THE WOUNDS OF JESUS CHRIST.

On Friday last Holy Church commemorated the Five Sacred Wounds of Jesus Christ-endured for the deliverance of man from the voke and the thraldom of eid. A feast more touching in its significance, more suggestive in the memories it recalls, more potent in the reflection and O Lord anew. # THE PROVINCIAL SUBSIDIES.

More than a year ago we pointed out in the RECORD that the time had come when the Dominion sud-idies to the Provinces should be rearranged on a new basis. Everything that since happened in our political world convinces us that these subsidies must, in the interests of peace and progress, be either rearranged or abolished. We read in the daily press that their youth, and disgusted with life ere they are well begun to live. Reading everything except what is useful and in-structive-dabbling in sciences, whose first principles they have not mastered, under teachers who do not understand under teachers who do not understand what they profess to expound, the youth of to-day take their place in the world with hearts untrained regarding the duties and responsibilities of life, and with minds too shallow to be impressive, even minds too shallow to be impressive, even by the grandeur of nature, or to rise from its contemplation to the Eternal Creator. Some think that those who profess to be bored by everything, who say they are disappointed in the grandest scenes of nature-who only see failure and wearisomeness where genera-tions saw sublimity and pleasure, are pre-tending a disappointment they do not feel. But it is not pretence; they are bored, disgusted, weary. But why? Simply because they are too shallow to be capable of receiving ennobling emotions, because of receiving ennobling emotions, because self indulgence has dried up the fount of pure affections; because, whilst having read much, they have studied none. Hence, too, the senseless prattle in which they in-dulge regarding the end and aim of life, the teachings of Religion, and the action of God, the Creator, in relation to His creatures." His Grace's Pastoral is dated at Rome. His Grace's Pastoral is dated at Rome, from without the Porta Pia. It is worth remarking that Bishops, even when so-journing at Rome, cannot date their official documents from within the Eternal City, a privilege reserved for His Holiness alone. Archbishop O'Brien is expected home for Easter.

His Grace will be gladly welcomed by his devoted clergy and faithful people. We pray that his voyage homewards may be prosperous.

PERSONAL.

The RECORD Office was last week honorea by a visit from Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Nolan, of Toronto. Mr. Nolan, who is at present unwell, will, we trust, soon recover his accustomed health and strength. Such is indeed the wish of his many friends throughout the country, and of him it may be said that he has as many friends as he has acquaintances.

We were delighted last week to meet in London Mr. Connor, junior member of the well-known and extensive business firm of Thos. Connor & Son, rope manufacturers, Portland, St. John, N. B. Mr. Connor is a young gentleman of a decided business tact and extensive information that give promise of much usefulness to his Province and to the Dominion.

"Meantime," says the august prelate, "I will be happy to inform the Holy Father as to the condition of the East Indies, to testify to the great liberty

Deceased was a young, unmarried man of thirty, much respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. For three months previous to his death he suffered a great deal, but bore his trying affliction with Christian fortitude and patience. Medical skill failed to alceviate the sufferings which death finally brought to an end. He was one of the first mem-
