WEDDING BELLS

Porter-Zwicker

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning August 15th, when Lulu de Blois Zwicker, B.A., second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Zwicker, Bear River, was married to Willard Apperly Porter, B.Sc., Kentville, N. S., now of the 219th Battalion, Nova Scotia Highland Brigade.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. G. Dakin, B.A., B. D., assisted by Rev. O. P. Brown, only the immediate relatives and friends being present. The parlor was tastefully decorated with flags for the occasion.

The bride was most becomingly attired in a dress of white voile with silk trimmings, wearing the conventional veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and maiden hair fern and was given away by her father.

Mendelshon's wedding march was well rendered by Miss Lois Porter, sister of the groom.

After the wedding breakfast amid showers of confetti and good wishes Mr and Mrs Porter left by automobile for Lawrencetown, en route for Hall's Harbor and Kentville.

There were many presents including a china dinner set, cut glass, silver and gold coin.

Corbitt-Jordan

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jordan, Main St., Kentville on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. Karl Everett Corbitt of Halifax and Gladys, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Guy Bleakney of Wolfville under a pretty arch of flowers and wedding bell tastefully arranged by the girl friends of the bride. The bride was unattended and was given away by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with pearl trimmings and bridal veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. The travelling suit was a blue broadcloth tailor made. After the ceremony a reception was held and refreshments served and the bridal party started in an auto on the wedding trip to include the towns of Western Nova Scotia.

On their return they will reside at Halifax where Mr. Corbitt has a Government position. About forty guests were present being the near relatives of the families.

Mrs. Corbitt has been one of the very popular young ladies of the town and will be very much missed. The wedding presents included a large sum of money a cabinet of silver and other valuable silverware articles, cut glass, hand painted china, table linen and other articles of use and ornament.

MARRIED AT MAPLEHURST.

The pretty residence "Maplehurst" was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday afternoon when Alice Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Chipman became the bride of Sergt. Howard Graham of the 185th Battalion at Aldershot. The ceremony was a quiet one taking place in the afternoon and the officiating clergyman was Rev. T. C. Mellor.

The bride who was always a very attractive young lady looked charming in her wedding gown of white nixon over satin with veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a shower bouquet of roses. Miss Margaret Chipman, her sister was maid of honor. After luncheon Sergeant and Mrs. Graham motored to Wolfville en route to Windsor and Truro.

MARRIED AT MAPLEHURST.

Among the guests present were the following relatives, Sir Wallace Graham of Halifax, uncle of the groom, Judge and Mrs. John W. Chipman, Kentville, C. R. H. Starr and Mrs. Starr, Wolfville, Mrs. Brine, Boston, Mrs. Fitzhugh, New York, etc. Sergt. Graham is one who
