WOLFVILLE, N. S., AUG. 24, 1888

Local and Provincial.

Ice Cream Soda, cool and refreshing, at Prat's.

THE SCHOOLS.—The Wolfville public school resumed work on Monday last. The attendance is small as yet but will no doubt increase as the term advances.

NOTICE.—Parents are requested to keep their children away from the College grounds during the next week, as their presence greatly interferes with the comfort of the people who have business there.

5 cases Gem Jars just in at B. G. Bishop's Very low.

RETURNED.—Conductor Joe Edwards has returned from his vacation, having thoroughly enjoyed himself and being greatly improved in health. His many friends will be glad to welcome him back!

PERSONAL.—Rev. J. Denovan, of Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church last Sunday morning and preached a sound, practical sermon. The Rev. gentleman is spending a few weeks at Grand Pre, visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Jones.

Oats and Feed; Lime, $1.50 per cask, at Prat's.

ARTISTIC.—Our enterprising townsman, Mr. C. H. Borden, whose store is at any time a model of neatness and good taste, has added to its attractiveness by displaying a handsome illuminated card of "Gilt Edge Dressing" in a prominent place. It is a handsome piece of work and is worth a call to inspect.

DIED SUDDENLY.—We regret to learn of the sudden death of Mr James R. DeWolfe, head of the well known ship, ping firm of J. R. DeWolfe & Co., of Liverpool, which occurred on Thursday of last week. Mr DeWolfe was a native of this town and has many relatives here. He was about 70 years of age.

B. G. Bishop sells Greenhead lime at $1.50 per cask.

A BREAK.—Mr Geo. Harris, of Lower Wolfville, has an apple tree on which are growing both fruit and blossoms. The tree is in a fine, healthy condition and the fruit and blossoms are progressing finely. His niece, Miss Stella Hoelke, presented us with a bunch of the blossoms a few days since which are as fresh and fragrant as they would be in June.

EXCURSION.—The steamer Acadia brought over a number of Parraboro excursionists on Tuesday. The steamer arrived about 1 o'clock p. m., and sailed at 11 o'clock p. m., giving the excursionists a day and an evening in our pretty town and a pleasant sail home by moonlight. They appeared to be a nice company and no disaster occurred of any description. We hope they enjoyed their visit.

A big stock of Stone Butter Crocks at B. G. Bishop's.

EARLY HISTORY.—We had a pleasant call on Tuesday from Rev. Arthur W. H. Eaton who has been spending a vacation in his native county. During his stay he has contributed several entertaining articles to the Kentville papers on the early history of King's, which have caused considerable interest to be taken in this matter. We hope it is interest continuing and that much good may result from the movement. We will be pleased to insert articles on this subject.

JUBILEE SOUVENIRS.—Just as we are going to press we receive from Mr Lewis Rice proofs of some exquisite Jubilee souvenirs which he is preparing. The souvenirs, which are of different sizes, consist of a photograph of the faculty of Acadia and the different buildings, tastefully arranged in a suitable size. It is just what is wanted and we have no doubt but the sale will be enormous. Mr Rice also sends us the proof of an excellent cabinet photo, of the esteemed and venerable Dr. Crawley, and writes us that he will be in Wolfville to-morrow and will remain during the Jubilee.

WANTED.—1000 Doz. Eggs per week, highest prices paid cash or trade at E. C. BISHOP'S.

STEAMER CHANGES.—To better accommodate the returning travel from the provinces which is usually large between the dates of Aug. 25th and Sep. 15th, the International S. S. Co. have decided (as will be seen by advertisement in another column) to make two direct trips from Annapolis and Digby to Boston, Tuesdays and Fridays, (not calling at St John.) As the State of Maine leaves St John directly after the arrival of Secret from Annapolis, the Saturday trip via St John which has become so popular, will be better by Secret and State of Maine from Annapolis than it was by New Brunswick as a good better time will be made.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The third annual Convention of the Acadia County Sabbath-school Association will be held in Berwick on Tuesday, Sept. 4th, beginning at 10 a. m. All pastors of churches in the county and all Sabbath-school superintendents are members of the Association, besides every Sabbath-school is entitled to send two delegates to the Convention. Will the Sabbath-school Superintendents see that these are duly appointed and that the blank reports are filled out and forwarded to the Secretary in time? W. DAWSON, Sec'y. Canard, Aug. 14, 1888.

