

Live Stock Markets.

There was a slightly firmer tone to the market to-day at the Western cattle yards, but prices were not very much advanced. The chief features were the practical closing of buying for export and feeding purposes and the poor prices realized for milch cows and springers. Offerings were fairly heavy, but most of the stuff sold before the close of the market. There were 65 carloads in to-day, which included 1,178 sheep and lambs, 2,400 hogs and about a dozen calves. The feeling in the hog market was weak.

Export cattle—Business in this line may be called closed with to-day's trade. James Eakins was the principal buyer and he took ten car loads. He said that the cattle were of excellent quality to-day and as a consequence prices were slightly higher. He added that no more cattle will be needed in this line, except perhaps a few head which will be taken during the ensuing two weeks to ship via Portland. For some of the extra fancy cattle 4c per lb was paid to-day, but the ruling figures quotable were from 3 1/2c to 3 3/4c per lb, the latter for choice. The weights of these cattle ranged at from 1,350 to 1,375 and 1,400 lbs average; they were the best cattle offered this season. Sales:—20 head 1,375 lbs average, $3 70 per cwt; 19 cattle, 1,240 lbs average, 3 1/2c per lb; one carload cattle, 1,230 lbs average, $3 60 per cwt; one carload cattle, 1,350 lbs average, 3 1/2c per lb.

Butchers' cattle—Good cattle are wanted. The feeling to-day was slightly firmer, the range of prices being from 2 1/2c to 2 3/4c per lb for common to medium, 3c to 3 1/2c per lb for good to choice, and 3 1/2c per lb for extra fancy. Sales:—One carload cattle, 1,210 lbs average, $3 20 per cwt; ten steers, prime quality, 3 1/2c per lb; one car load cattle, 1,000 lbs average, 3c per lb; 7 cattle, fair quality, 900 lbs average, $131.50 for the lot; one steer, 870 lbs weight, $16; 2 cattle 1800 lbs weight, $37 for the two; 9 cattle, 900 lbs average, $20 each.

Stockers and feeders—This trade is about wound up for the season. All the byres are full. There were not many in and prices were firm, but the supply was sufficient. Common stockers sold at from 2c to 2 1/2c per lb, and feeders at from 2 1/2c to 3c per lb. There were not many of the right kind. Sales:—10 head, 1,210 lbs average, $3 20 per cwt, best load on the boards, nearly fat enough to export; 3 head, 1,050 lbs average, 2 1/2c per lb; one car load, 1,200 lbs average, $2 90 per cwt. Quite a few deals were made in vicinity of 3c.

Bulls—Buying was fairly active for choice ones and prices were good considering the state of the market which has ruled for some time. Prices paid for the best ruled at from 3c to 3 1/2c per lb; quite a few touching the latter quotation. Stock bulls are not wanted.

Sheep and lambs—There is no change in this line, except perhaps that it is even weaker than it has been. The top figure for both sheep and lambs is 3c per lb, with sales fair at that rate. Medium sheep sell at from 2 1/2c to 2 3/4c per lb.

Calves—Only a few are wanted as most of those coming in are of good quality and are hard to sell. Only a few good ones will sell. Prices rule from $2 to $6, according to quality. Most of the sales to-day were in the region of $4 and $5 per head.

Milch cows and springers—Sales were slow. A dozen remained in the pens at the close. The quality of many of those on sale is poor. Quotations ranged from $20 to $25 per head, the latter for choice, some selling even as low as $12 to $15 each. Nothing but really good bag cows are wanted.

Hogs—Offerings were very heavy. The top figure paid for the best hogs, weighed off the ears, was $3 85 per cwt now 3c per lb; thick fat hogs, 3 1/2c per lb; stags, 2c per lb; no demand for stores. Prospects are for still lower prices. The best Mr. Harris is offering for next week is $3 75 per cwt, weighed off the ears.

East Buffalo, Nov. 15.—Cattle—Receipts, 37 cars through, 2 cars sale; market quiet and firm; no very good fat cattle here. Receipts, 2 cars through, 10 cars sale; market slow and 5 to 15c lower; good to choice Yorkers, $3 80 to $5 75; mixed medium and heavy, $2 80 to $3 85; few extra heavy, $3 90; good heavy ones, $3 85 to $3 80; cows, $3 25 to $3 40; pigs, $3 80 to $3 35; stags, $3 to $3 25. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 4 cars through, 70 cars sale; market strong and firm for good heavy native sheep and lambs; export grades dull; best native lambs $4 25 to $4 40; good to choice, $3 90 to $4 15; fair to good, $3 50 to $3 85; culls and common $1 85 to $2 25; export sheep $3 to $3 50; handy 85 to 100 lb wethers, $2 90 to $3 10. Cattle closed steady. Hogs closed weak to 6c lower; late sales, mediums, $3 75 to $3 80; good Yorkers, $3 75 to $3 80. Sheep and lambs closed steady; 15 loads Canada lambs here sold at $4 10 to $4 25; few extra, $4 30 to $4 35.

