Dear Mr Meighen

As I knew you when a school girl in St. Marys and as a friend of your mother.

I was Little Willie then, and am now the widow of the late Rev. P. H. Anderson, who was a minister in St. Marys some years ago.

Will it be permissible for me to ask a favor for my son

E. C. W. Anderson; who is thirty three years old, married no children in perfect health; has been for the past seven years in charge of Personnel and employment for the Fort-Frances Pulp and Paper Company; he is Secretary-Treasurer of the Conservative Association here.
