

SHE'S VERY PERSPICACIOUS.

A woman who prides herself on her insight into the characters of men she meets remarked the other day that a man always judges other men by himself as a standard. This is the way she finds one man judges another man:—

A Crank—One who has theories about men and things different from his own.

A Dude—One who dresses better than he.

A Miser—One who saves more money than he.

A Spendthrift—One who spends more than he.

A Snob—One whose social position is better than his own.

An Upstart—One whose social position is worse than his own.

A Rascal—One who owes him money.

Ditto—One to whom he owes money.

A Smart Man—One who thinks as he does.

A Fool—One who doesn't.—New York World.

"Saturday Night's" Christmas for 1892.

The Christmas number of Saturday Night will be a magnificent publication. The Sheppard Publishing Co. say this issue will cost them over $12,000, and it looks it.

The cover contains a picture in photo-lithograph in seven colors and as many half-tones. The pictorial supplement, which is larger than that of last year, is a production of a picture owned by the proprietors of Saturday Night themselves. It is exceedingly lovely. The stories this year are as follows: "Tom's Little Sister," by John Hubbard, author of Helena's Babies. "The Nephew of His Uncle," by Octave Thanet, author of Expiation. (The most popular magazine writer in America). "The Rich Relation," by George Parsons Lathrop. (There is no more attractive name in American Magazines). "Kate Gordon's Christmas Miracle," by Julian Hawthorne. "Little Lady," by Ida Burwash, probably the prettiest story in the book. "Senior the Engineer," by Edmund E. Sheppard.

All these stories are magnificently and copiously illustrated by the best artists in New York and London. Mr. Sheppard's story is being specially illustrated by Mr. F. A. Fernand, of New York, from photographs and studies made by the author while in Mexico, and, artistically at least, this will be one of the most prettily illustrated tales that has ever appeared in America.

Altogether an exceedingly handsome and interesting number.

The Best Evidence of Merit.

In any line of manufactured goods is the demand for such goods. It shows that the excellence of the workmanship and quality of material is recognized by the intelligent and appreciative public. Such is the case with the superior Buckeye Bells of Cincinnati, O., for Messrs. Vanduzen & Tift report a constantly growing demand for their Chimes, Bells and Peals. They are now at work casting 10 Chimes and Peals aggregating 60,000 lbs. (exclusive of hangings) destined respectively for the following places, viz: Duluth, Minn.; Camp Washington, Ohio; Menominee, Mich.; South Chicago, Ill.; Cincinnati, O.; Chicago, Ill.; Cleveland, O.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Randolph, O.; Manistee, Mich. Besides these they are casting a 2,000 lbs. bell for Marion, Ind., a 2,000 lbs. bell for Winchester, Ky., a 2,500 lbs. bell for Galesburg, Ill., a 2,500 lbs. bell for Nova Scotia, a 2,500 lbs. bell for Sioux Falls, S. Dak., a 2,500 lbs. bell for Muskegon, Mich., a 2,100 lbs. bell for Jackson, Miss., a 4,000 lbs. bell for Green Bay, Wis., besides a great many more bells ranging from 400 lbs. up to 1,800 lbs. each, and the satisfaction their bells give is flattering in every way. Their bells are hung with the best, latest improved hangings, containing many superior advantages not to be found in any other make of bell hangings, which puts this firm in the front rank of skilled Bell Founders. The firm lately used a fine bell in the Columbus Anniversary Celebration, and afterwards an Italian gentleman bought it and had it inscribed, and it will be shipped to Genoa, Columbus' birth-place, thence to go 125 miles—near Rome—and be swung in the tower of a church there. A peculiar coincidence.

COLUMBUS' PRAYER.

"Lord! Eternal and Almighty God! Who by Thy sacred word hast created the heavens and the earth and the seas, may Thy Name be blessed and glorified everywhere. May Thy Majesty be exalted. Who hast deigned to permit that by Thy humble servant Thy sacred Name should be made known and preached in this other part of the world."

As a blood purifier the Indigenous Bitters holds the first rank amongst medicines of any price or country, recommended for this purpose. These Bitters are sold at 25 cts. package.

HEARTLESS AND BRUTAL.

Respect for the President's very recent grief should have restricted the caricaturing journalists during that portion of the political campaign which followed the death of Mrs. Harrison. We trust that now, at least, political disaster having followed fast on domestic bereavement, the heartless caricaturists will cease their brutal work.—New World.

HONEST SOAP.

The Testimony of Half-a-Century.

PEARS' SOAP.

INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE OF SUPERIORITY.

FROM

Dr. REDWOOD, Ph. D., F.C.S., F.I.C.

Professor of Chemistry and Pharmacy to the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain.

"BEING authorised by Messrs. PEARS to purchase at any and all times and of any dealers samples of their Soap (thus ensuring such samples being of exactly the same quality as is supplied to the general public), and to submit same to the strictest chemical analysis, I am enabled to guarantee its invariable purity.

My analytical and practical experience of PEARS' SOAP now extends over a lengthened period—NEARLY FIFTY YEARS—during which time

 I have never come across another Toilet Soap which so closely realises my ideal of perfection.

Its purity is such that it may be used with perfect confidence upon the tenderest and most sensitive skin—

even that of a New Born Babe."
