THREE BURGLARS CAUGHT REL-HANDED IN NORTH END

There were no less than four attempts at burglary in the North End on Saturday night. Only one, however, was successful. As a result, Thomas J. Connell, 21; James McElhinney, 22, and Heels Higgins." After graduating from Charles Ritchie, 25, alias Charles Hig- the penitentiary he assumed the name gins are under arrest Yesterday morning it was found that leged father. wool and hide merchants, Kimball treet, had been entered and a dollar soler from the till. The burglars had oken open the office door.

Another break was at the Cornwall cotton mills, where early Saturday evening the thief or thieves entered re heard by S. P. Gerow, secretary of the company, who happened to be office at the time. Thinking that it was the watchman he called ou to him, and then heard hurried footsteps and the crash of glass.

mple passing along the street four years in the refe leaving the premises they happened to look out an open window on the second floor and found two larrested with Thomas Howe for break Connell had attempted to escape house of Edward Harrington. He was the icy logs, 20 feet below, on which he the next six years in Dorchester. would fall, he got cold feet. The profestive season, and they "looked good"

nen escorted Connell to the station and returned with Sergt. Smith A. P. Sherwood, commissioner of the and entrance was effected. While look- Dorchester. On March 20th of the same ing around, they were amazed to see year, however, he was again set at libn trying to enter the office of erty on ticket of leave. eph A. Likely, a few yards away They made chase and captured James | Connell's Record | McElhinney, while a second man esned. This man however, was recognied and about two o'clock, Charles le, alias Chas. Higgins, was arsted by Sergts. Kilpatrick and Smith and Patrolman Hamm. Ritchie strenu

All three men are local products.

IMMENSE ORE AREAS OF N. S. STEEL CO.

This Concern Could be Run Indefinitely as SYDNEY, Dec. 23.-"If the Nova tured a pound of iron or steel, on a revenue production and dividend aying basis," said a gentleman who At the entrance of a little-frequenthas sufficient ore in sight and out of sight at Wabana to keep it in operation merely as a mining industry for tion merely as a mining industry for which exploded under the horses, killwhich exploded under the horses, killwhich exploded under the horses, killwhich exploded under the horses, killand the entrance of a little-frequentted side street, leading to the military to find the woman threw the bomb, now enjoy actual or honorary sovereign rank. It is well known that the valtion merely as a mining industry for the entrance of a little-frequentted side street, leading to the military thospital, the woman threw the bomb, which exploded under the horses, killthe entrance of a little-frequentted side street, leading to the military

thospital, the woman threw the bomb,
which exploded under the horses, killthe entrance of a little-frequentted side street, leading to the military
thospital, the woman threw the bomb,
which exploded under the horses, killthe entrance of a little-frequentted side street, leading to the military the side of thrones and gravely affect the stathough the side of many years to come. I am informed," continued the gentleman referred to "that in addition to the latter proerties at Bell Island the company is just getting in touch with submarthe day when they will be account of the area now if not richer than that of the area now if not richer than that of the area now if not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now if not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area now is not richer than that of the area. on Iron and Steel Company developing their Newfoundland m the shore, and beyond the line on Steel areas there is my areas. The latter are now tununder the areas of the former to ach their own iron areas. Boring erations revealed the fact that in arine areas there are lying en five and six hundred million tons of ore."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 21.-The ional Board of Arbitration which

Away With Weariness! Brace Up-Get Strong-Get Fat

The Gure is Simple, Make your blood nutritious and you'll have lots of strength Your only hope is Ferrozone, an instant blood-maker, blood purifier.bloodenricher. it brings keen appetite, digests food and supplies nutrition for all the bodily tissues.

