in the night from afar,
Spending itself on the unknown shore,
Feeling itself o'er an unseen floor,
Lighted by moon nor star;
Telling the tale to the listening ear
Of wounds and woes that the rolling year
Hath brought to the human heart,
Telling of passions and innermost pain,
Sinking and swooning and growing again
As the wind and the waves take part;
Lifting a voice to the voiceless skies,
Tender entreaties and faint replies,
Pauses of sorrow that pass into sighs
Born of a secret despair;
Fluttering back on the clear tide of tone,
Gathering in force till the melody's grown
Strong to interpret the ocean's unknown
Haunting the dark fields of air;
Speaking the longings of life, the full soul's
Hidden desires in music that rolls,
Wave-like, in search of a shore;
Eddies of harmony, floating around,
Widen in circles of lessening sound,
Die in the distance, till silence is found
And earth redeems us once more.

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

A hard-hearted parent in Syracuse proposes to change his daughter's name to "Misery" because she likes company so well.

We inadvertently stated, the other day, that Perkins, of the Cincinnati Times, was a bald-headed bachelor. It seems, however, that he has a wife, and is accordingly merely bald-headed.

A female justice of Wyoming invited friends to her wedding recently as follows: "I am about to marry Mr. J—— D—— of this county, and he will be qualified and sworn in at my office on Wednesday morning next at 10 a. m. You are invited to attend."

A Dubuque man went abroad—first burying his surplus wealth, $6,000 in gold, in a field. On his return, the place having been made a hog pasture, he was unable to find, by reason of much rooting, the place of burial. Finally the hogs themselves found the treasure, and rooted it over to its overjoyed owner.

A railroad train in Michigan broke down recently, and the passengers alighted. Among them was an old gentleman, who, to fill up the time, wandered off to an adjacent house. There he encountered an old flame of his whom he had not seen for years. Within a few days the couple were married.

Mrs. Owen is State librarian of Indiana, and by a law passed last winter is to perform, at the opening legislative session, all the duties heretofore performed by the respective door-keepers of both branches. She will have authority to serve processes, arrest Senators, and will be, in short, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

At an examination in one of the public schools of Wheeling, West Va., a few days ago, a youngster was asked to name the different forms of government. "Democracy and Hypocrisy," was the reply. "Under what form of government do we live?" asked the teacher. The boy hesitated a moment and then answered "Hypocrisy." That boy would go to the head of his class in any Canadian school.

An Urbana (Ohio) man who had a valuable trotting mare, worth $700, a month ago, turned her out of her stable into an open lot for exercise. The mare disappeared, and the owner, supposing her to be stolen, made unavailing search for her far and near, finally giving her up for lost. A few days ago, some one desiring to rent an unoccupied stable communicating with the lot wherein the mare was last seen, examined it and there found the animal's dead body, she having been fastened in the stable by some thoughtless person and there starved to death.

Anybody who yearns to imitate in length of years that indomitable man, Methuselah, is advised to go to Philadelphia and there dwell. Six persons over 100 years old died in that quiet city in 1874—one of them was 107. Of those who reached an uncomfortable altitude among the nineties there is a long list. The really elderly ones who climbed over their hundredth year all came, with one exception, from Ireland, and some of them were intelligent, active and useful up to the day of death. Why most of them did not continue living is not clearly explained,—but they all had the encouragement of getting into the sparkling obituary column of The Ledger.

A dealer in sportsmen's goods in Cleveland, O., was called upon last April to examine a breech-loading gun. He fired several blank cartridges, and while removing the supposed empty shells accidentally exploded one which still contained some of its original filling. The cap flew off, struck him in the eye and inflicted a severe wound, but could not afterwards be found. A skilful oculist was applied to, who succeeded in saving the eye, and no further trouble was experienced until lately, when the healed wound began to be painful, and another examination was made. It finally became necessary to remove the eyeball, which, upon dissection, was found to contain the exploded cap carefully imbedded in it

GENERAL.

Julia Ward Howe informs us that "the financial incompetence of men in general is becoming every day more evident to the world at large." It is especially evident in the morning, when their wives have "gone through their pockets overnight."

Lady Wentworth, wife of the son of Lady Lovelace, Byron's Ada, is a fair woman, with brown hair, and a girlish contour of face. She was a very Psyche of girls, and is yet so beautiful that her appearance in public is a signal for a rush.

Many persons will be surprised to learn that Liverpool, Edgland, is not an incorporated city; it is merely a town, and a movement is proposed in the direction of obtaining a city charter. Manchester and Glasgow, though less important places than Liverpool, are cities. So is Fredericton.

A barber, while cutting the hair of a rural customer, ran his scissors against some hard substance, which proved to be a whetstone. The old farmer said he "had missed that whetstone ever since haying time last July, and had looked all over a ten-acre field for it, but now remembered sticking it up over his ear."

When steam navigation began, the wildest speculations were indulged in as to speed; but all of them were doomed to be falsified by the results. With the hosts of improvements yearly adopted, the original speed of eight miles per hour has scarcely been doubled. On the average it has not; the fastest ocean-going steamers only accomplish fifteen miles. In smooth rivers and in narrow channels much higher rates of speed have been obtained; but the average of all kinds of steamers, river and ocean, is from twelve to sixteen miles per hour, and the problem that still vexes engineers is how to obtain a much higher rate of speed. When that will be solved no one can tell; the ocean is a mighty monster, and will not readily be subdued.

A NEW THING AND A GOOD THING

THE invention of the paper collar was of positive benefit to the world, furnishing as it did, a neat, clean, and most economical article of apparel. But it never did answer all the purposes for which it was designed, owing to the rail nature of the material. The problem has been to make a cloth collar as cheap as paper that would last longer and could be made always fresh and bright. The new "44" collar, now upon the market, fills these requirements perfectly. It is made entirely of cloth, three thicknesses being used; it so closely resembles the finest linen that it might be sold anywhere for linen; and, no matter how much it may be soiled, it can be cleaned and made as bright as ever by the application of a damp sponge or cloth.
