

such day and hour as shall be by the said Court fixed to hear such Judgement on the Petition, the prayer of which shall be specified in the said order, as the Court shall thereupon give.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that notice shall be given, by advertisement in such Public News-papers, and in such manner as the Court shall direct, to all the creditors of such Debtor to attend at the place and hour that shall be appointed by the said order, which notice shall be sufficient to authorize the said Court to proceed and render its Judgement, upon the demand and conclusions of the said petition, and upon the several matters incidental to it.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the expence of Printing and publishing such notice as aforesaid, shall be liable to be taxed and limited to such moderate charge as the Court giving such notice shall deem to be proper and reasonable, under the particular circumstances, and all and every the printers and publishers of public news-papers in this Province, are hereby required to take notice of the same, and govern themselves accordingly.