Ferrozone makes muscle and nervefibre, increases your weight, instils reserve of energy into the body that defies weariness or exharstion from

of spirit and robust health office man, the minister, the teacher - is valued at $400,000. It is divided beto these will Ferrozone bring a new life ween the three children of the testa-For growing girls, women of all ages Fred. Ryan, all of Sackville. The can is demonstrated by the attitude of ing to the assumption of names and ti--no tonic is more certain. Sold in 50c. homestead goes to Charles W. Fawthe various foreign envoys accredited the various foreign envoys accredited to the various foreign en boxes by all dealers.

of Ritchie in remembrance of his al-

the premises of John Kimball & Sons, McElhinney is a brother-in-law of Ritchie, alias Higgins, while Higgins is withstanding this relationship, how ever, the police are inclined to think that Council's thieving was entirely independent and unknown to the others The police have a suspicion that Mo Elhinney and Higgins know something of the other two breaks.

Higgins' Exploits

Higgins has a police record beginning in 1894. On the 24th of July in that Magistrate Ritchie for breaking int The next break was at Jacob Meyers | John McIntyre's house. On April 18, & Son's junk store, off Main street.

About nine o'clock Patrolmen Greer from W. J. Linsan and sentenced to ard a noise in the house, and enter- April 5, 1896, just a year afterward ed the premises. A thorough investiga-tion, however, did not reveal the in-and entering and for stealing from the truder, but just as the policemen were shops of C. F. Brown and W. R. Lord.

On the 13th of February, 1900, he was grasping the window ing and entering and for stealing from the them the policemen hauled the shop of Thos. Heffernan and also nas Connell back into the building. entering and stealing from the boat ugh the window, but when he saw sentenced by Judge Forbes to spend

On June 24, 1904, he was licensed to ors had some geese on the premises | be at large on ticket of leave during were being fattened for the the remaining portion of his term, and made use of his liberty to assault man on Brussels street and also to fined $16 for resisting the police and $20 for assault by Magistrate Ritchie.

On Jan. 27, 1905, he was arrested by make an examination to find how Dominion police, and taken back to 10th of April,1901, he was arrested with Ernest Gibbon for entering and stealing from the shops of Chas. Go and was sent to Dorchester by the Magistrate. On Jan. 14, 1906, he was arsted with a man named Wolfe for stealing deals and was allowed by

WOMAN THROWS BOMB

ST. PETERSBURG. Dec. 21,-Gene mann, Governor of Moscow while driving in a double-harnes sleigh with his adjutant, Prince Obol ensky, to preside at the bic celebration of the Moscow Military ing both on the spot, destroying the sleigh and seriously wounding the driver. Prince Obolensky was thrown on on the part of the leaders of internation on the part of the leaders of internation that the street and the plume of General the street, and the plume of General the street, and the plume of General ional anarchy, who look forward to nothing even anterior to a hundred Goerschelmann's helmet was blown off. the day when they will be able to years ago, and which relates in the jutant was injured. They proceeded on be filled. In fact, it is a common saying that there is no building in the concerned. mained throughout the ceremony.

taken, terribly wounded to the hospital.

General Goerschelmann has been wealth of every description, representing as the Cardinal Archbishop of Paris, in accordance with instructions received tribute of the faithful from all quarters. marked by the revolutionaries ever ters of the globe and which have gone riage at Paris of the present represensince the notorious case where he ordered a new trial after a court-martial had condemned four peasants to prison and not to death for killing a pol-iceman in a drunken brawl. A second

LORD KELVIN BURIED IN

WESTMINSTER ABBEY

LONDON, Dec. 23-Under the shadow several days, considered appeals from of the monument to Sir Isaac Newton and close to the choir in Westminster have been unable to agree on new have been unable to wage scales with the publishers of noted British scientist, who died Declared in the publishers of noted British scientist, who died Declared in the lawspapers, last night adjourned in the lawspapers, last night adjourned in the lawspapers in the newspapers, last night adjourned presence of a great gathering of scienare a number of men of exceptional tists representing American, and Content of the co the appeal from Washington, D. C., Prince of Wales and other members of the Royal Family sent representatives the lust of the ordinary riches which while among the twelve pall bearers the palace may contain, but by the were men eminent in various walks of idea of being able to secure possession life, John Morley, Lord Rayleigh, and to lay bare those secrets of his-Admiral Sir Edward Herert Seymour, tory which are known to be preserved Lord Strathcons and Mount Royal and in the Papal archives.

others. Almost all the foreign embassies in London were represented. ing moral sense to the extent of caus-The scene at the Abbey was solemn and impressive. No fewer than one in order to augment their store of reading the service which was of the least surprising that those who have

simplest character. CHARLES FAWGETT LEFT AN ESTATE WORTH $400,000

them to attain such an end. SACKVILLE, N. P., Dec. 23-The will of the late Charles Fawcett was men who toil and labor, for the probated here on Saturday. The estate STORM OF PROTESTS. How important are the secrets contor. Horace E., Charles W., and Mrs.

