

DRAFT - Greetings to people of U.S.A. and admiration of war effort

I should like you, Mr. President, to carry back to the people of the United States ^{heartfelt} ~~the fraternal~~ greetings ^{from} of the people of Canada. Canada is a relatively small nation; the United States a very powerful nation. The spirit of neighbourliness between us has nonetheless, driven from our minds any thought of domination, The co-operation between our two countries is an example to all nations.

The people of Canada are filled with admiration of magnitude and effectiveness of the contribution of the United States ^{in accomplishing} to the prosecution of the common struggle.

^{As a woman} ^{of magnitude} The ~~speed~~ ^{and} with which the American people have gathered their strength ^{and mobilized their resources} has filled the world with amazement. ~~Even~~ ^{the momentum and} ~~deeper is our admiration of the efficiency and the heroism~~ ^{of their war effort. All Canada is in} of the fighting men ^{men of the forces} of the United States. In the Southwest Pacific, in the Aleutians, in North Africa, in Sicily, in the skies over every battlefield and on all the oceans of the world, ~~the soldiers, sailors and marines of the United~~ ~~States are writing a glorious chapter in the history of~~ ^{their deeds are recording} freedom. In this war, Canada is proud to fight at the side of the United States. We are creating common memories on many a common battlefield around the globe. Those memories will link us more closely than ever in the years to come.
