Address letters to the Militia Department, (Clothing Branch) Ottawa.

Officers clothing and necessaries supplied by the Department on repayment, will be forwarded by Express, free of charge to the applicant, providing he lives at a place where the Express Company has an office; in other cases the parcel will be forwarded to the nearest station to the residence of the person addressed, from which place, the expense of transport must be paid by the party.

In sending parcels by Express a requisition for their transport is given to the Company at Ottawa, which requisition is to be signed by the person receiving the parcels at the place of delivery on the companies line.
