

war, the official opposition is willing to allow him to be returned unopposed.

This shows help is morally in the Country at large and, take my word, will do us a lot of good in Quebec in more ways than one.

I will be very much surprised if Gen. Fiset proves himself to be a mere follower of King and Lafontaine and does not take a broad view of public questions irrespective of party lines.

If the Govt. chooses another Candidate, then pressure should be brought to bear upon General Fiset to run as an independent with our support.

Failing any of the above two