GRAND AND SOLEMN PAGEANT MARKS THE FUNERAL OF SWEDEN'S KING

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 19 Seldom 1 ever in its history has this city witessed such a grand and solemn ceremony as that which today marked the funeral of King Oscar, who died Debitterly cold the entire population of from the county stood bareheaded, silent and sorrowful, along the line of the casket containing all that remained out the city and on the harbor had been prohibited since early morning. Except for the tolling bells, an occasional hum of voices and a clash of arms as the diers lining the route of the funeral cortege took up their positions, hardly even the clatter of horses' hoofs or the rumble of wheels to disturb the quiet draped from the ground to the eaves an attendant.King Gustave was greatly Every house along the route was with crepe and even the color of the affected and its wept hitterly as he uniforms of the soldiers was deadened passed through the crowded streets. by this universal mark of mourning; At the conclusion of the funeral march the epaulettes of the officers were cov- the choir, accompanied by the organ ered with black. The half-masted flags and the orchestra from the opera, relikewise were draped with crepe and cited two Lutheran songs. The funeral oration was delivered by

ROYAL FAMILIES OF EUROPE

FATE OF THOSE INTERESTED.

These archives go back for a thouterial hung across the streets at frequent intervals. The funeral proces- King Oscar's philanthropy and his rite, who refused to comply with the sion included some two thousand per-sons, among them being Gustave, the husband. new king of Sweden, the king of Den-The members of the family broke out mark, the Swedish princes, and prininto convulsive sobs. A salute of fortycesses and ambassadors representing foreign monarchs. Charles H. Graves two guns was fired by the forts and the ships in the harbor and volleys of the American minister, as the special musketry burst forth as the coffin was was given a place of honor immediately placed in the vault of the Bernadottes.

following King Gustave. The procession was headed by the left the church immediately but King nurses who had attended the king in Gustave and the princes remained for his last illness and just behind the a short time, receiving the sympathy solemnity of the occasion, the roadway from the palace to the Riddarholm was King Oscar's favorite horse led by to the palace. hearse, which was drawn by six horses of the ambassadors. Then all returned

ARCHIVES AFFECTING MANY

ADOPTS NAME OF NAUNDORFF.

ever been born or known.

his papers they, remain at. Berlin in archives of the Vatican.

the archives of the royal House of THE FATE OF THE DAUPHIN.

There is abundant evidence to show

MANY SECRETS IN VATICAN'S

with which it is popularly supposed to without the full consent of the diploon accumulating there for centuries.

So well does the Italian government ly, the sol-disant Prince Auguste de Profound study often ends by blunt-ing men to invoke the use of crime devoted their lives and fortunes to the research of history, and who have been baffled at many points by obstacles in the shape of insoluble mysteries, them, and should be ready to promote any and every scheme that will enable

The most Valuable Remedy ever discover COUGHS, COLDS. NEURALGIA, GOUT.

WHOLESALE AGENTS: LYMAN BROS. & CO., LTD., TORONTO,

of the memorial chaper at Paris, erect- throne. ed over what was understood to be the body of King Louis XVI., of his queen, and of their son, the Pontiff only granted it on the condition that the name of the Dauphin be removed, taking the ground set forth in an official spatch, which is on record, that the Pope could not lend himself to the omedy of corsecrating a memoria hapel to a living person.

