been puppy-ical against the law of the State of New York, by obducting the girl of Cassidy, and hauling her into this State. Judge Sadler was likewise consulted on the law, and the matter was held unadvisedly that it would be a doubtful matter to obtain a conviction under the circumstances of the case, and Mr. Jackson was, therefore, allowed to depart, and the girl was handed over to the father. At the dissolute inside, the poor girl was much affected, and wept bitterly at the separation, exclaiming that she would never return back to her home, to reserve the hands of her other sisters and as-ociate neighbours.—"No, no," said Margaret, "I will go to a prison, but never to the house or those myself, the river, and drown myself. I KNOW what I am to-day, but I shall surely love him, and will I—how he him all over the world. I KNOW what I am to-day, but I shall surely love him, and will I—to abide the consequences. But what may happen, it cannot be any worse. I can save Mr. Jackson it will never forsake me." On Jackson obtaining his liberation, he very liberally handed the Father five sovereigns (£25) towards defraying the expenses of the journey. The girl, after a while, became more calm, and, as no other alternative offered, consented to return home with her father. Mr. Smith is a man of rather poor circumstances, a tailor by trade, and keeps a small store in Montreal. Margaret was introduced to Jackson about three months ago, when he came to Montreal on a business matter, and had, on the arrangement was made to elope. Jackson, in the packet ship Patrick Henry, announced to sail yesterday, for Liverpool, on which he departed, clothing Limself Dromedarily for the voyage, from the hands of the Police authorities.—New York Herald.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

FOR SALE.—The MATERIALS forming part of the INTERIOR of the THEATRE ROYAL, Montreal. The SCENERY, including the Decorations, were executed by the celebrated Artist, Mr. Henry Hilliard, Scene Painter to the Theatre Royal, London, assisted by Mr. James Lamb, of New York, and Mr. Louis Franzi, of Milan Theatre. This Temple of Art is too well known to need much praise. The citizens of Montreal would do well to embrace this favorable opportunity, and form a Joint Stock Company to erect a proper building to receive the same. The undersigned has been informed that a Joint Stock Company is about being formed at Quebec, to erect a Theatre; and it would be much to be regretted to allow the same to be purchased by them, and deprive our own city of a place of Public Amusement.
