

Q Mr Gignac says that a year ago the demand for cotton goods was so great that the manufacturers were in a position to ask and get almost any price for their production. Can you say whether to your knowledge that statement is correct or not ?

A I am not sufficiently posted to say that

If the manufacturers wanted to write a circular that circular would be just exactly what they want

Q The circular says "Our General secretary, who is a paid servant of the Federation, had defied the ruling of the Executive"-- Is that you?

A Yes

Q What pay do you get ?

A They owe me $160 or $170. I do not get as much as he does. He gets $15 a week

Q You said yesterday that was travelling expenses ?

A Travelling expenses

Q How much salary do they owe you ?

A About $140. That is because I was working for the police court, and when the last convention took place they wanted me, and they did not want me to work for the police court. They said "You cannot fill both positions, so you had better fill one position" I said "Well, if you want me here, of course you will have to pay me. I cannot support my family on nothing". So I sent in my resignation

Q When was that ?

A On the fifteenth of April.