To what extent the pretensions of Naundorff to be the missing Dauphin were justified it is impossible to say.
Of course they were denounced by the brothers of Louis XVI., since by their ognition he would have become an cle in the way of their succession to the throne of France as Louis ty For similar reasons they were conunder the name of King Louis Phil-

Poison likewise caused the death of the Bishop of Lund, who spoke of the Abbe Dubois, rector of St. Marguehis cousin, the Dauphin. Official dis- within the lest few days? patches of foreign ambassadors at Par- Maxim's has a reputation which it may be found in the archives of the butterfly dame has forsaken its gild-Vatican, is that which exists with re- ed salons for other haunts, it is difgard to the birth-of King Louis Phil- cicult to say. ippe, who, born at Florence, is asserted on excellent authority, vouched for iness has shrunk until there has come by some of the most eminent genealo- a tightening of the purse strings. The gists of the Old World, to be the off- management, it would appear, came spring of a local jailer of the name of Chiappani, and to have been changed to the conclusion that this state of things could not be allowed to conwithin a few hours after his advent | tinue. into the world with the baby girl of the regicide Duke of Orleans, who the business on the death of the foundhad been born at Florence on the same er, Maxime Gaillard, are at the preday. The little girl grew up into a sent moment joint proprietors of two

as "Maria Stella," and, marrying Lord | headed men of business. For some time No palace in the world is an object of more solicitude to the reigning houses of Europe than the Vatican.

No palace in the world is an object of more solicitude to the reigning dents from obtaining access to any literate and mother of the present Lord Newbornhouses of Europe than the Vatican. houses of Europe than the Vatican. material that could affect in the slight-but likewise allowed his sons and ough, who married the royal of Louisville, Ky.

Their anxiety in the matter is, not est degree the prestige and the inter-grandsons to serve under the royal of the state of the stat concerned entirely with the safety of ests of the family of the monarch name of Bourbon in the Dutch army. Philippe was the son of the Florentine in the concern. the Pope and the welfare of the admin- whom they represent. In fact, when In spite of the large sum of money jailer and a changeling are stated to istration of the Roman Catholic some fifteen years ago Leo XIII, pro- spent in turn by Louis XVIII., Charles exist not only in the archives of the be Obolintenary that in the archives of the Vatican are that is the country that the original archives are the vatican are that is the country that the country that the original archives are the vatican are that is the country that the country contained secrets of vast dynastic to the archives of the Vatican, a leans, no one has ever succeeded in well known that throughout the eigh-Hospital, had an amazing escape from import, the revelation of which would storm of protest went up from the avr- finding out who the alleged Dauphin teen years' reign of Louis Philippe At the entrance of a little-frequent In some cases shatter the foundations in some cases shatter the foundations and envoys to the could possibly nave been it not the some of the unhappy Queen Marie Antoinetof thrones and gravely affect the staof thrones and gravely affect the stain some cases shatter the foundations lous ambassadors and envoys to the could possibly have been if not the son Emperor Nicholas I. declined to accre-

as "the jailer."

In the Vatican archives will likewise be found in all its details the true story of the tragedy of Meyerling, of the Incidentally it may be of interest to allude to the extraordinary fate which overtook all, those who espoused the cause of the Dauphin or who expressmon, under whose care the Dauphin world that can boast of such hoards of But it is worthy of note that, wherehave helped to identify him, was seized immediately after the Bourbon restorafate of Alexander I. of Russia and of England coast.

so well does the Italian government realize the extent to which the Vatican is an object of cupidity to the anarchists that in all cases of popular unrest and disturbance in the Eternal City troops are at once massed, not of the value of the insane at Bicetre, where she died fifteen years afterward, without ever having been restored to liberty. It is known that when Emperor Alexander of Russia visited Empress Josephine at Malmaison after the entry of the Vatican could set at rost for all time the popular rumors that were current with regard to the birth of the late King Victor Emmau-phine at Malmaison after the entry of the Vatican could set at rost for all time the popular rumors that were current with regard to the birth of the late King Victor Emmau-phine at Malmaison after the entry of the Vatican could set at rost for all time the popular rumors that were current with regard to the birth of the late King Victor Emmau-phine at Malmaison after the entry of the Vatican could set at rost for all time the popular value of the val court-martial sentenced them to be hanged, and the sentence was carried out forthwith by General Goerschelmann, who allowed no time for an appeal.

