DISCUSS GAS RATES.

INGERSOLL, March 9.—At the request of General Manager Davis of the Ingersoll Gas Light Company, Mayor Henderson and Councillor J. E. Ferguson today left for New York to discuss the existing situation with the directors of the company. Since last summer Ingersoll has vigorously protested the 80-cent rate. Some time ago a resolution was passed by the council calling upon the company to create a separate fund here, the equivalent of the consumers could be reimbursed if a wower rate was established. The company, it is understood, is desirous of discussions that the markets of the company of the company is desirous.
