THE ATHENS REPORTER

SINCE the first of January we have noted with satisfaction that the Reporter's list of subscribers, particularly in Athens and vicinity, has been steadily increasing. This is certainly encouraging to the publisher, and it should also be of particular interest to those wishing to purchase

ADVERTISING

The Reporter places your wants or business before a large number of the leading residents of this district, and an advt therein should bring you business.

JOB PRINTING

We have always paid particular attention to our job printing department and have a large patronage in this line. We do a lot of pamphlet and commercial work, and our posters are found in all parts of the county. We print all kinds of posters and furnish entertainments with bills, tickets, programmes, etc. at very reasonable rates.

Orders for Cheese-factory blanks of all kinds promptly filled.

ELGIN

No rain of any account in May.

The engine on the B. & W. set fire several times to the woods on the property of R. O. Haskins on June 3. When the morning down train passed it started a dangerous fire. A number of teams with milk cans of water and thirty or forty men, after a long pull, got it under control. It is very hard work in smoke and heat. Next morning it caught in two places from the engine and another grand rally was made. The managers of the road ordered an engine and tender to bring a supply of water from Westport. This was a big help, and for it the fire-fighters were grateful. And further, the engineers were careful to avoid dropping fire where it was likely to ignite the dead grass.

FRANKVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Holden, of Yarker, visited friends here last week, drying all the way. They are looking well and hearty for old people.

The dry weather has become a serious matter in these parts.

The Toledo and Frankville boys played a game of base-ball here on Saturday evening, the Frankville boys winning 8 to 2.

The services in the Methodist church on Sunday morning were conducted by Mr. J. J. Lucky, of Toledo, in the absence of Rev. F. Spruill, who is attending Conference at Kingston.

Miss Jessie Kilborn has gone to Delta to visit her aunt, Mrs. J. Curtis.

CHANTREY

Mr. G. J. Alford and family left here last week for London, Ont., where they expect to make their home in the future. We wish them success in their new home.

A very light sprinkle of rain fell last evening; hope we will get more to-day, as it is very much needed.

The Rev. Daniel Earl, of Bedford, visited at Mr. G. Chamberlain's last week.

Mr. J. W. Eaton and family of Manitoba, are at Mr. H. Eyre's. They expect to make their home in Ontario in the future. We give them a hearty welcome.

From the many who signed the petition in favor of Mrs. Earl (wife of Rev. D. Earl), it would seem that she has the sympathy of the most of folks on the Delta circuit.

DAWTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wood went to Frankville after their daughter and granddaughter.

Wedding bells are ringing loudly.

Mr. Joseph Jones received her $2,000 dollars from the A.O.U.W. of Addison lodge.

Mr. Eli Wood and daughter, Mrs. J. W. Jones, made a trip to Brockville last week.

Miss Violet Jones is taking music lessons from Mr. Frank Eaton, of Frankville.

Mr. Rufus Stevens has treated himself to a new buggy.

Mr. Myers, of Elgin, had a team killed on the Brockville and Westport track last week.

Miss Maria Wood has returned home from Frankville where she has been staying with her sister.

Mr. William Hoffman is building a kitchen.

The Best Liniment

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelgans, of Tuckahoe, N.J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare it's merits to be wonderful." For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.

DELTA

Misses Nellie Whitney, Alice West, Louetta Dubrule, and Mr. W. H. B. Dowsley, of Prescott, and Miss Gladys Whitney and Mr. Carlos Warfield, of Helena, Montana, are guests of R. A. Whitney at the summer cottage across the lake.

Death has visited this section and removed from our midst Mrs. George Connors. Her death took place on Thursday, 4th, after three years of illness from consumption. Deceased was about forty-two years old, and her death was a severe blow to the family. All that kind and willing hands could do was done to relieve the sufferer.

The remains were conveyed to the Methodist church, where Rev. J. P. Dunham, of Phillipsville, preached the funeral sermon; thence to the cemetery.

story. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community in their time of trouble.

Crops in general are looking fine, except old meadows, which need more rain. Planting is under good way now and will be finished soon. A large acreage of wheat has been sown.

Rev. G. H. Williams being at conference, his pulpit was filled last Sunday by Rev. J. P. Dunham, of Phillipsville.

GLEN BUELL

On Wednesday evening (June 3rd), fire totally destroyed the cattle sheds on Unionville fair grounds which were the property of George Forth, of Forthton. Owing to prompt and timely assistance rendered by the citizens, a serious conflagration was averted. The blaze is supposed to have started from the engine of the east bound freight train on the B. & W.

Mr. Watson Davis has purchased a new organ.

Miss Gertrude Sturgeon, who has been visiting friends at Algonquin for a few days, has returned home.

All interested in the opening of a ditch for draining the land lying between the farm of Hudson Davis and Temperance Lake should attend the meeting which has been called for that purpose at the residence of Watson Davis on the 19th of this month.

TRAVELTAN

Among those who attended the great show held at Kingston on Friday last were Mr. J. Williams and Mrs. J. Birch.

Owing to the great drought, the crops in this vicinity are in a very poor condition, and the farmers are beginning to consider the drought a very serious matter to them.

Mr. McLean, Athens, put up a very fine monument last Friday in the English Church burying ground in memory of the late Duncan Warren.

J. Flood and N. Ferguson made a flying visit to Athens last Saturday evening.

Mr. R. J. Leeder has purchased for himself a new buggy and harness.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Moses Leeder and bride, who returned home last Thursday.

The stone-crushers have been busily employed for the past week at R. Dixie's where forty-one cords of stone have been piled. This, when on the road, will greatly improve them.

Services will be held in St. Luke's Church Sunday next at 7 o'clock in the evening.

LIFE

The poet's exclamation; "O Life! I feel thee bounding in my veins," is a joyous one. Persons that can rarely or never make it, in honesty to themselves are among the most unfortunate. They do not live, but exist; for to live implies more than to be. To live is to be well and strong—to rise feeling equal to the ordinary duties of the day, and to retire not overcome by them—to feel life bounding in the veins.

A medicine that has made thousands of people, men and women, well and strong, has accomplished a great work, bestowing the richest blessings, and that medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The weak, run-down or debilitated, from any cause, should not fail to take it. It builds up the whole system, changes existence into life, and makes life more abounding. We are glad to say these words in its favor to the readers of our columns.

STANDARD CHEESE

According to the ruling of a convention of cheese men in Montreal, this is the kind of cheese dairymen should strive to produce:—"Flavor, clean and pure; body, close, good and well cured; texture, silky, solid and meaty; color, good, and fairly uniform in size, with good rinds and clean surfaces; box must be strong and close fitting."

It costs only 25c to put an advt in the Reporter's "People's Column," and only 10c per week to keep it there as long as you like.