City troops are at once massed, not around the King's residence at the peal.

City troops are at once massed, not around the king's residence at the point for the purpose of protecting it against any "coup" on the part of the Reds; and it is a noteworthy fact that on each manifestation of any to prince Charles of Spain. Moreover, that on each manifestation of any to prince Charles of Spain. Moreover, and the vatican abstained from paying any such compliment to the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the history of the escape of the Pontiff, for the purpose of protecting it against any "coup" on the part of the Reds; and it is a noteworthy fact that on each manifestation of any to prince Charles of Spain. Moreover, the court of the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the history of the escape of the Duke of Orleans that the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the history of the escape of the Dauphin and of his rights to the throne in preference to those of his uncle, Louis XVIII., that the autocrat was deeply impressed and there is prince Charles of Spain. Moreover, the order of Russia visited Empress Jose-phine at Malmaison after the entry of the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the history of the reigning of the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the brite at Malmaison after the entry of the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the brite at Malmaison after the entry of the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the brite at Malmaison after the entry of the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the brite at Malmaison after the entry of the ellies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the brite at Malmaison after the entry of the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the salies and the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the salies and the allies into Paris she spoke to him pages of the salies the Reds; and it is a noteworthy fact of the Reds; and it is a noteworthy fact weakness on the part of the Italian with popular Carlos of Spain and Don Miguel of terward that Empress was dead, and, INTEREST IN SAFETY OF VATI-CAN.

according to Sir James Wyley, the Enged to the Eternal City, not only from different parts of Europe, but even from this side of the Atlantic.

ors at the Vatican, the Duke of Orlican according to Sir James Wyley, the English physician of the Czar, she succumbby the late or the present Pope, to cross From this it will be seen how much reason the various sovereign houses of sand years, and some even to still more remote periods. During all that time about the safety of the Vatican. Not the Papacy has either directly or but what if the papal palace were to through its agents played an important | go up in flames and all its contents to role, not merely in each historical be destroyed by fire, many a prince that the Dauphin escaped, and that sev- event, but in every dynastic episode. and princess of the blood would breather tinental as well as British societies. learning. The most dangerous discountries and princess of the loyalist party were learning and princess of the block dangerous discountries. Indeed, it is no exaggeration to assert more freely and feel greatly relieved. port the board says, "That pending a future determination of those present issue, the existing scale shall be obserwed." The board was able to adjust

The board was able to adjust

The board says, "That pending a future determination of those present were clad in against our present social system, in planning the capture of the loyalist party were concerned in his flight. After all sorts of adventures eventually, when the stronghold and headquarters of Rostar of Napoleon was on the wane, he

The board says, "That pending a future determination of those present isthe loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were concerned in his flight. After all sorts of adventures eventually, when the star of Napoleon was on the wane, he

The board says, "That pending a future determination of those present isthe loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were concerned in his flight. After all sorts of adventures eventually, when the star of Napoleon was on the wane, he been made, that no royal drama or tra
The board says, "That pending a future determination of those present isthe loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the states and the present is the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were clad in planning the capture of the loyalist party were star of Napoleon was on the wane, he been made, that no royal drama or traages have everything to gain by their came to Berlin with the view of putgedy has occurred without a full and being preserved from falling into hands ting forward his claim for recognition authentic record thereof being filed less discreet than those of the papacy. as a member of the House of Bourbon. among the archives of the Vatican. The Only slightly inferior in history His uncles the Comte de Provence, af- Papacy has had its agents, not alone in value are the archives of the imperial terward Louis XVIII., and the Comte its diplomatic representatives, former-House of Hapsburg, at Vienna; of the d'Artois, subsequently Charles X., were by noted as the cleverest in the world, royal House of Hohenzollern, at Berin receipt of handsome allowances from but also in every prelate, in every lin, which were concealed at Konigsthe Prussian, Russian and English gov- priest, in every member of the religernments, and the Dauphin hoped that lous orders, among whom the Roman he might be provided for in a similar Catholic sovereigns and the princes and berg during the French invasion a hundred years ago, and those of the reigndozen clergymen were associated in reading the service which was of the least surprising that those who have clude all the private and confidential Provence, and the chief of the Berlin police forced the Dauphin to surrender to him all the papers establishing his

