

— we cannot but thank God for what He has done for us in the past, and leaning on His Almighty arm, press forward determined with His help to strive to achieve a still larger measure of success in the future than has been ours in the past.

T. D. DENHAM.

St. John, N. B., September, 1910.