JUST IN.—Roofing Paint, Carriage Paints, leads, glass, &c. &c. for sale low at B. G. Bishop's.

Canard Items.

Rev. Joseph Murray and wife, of Springhill, are visiting friends in this street.

Mr A. T. Kempton (licentiate) son of S. B. Kempton, is home for a short time to recruit his health. He is stationed at New Germany.

Our boys from Canard deserve some praise for the creditable record they made at Bedford last week. The majority of the prizes that came to King's Co. boys came to this street. Among the prize-winners are Troopers F. M. Eaton, C. W. Eaton and W. H. Eaton; Serg'ts Elk and Bishop. We have here some capital material for good marksmen.

Rev. Mr Phillip, the blind man, occupied Mr Kempton's pulpit in Canard last Sunday morning, and in Port Williams in the afternoon. A collection was taken in his behalf during the services. In the evening Rev. Joseph Murray preached an excellent sermon in Lower Canard.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.—A very interesting event was the occasion of the marriage of Harold Freeman, formerly of Miltor, Queens Co., to Miss Emma Seaman, second daughter of the popular marion of the new Academy boarding-house. The ceremony took place in the Baptist church on Wednesday Aug. 15th. Rev. S. B. Kempton, uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by Rev. J. B. Hemmison, of Wolfville. The church was beautifully decorated by the friends of the happy couple. Miss M. Seaman, the bride's sister, and Miss Edith Eaton, daughter of Mr E. F. Eaton, were the bridesmaids, while Mr Morley Hemmison, B. A., supported the groom. After the wedding the bridal party drove to the parsonage and thence to Wolfville to take the train for their wedding tour. Both Mr and Mrs Freeman are well known here and they bear with them the best wishes of all. Mr Freeman is a mechanic living in Uncle Sam's territory, and it is there that they expect to settle.

Mr C. W. Bishop wishes to inform the people of Wolfville and vicinity that he is prepared to do painting, paper-hanging, and kalsomining in a first class manner for all who may favor him with their orders.

Resolution of Sympathy.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the King's Co. Sabbath-school Association, the following resolution, regarding the death of Randall Illey, was adopted to be engrossed in the minutes and a copy to be forwarded to Mr Illey's father: That this committee bears with deep regret of the sudden and unexpected death of their esteemed brother and earnest fellow-worker, Randall Illey. He was an earnest Sabbath-school worker and took a deep interest in the work of this Association from its commencement. He took an active part in the work of our first Convention and last year he was appointed a member of this committee and a visitor for Aylesford. In that capacity he did a good work and stirred up many not only in the interests of this Association, but also in the desire to win souls and to train them for the service of the Master. His sudden removal has caused a blank not easy to fill, while his earnest Christian life has impressed all who knew him that he was a good soldier of Jesus Christ. This committee deeply sympathize with his bereaved friends and humbly pray that this visitation of a wise and loving God may stimulate us all to greater diligence and zeal in the word of the Lord. "Be ye also ready."

W. C. BILL, Chairman. W. DAWSON, Secretary.

BERWICK TIMES.

NEWS, NOTES, JOTTINGS, ETCETERA.

Rev. D. O. Parker is our representative in Berwick, and is prepared to take orders for job printing and advertising. We are constantly adding to our plant, and will give prompt attention to all work. Get our prices.

"Moral suasion for the man who drinks, Mental suasion for the man who thinks, Legal suasion for the drunkard-maker, And prison suasion for the statute breaker."