Even at Protestant courts the Papacy has always had its more or less openly avowed but invariably clever and able and contained in some fifty huge cases, identity, and then furnishing him with a passport, rescribing him as Naunshould revel in the notion of having these secrets at length revealed to these secrets at length revealed to them and should be ready to promote them and should be ready to promote them. ever been born or known.

sand years without a complete record him by his chief and benefactor by thereof being received and filed in the selling the entire collection to Emperor Alexander I. As for the archives of the reigning house of England, their value Prussia until today. Eventually the Among the many problems of hisis inestimable. The major part of them Dauphin made his way to Holland. The tory for which a solution might be are preserved at Windsor Castle, and Dutch authorities were not the most found in these archives is, for intained among the archives of the Vati- strict in the world in all matters relat- stance, that relating to the fate of the Victoria dealing with the early part of prison at Paris by his brutal jailer Si- though it be only a faint, notion of the mon, but who is generally believed to gold mine which any historical student have effected his escape. It may be would find if permitted to delve withknown that when the Vatican was ask- out restriction among the secret papers ed in 1826 for a permit of consecration of the last five occupants of the British

SEEK ENGLISH GOLD

Appeal Made to Bolster up Failing Fortunes of Maxim's

PARIS, Dec. 21.-After a checkered

career of fourteen years, Maxim's res-XVIII. and Charles X respectively, on | taurant is seeking for English gold to the restoration of the Bourbon dynas- place it on a firmer financial footing. the promotors, very unpatriotically, demned by the Duke or Orleans, who are not giving their countrymen in succeeded Charles X as ruler of France France much of an opportunity of sharing in the anticipated golden harvest so alluringly set forth in the prospectus. It cannot be for lack of funds in France that local investors devotion and affection as a father and demands of Louis XVIII. to the effect have been passed over. Paris is suffering no financial crisis, and sound inthat he would sign a declaration that the body of the Dauphin had been bur-ied there; while the Duc de Berri, the chivalrous son of King Charles X., was proprietary to attempt to exploit the English market? Is it that the Parijust after a violent dispute with his sian on the spot, and who knows the uncle, Louis XVIII., in which he de- true commercial value of the undernounced the latter's usurpation of the taking, is too wily to be caught by the throne and announced himself as convinced of the validity of the claims of that has been published broadcast would gladly forget, while financially is to their governments, since printed, its prosperity is said to be a thing of Another mystery in connection with the princes and princesses of the House of Orleans, the solution of which may be found in the solution of which

But whatever be the cause

The two ex-waiters who succeeded to autiful woman, figured on the stage Parisian music halls. They are hardurally, under the circu Proofs of the story that King Louis | would like to see other people's money

LIFE SAVING STATIONS

CHATHAM, Mass., Dec. 22-The efmysterious death of Prince Baldwin of ficiency of the life-saving service along Belgium, and also of King Leopold's the coast is being considerably strengonly son, who his mother, Queen Hen- thened by the placing in commission of riette, as long as she lived insisted had power life-boats. The success of this succumbed to poison. There, too, may means of reaching vessels in distress be found the clue to the amazing ab- through tumbling seas, over which dication of the Czarovitch Constantine boats manned by oars would have been had lived in the Temple Prison in 1794, Paulovitch of his rights to the Musco- lost, has been effectively proved within vite throne in favor of his younger bro- the last year and the department has ther, Nicholas; an authentic account of already authorized the establishment tion by orders of Louis XVIII., and King John of Saxony, both popularly One of the power-boats was placed in locked up as a lunatic in the asylum believed to have survived their alleged commission at the station at Stage

