 The reports presented at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the B.
 W. & N. W. this week were highly satisfactory, a result largely due to the efficient, enterprising management of Superintendent Curle.
 George Dixon, for many years a resident of Dixon's Corners, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs McGrath in New York, on Monday last. His daughter, Miss Helen, was with him during his last illness.
 Last week Mr A. M. Eaton sold his new residence on Elgin street to the Misses T. and E. Webster, who will enter into possession next month.
 Mr Eaton is now engaged in fitting up for occupation the premises he recently purchased from the executors of the James Kilborn estate.
 Pain anywhere, pain in the head, painful periods, Neuralgia, toothache, all pains can be promptly stopped by a thoroughly safe little Pink Candy Tablet, known by Druggists everywhere as Dr Shoop's Headache Tablets. Pain simply means congestion—undue blood pressure at the point where the pain exists. Dr Shoop's Headache Tablets quickly equalize this unnatural blood pressure, and pain immediately departs.
 Write Dr Shoop, Racine, Wis. and get a free trial package. Large box 25c.
 For sale by all dealers.

 The road-work of the village this year included considerable ditching and tiling, and an inspection of the drains after the recent heavy rains showed that all were working well.
 Quarterly Fellowship Service will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday morning. The Sunday following, a Reception Service and the Communion Service will be held.
 The Rev Prof. Workman Ph.D., of the Wesleyan Theological College of Montreal, has been asked by the Board of Governors to resign. His teaching is disturbing the work of the college and unsettling the minds of the students.
 A leading Liberal paper, in forecasting probable changes in the Ontario cabinet, says that Mr A. E. Donovan, M. P. P. for this riding, is likely to be given a portfolio. Stranger things have happened, and Brockville's member would grace the position alright.
 Mr and Mrs C. P. Bishop returned to their home in Toronto on Saturday last. A series of social functions made particularly pleasant Mrs Bishop's visit here, one of the last being a reception given by her hostess, Mrs G.
 W. Beach, on Friday afternoon, which was attended by a large number of the ladies of the village.
 Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by all dealers.
 Mr B. Loverin, Village Clerk, left Athens on Monday for his annual deer hunt. Mr Geo. E. Judson will act as clerk in his absence, and any person requiring blanks for births, marriages or deaths, or burial permits can obtain them from him. This is Mr Loverin's 25th annual trip to the hunting grounds and he expects to return laden with his full complement of game, as usual.
 By the will of the late W. S. Banta of New York, Mr R. N. Dowsley of Athens receives $10,000. This generous bequest is the result of a friendship formed during Mr Banta's visits to Charleston Lake. In addition to other bequests, Mr C. J. Banta is given all real estate owned in Canada by the deceased, except Sheep Island, Charleston Lake, which is given to his mother.

On Tuesday evening a sneak thief entered the home of Mr Horace Booth and from a drawer stole about $20.
 Entrance was gained by way of a window.
 On Sunday next, being the first in the month, service will be held in Christ church at 11 o'clock, followed by a celebration of the Holy Communion. No evening prayer on that Sunday.
 Talk about the St. Clair Flats and the Holland River rice beds!—What's the matter with Lake Elويدa as a paradise for duck hunters? On Wednesday last Mr C. P. Bishop, of the office staff of the T. Eaton Co., and one of our local Nimrods, Ross De Wolfe, bagged 23 ducks, shooting over decoys. These were not Swamp Bluebills, Kawina, Butterballs, Teal or little Sawbills, but Black Duck and Mergansers, capped with a handsome Mallard drake, which Mr Bishop has placed in the hands of a taxidermist.
 An Anglican Young People's Association (A.Y.P.A.) has been organized
