PARSONS' PILLS
These pills were a wonderful discovery. No others like them in the world. Will positively cure or relieve all manner of disease. The information around each box is worth ten times the cost of a box of pills. Find out about them, and you will always be thankful. One pill a dose. Parsons' Pills contain nothing harmful, are easy to take, and cause no inconvenience. Will do more to purify the blood and cure chronic ill health than $5 worth of any other remedy yet discovered. If people could be made to realize the marvelous power of these pills, they would walk 100 miles to get a box if they could not be had without. Sent by mail for 25 cents in stamps. Illustrated pamphlet free, postpaid. Send for it; the information is very valuable. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House Street, BOSTON, MASS.

Municipal Elections--Concerts--General News.

RICHIBUCTO.

A Pleasant Gathering—A Turkish Missionary—Accident on the Kent Northern.

RICHIBUCTO, Oct. 10.—On the evening of the 10th inst., the ladies of the sewing circle in connection with the Presbyterian church in Richibucto held a basket social in the Temperance Hall. A goodly number of their Kingston friends were present. The baskets were auctioned by William Smith, and about $30 was realized by the sales. A pleasant evening was spent.

On Sunday Rev. Garabed Nergararian preached in St. Andrews church, Kingston, in the morning and in Richibucto in the evening. He is a native of Nicomedia, a village in the vicinity of Constantinople. His parents embraced the christian faith when he was a child. He early devoted himself to the great work. After teaching for some years he entered and graduated from a seminary in Asia Minor. He came to America 2 or 3 years ago to acquire our language and thus open up an avenue to himself into numerous commentaries and good literature. He has attended two years at Princeton Theological seminary and last year a similar institution at Gettysburg. He is now travelling in behalf of his mission and intends to return to his native land soon. He gives an interesting lecture with an occasional tinge of humor. He is a large man, of dark and commanding address, and appears in native costume.

While the Kent Northern train was going to Kent Junction, on Saturday, it ran into the hand car on which the section men were returning from their work. It was after dark, and the men did not hear the engine until she was almost on them. Out of ten men all escaped in time but one. He was attempting to remove the vehicle from the rails when the train struck it. He was thrown from the track some distance, and one of his legs was badly crushed, also a severe cut was received in the head. He was taken back to Richibucto and placed under the care of Dr. Brine.

HARTLAND.

Councillors' Election—Recovering—Fashionable Wedding.

HARTLAND, Oct. 11.—The parish election came off to-day, and there was a hot time until the poll closed. A great many were disappointed with the result, especially the old councillors, Shaw and Tedlie, who were both left out. The new councillors are Gideon Phillips and Christopher H Cooper—both farmers. The poll stood Phillips, 147; Cooper, 143; Tedlie, 106; Shaw, 75.

The young man, Harris Keswick, who was hurt here last Wednesday while coupling cars is improving, and was removed to his home to-day. His injuries were quite serious, but the doctors think that he will be all right in a few months' time.

The old of the parish are dropping off. Mr. Wm. Crandelmire died on the 10th inst., after a few weeks' illness, leaving a family of three sons and three daughters. One son lives in South Carolina, and he is expected to return this fall.

There was a very fashionable wedding this evening at the residence of Mr. J. F. Richardson. The contracting parties were Mr. Beecher Brow, of Lower Brighton, and Miss Angie Buringham, of Peel. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. John Perry, F. C. Baptist. There were 65 guests, who afterwards sat down to a very sumptuous repast. The presents were numerous and costly.

Mr. J. F. Richardson is buying a lot of horses for the woods at present. He wants about 15 in all.

BLACKVILLE.

A Successful Concert—Indiantown Branch Extension—Parish Councillors.

The concert and social held on Thursday night was very largely attended and a success in every way and reflects credit on the committees in charge.

Mr. Jas. S. Wilson acted as chairman and the concert which lasted nearly two hours went off well. It consisted of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, dialogues and a play. This play called the Peake Sisters, with variations, was splendidly rendered by twelve young ladies and a gentleman. Miss May Underhill's reciting, singing and acting delighted all, and James Day as Bones in the darkey dialogues acquitted himself like a professional.

Taken all round it was a first class variety concert. Mr. E W Gaynor as auctioneer was the right man in the right place. The lunch and refreshment tables were well supplied and well patronized. About 1 a m the seats were removed and many of the young folk enjoyed a quick dance. The receipts were about $105 and are to aid in painting the Presbyterian church.

A train and about 60 men are at work on the Underhill grade on the Indiantown branch extension. This grade is over a mile long and is to be decreased 10 feet.

The Messrs Millen have a number of men loading hemlock bark at the station for shipment to their extract work at Derby.

It is generally thought that there will be no opposition to our present councillors Messrs B. W. T. Underhill and D. Sullivan, on Tuesday, Oct. 25th.

HAYNESVILLE.

Rising From the Ashes—The Orserites in Convention—Wedding Bells.

HAYNESVILLE, Oct, 11.—Mr. George Billing of this place, who lost his dwelling house by fire a few days ago, is erecting a new one on the old foundation.

