

It has been wonderful to have you standing by us, Willie Billie. You have already done so much for us that we can never hope to repay you in kind or best. All one in the nearest dollar machine, which he has really more than you should have done and it will go a long way towards keeping us out of hospital and doctor's bill. John and I appreciate it very, very much and I can't tell you how very much we love you for waiting some day in some way. He may be able to show you our great appreciation of everything you have done for him and me. We are for your kind understanding and help in our great quiet sorrow and character building experience. Sincerely,

Dear Willie Billie,
 Hearing you by that name seems to come very naturally now in these days when you have been so close to us. You have been for the little of the past few months. I greeted me this morning when I saw first day back to my eyes. He came it seems to picture so exactly my idea of you as he is now. That you can't help thinking that your mother, John's great grandmother and my mother's mother were waiting for today when he would be here. I love to think that they may be
