

20. All judgments rendered under this Act, for homologating any award of experts, and for finally ascertaining the rights of the parties, shall be final and without appeal; Provided only, that if the same shall have been rendered at the instance of a claimant proprietor, and without any admission of the title of such claimant on the part of the settler, such settler shall not thereby be deprived of his right of appeal upon the ground of title only.

Judgments homologating awards to be final. Proviso.

21. Nothing in this Act contained shall at all effect any right whatsoever of any proprietor, or of any possessor or occupant of land, under any agreement which may have been or hereafter may be entered into between them, or by virtue of prescription, or the course of procedure, or any right of parties, in any suit now pending, or in any suit or proceeding whatsoever not falling expressly within the purview of this Act, or wherein the rights hereby granted shall not have been in effect invoked or set up.

Rights under agreement, &c., not affected.

22. In citing or referring to this Act in any Act or proceeding whatsoever, it shall be sufficient to refer to it as "The Lower Canada Settlers' Protection Act of 1863."
