

SUMMER TOURISTS

Catholic visitors at summer resorts in the Muskoka and Lake of Bays districts sometimes find it difficult to attend at Mass on Sundays, through lack of information about the location of churches and the time for Masses. To meet inquiries by interested persons, a subscriber has compiled for publication, from information supplied by the clergy in charge, the following schedule of the times for celebration of Mass at the places here named during the coming summer months:

On the first Sunday of each month.
At Bracebridge, 9 o'clock.
At Morinus, 10:30 o'clock.
At Gravenhurst, 9 o'clock.
At Beaumaris, 7 o'clock.

On Sundays other than the first Sunday of the month.
At Bracebridge, 11 o'clock.
At Morinus, 10:30 o'clock.
At Gravenhurst, 9 o'clock.
At Beaumaris, 7 o'clock.

At St. Anne's, four miles from Bala, Mass at 9 o'clock when it is possible to obtain an extra priest.
At the Wa Wa Hotel, Norway Point, Lake of Bays, Mass will be celebrated every Sunday during July and August at 10 a. m.
Masses will also be celebrated during July and August at the following places:

At Depot Harbor, on July 2nd, 10th, and 20th.
At Maetier, July 23rd and August 30th.
At Port Severn, July 9th, and August 6th.
At Honey Harbor, July 10th, and August 7th.

POPE'S WORDS USED TO ANIMATE THOSE WHO SCALED EVEREST

London, Eng.—Words written by Father Ratti—now Pope Pius XI—more than thirty years ago were the inspirations of the Englishmen who climbed to a point within 1,700 feet of the summit of Mt. Everest, according to Sir Francis Young-husband, late president of the Royal Geographic Society.

"Mountaineering proper is not necessarily rashness, but entirely a question of prudence, courage, strength, and steadiness and of feeling for nature and her most hidden beauties, which are often awe-inspiring, and for that reason more sublime and to the contemplative spirit more suggestive," wrote Father Ratti in the Alpinist Bulletin.

"Those words were written thirty-three years ago by an Italian Alpine climber, Father Ratti," said Sir Francis. "That mountaineer is now become Pope Pius XI, and his words exactly express the sentiment which animated all those connected with the Everest expedition, whether in its initiation or execution, and which will continue to animate them until the final goal is reached."

Sir Francis made these statements in his valedictory as president of the Royal Geographic Society.

OBITUARY

EDWARD HOGAN

One of the largest funerals that has ever been seen in Douro was held from St. Joseph's Church, on Thursday, when the body of the late Edward Hogan was laid at rest. Rev. Father McGuire, assisted by Rev. Father Collins, celebrated the Requiem Mass. The Holy Name Society of Douro, of which the deceased was a faithful member, attended in a body and formed a guard of honor at the church and cemetery. Amongst the relatives who attended the funeral were: Sister Bernhams, Cornwall, Sister

St. Rose, Peterborough, Mr. Thos. Babbitt, Oregon, Mr. and Miss Brick, Ennismore, Mr. and Mrs. Perdue, Peterboro, Mr. and Miss Hogan, Peterboro, Mr. and Miss Maloney, Ennismore, Mrs. Condon, Lakefield, and several others. May his soul rest in peace.

NOVENA OF MASSES FOR THE CONVERSION OF THE JEWS

The attention of the clergy and Laity is again called to the Novena of Masses for the Conversion of the Jews, to be held from September 29 to October 7.

Priests, willing to offer a Mass for this intention, will kindly send their name as well as the place of celebration of the Holy Sacrifice and the date thereof.

Those persons, who can procure a Mass will be good enough to notify us also, as to the above particulars.

We cordially thank all those, who in any way took part in the Novena last year. May God Himself reward them and record their names in His Sacred Heart.

Rev. Mother Superior,
Convent N. D. de Sion,
515 11th St. West,
Prince Albert, Sask.

CALLAGHAN'S TOURS TO STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE

Mr. Callaghan, of London, Ont., has been successfully organizing since 1916 personally conducted tours to the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre.

The trip is a delightful one down the Lakes, through the magnificent St. Lawrence route, touching Montreal and Quebec, to the famous place of pilgrimage just beyond the beautiful Montmorency. The accommodation on the steamers is all that could be desired, and Mr. Callaghan has an increasing number who join each year the excursions arranged. He will leave Toronto on the second group on July 17th. From Toronto, all expenses included, $68; from Kingston, $54.50.

Begin your life-work betimes; it is sad to be sowing your seed when you should be reaping your harvest.

Money Takes No Vacation

When carefully invested it earns just as much interest in July and August as it does in November and December.

How unwise, therefore, to carry un-invested surplus just because during the so-called "dog days" you may feel lackadaisical about re-investing it. Even if you are taking things easy, you may as well keep your money fully employed.

Our current list of Canadian Government and Municipal Bonds contains many good suggestions, returning around 5 1/2% interest—and even more. Suppose you send for a copy.

The Red Ascent

By Esther W. Neill

RICHARD MATTERSON, whose historical studies had led him to become a Catholic, was the son of a Confederate colonel. The tale opens with his departure from a seminary in response to his sister's letter acquainting him with the desperate condition of the family fortunes. And so the black desert of unexpected disappointment leads the way to "the red ascent" through struggles which tried his soul as well as soul, and conquers a situation well-nigh hopeless. The construction of the plot is splendid, and the characters are drawn with exceptional skill.