Mrs Baxter's lectures in Berwick was not largely attended. She delighted those who heard her, who were mostly from Ayleford, Weston, Somerset and other neighboring districts. Our village has long been famous for its true temperance sentiment, but of late its good name in this respect has most surely departed. Intoxicating liquors are bought and sold openly in our midst, and one of the worst dens in our Dominion is open day and night, and patronized by both young and old, and the temperance feeling is so degenerated that we have men and Christians passively submit and make no efforts to guard our homes and our altars and to quench this worse than volcano belching forth sorrow, desolation and death. Shame! Our fair village, the loveliest in all this garden valley, and admired by every passing visitor, where our fathers bequeathed to us rich fields, praying churches, good schools, temperance homes and everything that contributes to our material and spiritual prosperity is now tolerating with indifference a scourge a hundred-fold worse in desolating our homes than the most deadly plague. Fathers and mothers, in your delusive dreams of parental confidence and affection you think your own fond children too true to be lured away and ensnared in the meshes of drunkenness, but in some of your homes we could raise a veil that would reveal scenes that would pierce your hearts with consternation. For ourselves we have about lost faith in law, and lost faith in brave men. The Chief Magistrate of our metropolis, the people's choice, runs at full blast a huge distillery, legalized by the nation, and where are the appetites and sympathies of many of our judges, legislators, and municipal councilors? Where?—"Past feeling."—Not in despair but in hope we turn from men and centre our faith in true and brave women. Organized as you now are into the honorable sisterhood of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, march bravely on and you shall be crowned with a thousand benedictions. In our next issue we hope to chronicle the organization of one of these grand Unions in Berwick.

—We are sorry that the much respected proprietor of the Clifton House, G. W. Eaton, Esq., by reason of bereavement in his family, has closed his hotel. His house has had a Dominion-wide reputation and has been a favorite resort of commercial travellers. Our village is now left without any open house and travellers are experiencing great inconvenience. There appears to be no one here in circumstances to take Mr Eaton's place. The opening is a flattering one. The large French Villa now occupied by Cap. Amos Burns will soon be vacated and is one of the best located buildings for a hotel in Berwick and may be rented or purchased at a great bargain.

—Rev. Alfred Chipman, son of the late Father Chipman, who presided over the Baptist church in this place for about the third of a century, preached last Sabbath morning in the Baptist house with much acceptance. Mr Chipman is pastor of the church in Campdown, N. H.

—BAPTIST APPOINTMENTS.—Preaching at Berwick at 11 a. m. At Somerset at 4 p. m. Prayer meetings on Sabbath and Thursday evenings at Berwick. All strangers provided with seats.

E. O. READ, Pastor.

—Rev. Mr Manning, of North Baptist church, Halifax, has been in Berwick looking after some of the absent ones of his flock. A very commendable example.

—Mr Parker has a fine show of furniture in his new warehouses. He represents this paper in Berwick and takes subscriptions for it and orders for advertisements and job printing.

CHRIST CHURCH (Anglican).—Divine service next Sunday at 3 p. m. All seats free. REV. M. C. WADE, Incumbent.

Dandruff, Baldness, Thin or Crev Hair.

Everyone knows how disagreeable it looks to see Dandruff falling from the head to the shoulders of either lady or gentleman. The head may be washed ever so often but it will not clean out this evil. The best way to get rid of the affliction is by the application of Simson's Lintiment, say three times a week, just before retiring at night, first washing the head thoroughly with warm water and castile soap. It will cost you but 25 cents to give it a trial, and who but could take pride in a fine glossy head of hair without any appearance of Dandruff. Mr E. Renault, agent of Crown Lands, St Thomas, Quebec, writes: "I have used Simson's Lintiment as a hair invigorator and can certify to its wonderful effect for the growth of hair and cleansing of the scalp. I feel assured it will in nearly every case prevent the hair from coming out."
