Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th Instant, enclosing copy of one from Mr. J. C. A. Brighton stating that he is informed by Mr. Denoyers, P. M. that the sum of $25.00 will cover all the charges and expenses of himself and Clerk to and from Chateauguay to try the case of Thomas Elliott for selling liquor to Indians, provided he is not absent more than one day.