QUEEN ALEXANDRA OF ENGLAND

LOVE NOTE TRAPS $32,000 BOY THIEF

Lat Who Took Package of Gems from Express Wagon Confesses

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Through love note, scorned by his inamorata and which had led to his discharge from the factory where he was working last summer, the boy thief who stole the $32,000 package of jewelry from an express wagon last Friday was arrested in Jersey City yesterday The prisoner made a complete confession and every one of the gems was

With the exception of three pieces the valuables were found loosely wrapped in a greasy rag on top of an ice box in the kitchen of a four story tenement at No. 57 Greene street, Jersey City. This section, where squalor and poverty abound, is called "Gamintown" and there William White, the seventeen year old criminal, made his home. One of the missing pieces, a $3,000 pearl necktace, had been recovered from young Louis Pukel, who had bought it for twenty-five cents. Anher had been given to Charles Koroff by the thief. This was a $2,500 dog collar, and the third article, a diamond uster ring, was found in a pocke of an extra pair of trousers in the boy's White had been employed as helper to Charles Koroff, driver of a wagon of the United States Express Cominy. They had in their care the aluables shipped by Alfred H. Smith & Co. of No. 475 Fifth avenue, Man-hattan, to their representative, James H. Cheney, at the New Willard Hotel Washington. After the wagon had been unloaded young White picked up the box of jewelry and walked off with

It is an unusual story that is told to explain how the police made the re eovery. When Joseph Pukel, father of the boy who bought the necklace, told Joseph Schneider, superintendent of the American Tobacco Company, of the purchase, the latter communicated with Captain Robinson of the Jersey City

Detective Bureau. Young Pukel thought the name of the oy who had made the sale was Pietro nell, but in that he was mistaken. Then it was recalled that the one from whom Pukel had bought the jewels had been employed at the factory and been discharged because of his attentions to a girl named Lena Raymond, iso an employe, who lived near Palisades Park. The identity of the seller definitely fixed as being that of the boy who had been dismissed for throwing a note out of the window to the during working hours.

Detectives called on the Raymond 1. She did not recall the name of the boy, but remembered that he had ed in "Gamintown." Then Captain nson made a house to house search of that quarter. After two days' hunt the efforts of the police were rewarded when they found that White, who anewered the description of the girl's admirer, now worked for the United States company. Then they went down to Cummunipaw, and when he drov over there yesterday afternoon they arrested him, with Koroff, the driver. He told the detectives everything.

CHARLES R. HANNAN DEAD IN BROOKLINE

BOSTON, Dec. 24.-Charles R. Hannan, New England financial represent-ative of Swift & Co., the Chicago pack-ers, died at his home in Brookline today after an illness of several months. He was born in Rochester, N. Y., in 1856, but had spent most of his life in the middle West. By selling pop corn and lemonade at country fairs and other places he earned money enough to carry, him through school and through Oberlin College. He organized the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank at Columbia, Dakota, in 1880. Later he became president of the First National Bank of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and organized and constructed an electric street railway line between Detroit and Toledo. He came to Boston as the New England representative ct Swift & Co. in 1904. He was at one time president of the Iowa Bankers' Association and was a member of the staff of Governor Leslie M. Shaw.

JARDINE-PALMER

REXTON, N. B., Dec. 24-A pretty wedding took place at five o'clock last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jardine, Kouchibouguac, when their eldest daughter, Florence Alice, was married to John D. Palmer, the popular traveller for Geo. E. Barbour, St. John, son of David Palmer, of this town. The parlors were decorated with evergreen and holly for the occasion A large number of friends of the contracting parties witnessed the cere money, which was performed by Rev A. D. Archibald. The bride was give away by her Cather on whose arm she entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was played by Miss Isabella Jardine of Richibucto. The bride looked charm ing in a gown of French voile over glace silk trimmed with mamosa lace She carried a shower bouquet of white reses and carnations. Her little nice acted as ring bearer. The bride an groom vere unattended. The bride wa the recipient of many beautiful an costly presents. Luncheon was serve after the ceremony and the bride an groom left for Richibucto, accompan by a number of friends where the took the train this morning for Bo ton and other American cities.

CASTORIA The Kind You Have Always Be