GRAND SUCCESS

The Garden Party and Bazaar at the Manse, Dover Centre.

In Dover, the township of pines, the greatest success of years for gatherings of this kind, was the garden party and bazaar under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church, Tuesday evening, June 17th.

It was an ideal evening for such an affair—good roads, delightful weather, and a lovely moonlight night. At four o'clock the good time began, and by eight o'clock all available space in front of the manse, church and in Serey's orchard, where the tables were set and the refreshment stand stood, was thronged with crowds of pleasure-seekers, among them many from Chatham, Walkerville, and Chatham township.

The Maple Leaf Brass Band furnished the music in a very acceptable manner, giving a life to the gathering which nothing but a brass band can give.

A very noticeable and interesting feature of the evening was the bazaar where the ladies conducted in front of the manse the selling booth quickly attracted attention by the red, white and blue bunting which streamed from tree to tree and the Chinese lanterns which dangled from the branches. For sale, was to be found every shape and form of useful and artistic article which the imagination of ladies can design. Everything found a ready demand.

The entertainment of this throng was excellently provided for. At five o'clock the bicycle races, for which the roads had been prepared, were called. The prize winners were:

First Race.
One mile—first prize, a silver cup, Albert Lozon.

Second prize—a bicycle lamp, John Finlay.

Third prize—a sweater, Ernest Montgomery.

Fourth prize—last prize, Roy McKenzie.

Snapper was now ready, and for the next hour and a half table after table of people partook of the sumptuous spread which had been prepared by the ladies. The cooking was of so inviting a character that it would have done credit to a city bakery, and speaks well for the skill in this community which has attained.

At seven o'clock the football match between S. S. No. 11 and S. S. No. 8 was called. Men, the players lined up in the field the boys of S. S. No. 11 were found to be matched against a combination of heavier and more experienced players from S. S. No. 8.

Buds and Flowers of Home Life

Paine's Celery Compound
MAKES AND KEEPS THE CHILDREN WELL AND STRONG.

Mothers Make it the Home Medicine for The Little Ones.

The children, God bless them, are the buds and flowers of our home life.

Without their prattle and hearty laughter, our homes would be desolate. They should ever be carefully tended in childhood and youth, if we expect them to ripen into perfect men and women.

In the home and at the school, the children need the best of health and suffering. We often note the pallid and bloodless cheeks, heavy eyes, nervous movements and twitchings of limbs and muscles. They complain of headache, dizziness, weakness, dyspepsia and indigestion. All such symptoms and ailments, mean that the seeds of disease will have a fast and firm hold, unless proper measures are taken to restore a perfect condition of health.

Thousands of wise and prudent parents have made their children happy, healthy and vigorous by giving them Paine's Celery Compound.

In many severe and complicated cases, Paine's Celery Compound has restored health when the little ones were given up by physicians.

If your dear ones are not as hearty, strong and rugged as they should be in June, try the health giving virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. It makes and keeps the children well.

RUTHERFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown have returned home from their wedding trip.

The funeral of Miss Steel took place from here on the 17th to Dresden cemetery.

Real estate is changing hands very fast in Dawn. Andy O'Donnell has purchased 50 acres joining him, and James Sogee has purchased Teyman Snook's farm, consisting of 100 acres.

John Holmes and James Craft, Dawn Mills, attended the funeral here Tuesday.

M. McGregor, station agent G. T. R., visited his sister, Mrs. D. M. Healy, last week.

James Hackett, Wabash, was here Tuesday last.

Simon Burns had a windmill erected recently on one of his farms.

Malt Breakfast Food

Has No Equal in the World

The Most Concentrated Form of Nourishment

As a hot weather breakfast dish, Malt Breakfast Food has no equal in the world. It has health nourishment in the most concentrated form. It is delicious to the taste, satisfying, appetizing and easily digested. Malt Breakfast Food energizes and invigorates body and brain. It is the only sensible food for young and old in the hot weather. Your grocer recommends it.

I see I must be more severe with you, Alfred! If you get home again late I'll dismiss the cook and begin doing the cooking again myself!

"Cleanliness is next to godliness." Dirt and depravity go hand in hand. This is just as true of the inside of the body as the outside. Constipation clogs the body and clouds the mind. Constipation means that corruption is breeding in the body, poisoning the blood with its foul emanations, befogging the brain, and its untold exhibitions. Constipation is the beginning of more diseases than, perhaps, any other single disorder. The consequences of constipation are legion. Headache, dizziness, nervousness, indigestion, flatulence, and a score of other ailments are directly caused by constipation. Care constipation and you cure its consequences. The quick cure of this evil is obtained by the use of Dr. Paine's Pleasant Pellets. They are small in size but wonderful in result. They cure permanently. They contain no injurious ingredients. The use of them does not hurt the "pill habit." Ask your druggist for them.

Send 31 one-cent stamps, the expense of mailing and customs, and receive Dr. Paine's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers. This work contains 1008 pages and 700 illustrations. For 50 stamps it can be had in substantial cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

STEVENSON--SALES

Wednesday afternoon Alvin McAlister Stevenson was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Georgina Sales, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sales, Middle Road, Morlin. The ceremony was performed on the lawn with a background of pines, by the Rev. T. Dobson, according to the solemn and impressive rites of the Church of England.

The bride was robed in an elegant dress of white organdie trimmed with lace and ribbons, and white carnations. She was attended by her cousin, Miss A. Jinks, of Darrell, who was attired in a dress of white Swiss muslin with blue ribbons and pink carnations; both looked charming.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Oliver Stevenson. The bridal party took their places as the wedding march by Mendelssohn was played by E. Jinkins, Darrell, the bride being led out by her father, Henry Sales.

After the ceremony was performed the children again peeled forth and congratulations followed.

About sixty guests were soon seated about a table on the lawn and did ample justice to the good things provided by their hosts.

Of the numerous guests the eldest was an octogenarian of eighty-three years, grandfather of the bride, and the youngest an infant of one year, his great-granddaughter.

Those guests not living in the neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. McAlister, Comber; Mr. and Mrs. F. Eansor, Ridgeway; Mrs. A. Eansor, Detroit; Mr. E. M. Bannister, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wagonheim, Chatham; Mrs. E. Jinks and son Edward, of Darrell; Mr. and Mrs. Dalton, Lexington.

The happy couple were the recipients of many costly and beautiful gifts. A handsome clock, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sales; silver baker, Mr. Oliver Stevenson; China biscuit jar, Miss Jessie Eansor, Detroit; silver sugar bowl and spoon holder combined from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Marshall, Merlin; silver baker, Mr. and Mrs. Eansor, Detroit; silver ice water tankard, Mr. and Mrs. S. Cooper, Sorel; silver cake basket, Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell, Stewart; linen damask table cloth and napkins, Mr. and Mrs. T. Eansor, Detroit; hot water urn, Mrs. and Everett Stevenson; lemonade set, Mr. and Mrs. A. Broadbent,