ART AND LITERATURE IN CANADA.

There are cynics who say that there is no public opinion in Canada, no literature. At a dinner given recently by the publishers of Toronto to Mr. Hall Caine, the great novelist, this question was discussed, and a leading publisher remarked that literature would never make rapid advance in this country because it is difficult to induce Canadians to read the works of a Canadian author. This statement, however, is not true with regard to Toronto Saturday Night, which has as large a circulation as any newspaper of its class in America. Its Christmas Number, which will be issued Dec. 1, is the eighth in a series of art numbers. It will be accompanied this year by five splendid colored supplements; the largest, a reproduction of a painting by a Canadian artist, done specially for Saturday Night, is 24 x 33 inches in size. Its title is "Champlain the Explorer," and depicts him and a flotilla of war canoes entering the mouth of a river on Lake Huron. The picture has been praised by the Historical Association as the most interesting and artistic attempt ever made to carry us back to the old days when Canada was little more than a geographical term. The other four pictures are done in sixteen colors, and the book itself, consisting of over forty pages, contains the four prize stories in the Saturday Night competition. Following is a list of contents:

1st prize, "A Reconnaissance at Fort Ellice," by William Bleasdel Cameron. Illustrations by J. C. Innes.
2nd prize, "Bob Shwey's Ruby," by W. A. Fraser. Illustrations from photographs.
3rd prize, "A Matter of Necessity," by John McCrae. Illustrations by F. M. Bell-Smith, R.C.A.
4th prize, "Widow Molony," by J. C. Innes. Illustrations by the author.
"Jim Lincey's Pass," by E. E. Sheppard. Illustrated.
"From the Sublime," by Warren H. Warren. Illustrations by G. A. Reid, R.C.A.
"Nanton's Sister," by Alice Ashworth. Illustrated.
"Hendershot of Strathgannoch," by Joe Clark. Illustrations by Carl Ahrens, A.R.C.A., and Beatrice Sullivan.
"So-Long," an etching by "Don."
"Hawkie's Dream," (poem), by Alexander McLachlan.
"The Love of the World Detected," (poem), by William Cowper. Illustrations by J. W. Bengough.
"Life of Champlain," by George Stewart, M.A., D.C.L.
"As a Little Child," (poem), by Evelyn Durand.
"A Song," (poem), by Gertrude Bartlett.

The price of the number, postpaid to any address, in a pasteboard tube to protect it from damage in the mails, is 50 cents, and a point of literary excellence and the quantity and quality of the supplements it far exceeds anything offered by foreign holiday publications. Mr. James L. Hughes, Inspector of Schools for Toronto, has said "that the Champlain picture should be framed and hung in every schoolroom in Canada," and schoolteachers everywhere should take an interest in bringing it before the public. Teachers and young people can do a good work by sending for a Christmas number of Saturday Night, and a better work by acting as agent for it and inducing their neighbors to send for it as well. A liberal commission is allowed. Address the Sheppard Publishing Company, Limited, Adelaide Street west, Toronto. The price of the regular edition of Saturday Night, which undoubtedly stands alone as Canada's most interesting and thoroughly high-class illustrated weekly, is $2 per year.

"I paid a Toronto specialist on catarrh a large sum of money but I got no benefit. I tried them all, but finally, almost in despair, I tried Chase's Catarrh Cure. Mr. George Gould, county clerk, was 75 years of age on Tuesday. I had an ulcerated leg for four years, treated with doctors and tried all kinds of medicines. I was cured by two bottles of Kootenay Cure.

The theft was discovered some hours after and the pursuit of the thieves was taken up and continued until next morning when one of them was caught driving the stolen rig some miles beyond Shelburne.

Racked with Rheumatism
Unable to Walk, owing to circulating pain. After ten years' terrible torture, Cured by Scott's Sarsaparilla.

A. H. Christiansen, writing from the Clifton House, Niagara Falls, says: "I owe you more than I can ever pay. For ten years I suffered the tortures of the damned with rheumatism. Father had it before me, and I believe it is an hereditary disease. My knee joints would get inflamed and if I was out in any 'weather' I was sure to be laid up, which to a travelling man is a calamity. In a score of Canadian towns local doctors treated me, some giving relief, others none. I read that Sarsaparilla was a rheumatic cure, and I asked a druggist for 'a bottle of the best Sarsaparilla on the market.' He gave me Scott's, remarking that it was an improvement on all others, and that he could honestly recommend it. I have taken four bottles, and am as free from pain as a man can hope to be. I was out in a rainstorm two days ago and never felt a twinge. As I said before, to Scott's Sarsaparilla I owe more than I can ever repay."

The best remedy for rheumatism, sciatica, and neuralgic pains—all arising from the presence of poison in the blood—is Scott's Sarsaparilla, a modern concentrated medicine, prompt in its curative effects. Doses from one half to one teaspoonful. At $1 per bottle of your druggist.