Large crowds of people found their way to Millville last Sunday to hear the Baptist Orserites. They preached three times on Sunday to the largest congregations that ever assembled in Millville.

Wedding bells are again ringing in Middle Haynesville. We expect one of the fair daughters of that place to move to Upper Haynesville in a few days.

CAMPBELLTON.

Division No. 300, S. of T.—Officers Elected—Matrimonial.

CAMPBELLTON, Oct. 12.—The officers elected for Division No. 300, S. of T. for the current quarter are as follows:—

Miss Nan Robinson, W P.
Miss M McAllister, W A.
Miss Jessie Coole, R S.
Miss Janie Andrew, A R S.
Miss Ida McKendrick, F S.
Miss L Gerrard, Treas.
Miss M Gerrard, Chap.
Mrs W Storey, Con.
Miss Jennie McAllister, A C.
Miss Maggie Coole, I S.
Mr Jardine, O S.
Miss Nellie Williams, organist.
Mr I Crafford, P W P.

Hardly a week passes but we have a wedding to chronicle. This time it is a Westmorland boy. On Thursday evening last, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. James Graves, conductor on the I. C. R., was married to Miss Maggie Kean by the Rev. Geo. Fisher.

SOUTHAMPTON.

56 Bushels of Oats to One of Sowing—The Interest Taken in the Parish Election—General Notes.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 10.—The weather like the church organist is rather an unsettled matter.

Raffle at McMullin's last week.

The Sunday school will close for the winter the week after next, on which Sabbath there will be some effort made in the line of an entertainment, consisting of singing, readings, recitations, etc.

Mr. P D Morrison raised from one bushel's sowing the large number of 56 bushels of oats the present year. The oats are prime, weighing 40 lbs to the bushel. Talk against New Brunswick as a farming country after this.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 11.—Several trains laden with men and supplies for the woods, have passed through here recently.

Mr. Robert Hull, the enterprising shoemaker of Shogomoc, together with his family, has removed to Woodstock.

In the wedding notes last sent the name Grant, in the first case, was in some unaccountable way written for Patterson.

The long expected government work on the river has commenced under the superintendence of Mr. John M. Hartley as formerly. Quite a number of men are employed, but it is understood that the job this year will be short.

Mr. John Tabor and Mr. J. Wallace of Fredericton passed through here to-day en-route for Fredericton.

It is very nearly too late to speak of the parish election, but nevertheless we only have one once a year, and it's only fit and proper that some account of the event should be published even it is late. You must know that Southampton is not so dead to self interest or so scarce of capable men that she will allow the time to pass without having a real hotly contested election. In fact, of late years, this election has been nearly as much of an event as the more important local or dominion election, and we can safely assert that more real genuine ill-feeling is thereby yearly engendered. Each party has fully determined to annihilate the other and to this end no stone is left unturned. The entire parish is thoroughly canvassed by each of the aspirants and no action, whether public or private, is considered of too little consequence to be thoroughly sifted. Polling day arrives and the contestants, or their agents, are early on the ground watching the proceedings, as if the business were a case of life or death, are seen here advancing money to pay taxes, there telling some one to vote their way or be sued, the other place promising similar reward or punishment as the case may be. This year four men were in the field of whom, as we predicted, Messrs. Brown and Purdie were elected.

FOSTERVILLE.

Councillors' Election—Returned from California.

FOSTERVILLE, Oct. 10. Weather fine and warm. Nearly all the farmers have finished harvesting. The potato crop was a complete failure with some farmers in this vicinity.

The councillors' election passed off without a struggle this year, there being no opposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cropley have returned from California, where they have been living for the past four years. They intend to settle here in the east again. Miss Marion Cropley of Canterbury has been visiting her relatives here.

The Sunday school has ceased to be.

SYMPATHY FOR THE ANARCHISTS.

A Resolution Defeated in the Knights of Labor Assembly—Vigorous Speech by Mr. Powderly.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., October 11.—In the general assembly of the Knights of Labor, yesterday, James E. Quinn, of New York, presented a resolution expressing sorrow that the seven men in Chicago were doomed to death, and that the convention use every endeavor to secure the commutation of the death sentence passed upon them. The convention was at once thrown into the wildest excitement, scores of the delegates trying at the same time to obtain the floor. General Master Workman Powderly decided the resolution out of order. Joseph Evans, of Pittsburg, appealed from the decision. The appeal was lost by a vote of 151 to 52. Before the appeal was taken Mr. Powderly called General Worthy Foreman Griffiths, of Chicago, to the chair, and in a short, but vehement speech, called upon the convention to defeat the resolution. He said no true Knight could be an Anarchist. He appealed to the delegates in impassioned words not to prevent the purpose of the order by the passage of any such resolutions. It was the hottest speech Mr. Powderly was ever known to make. This was the principal episode of a rather quiet day.

The general opinion among the delegates to the Knights of Labor Convention is that no serious fight will come up now before the convention closes its work. The fight that it was supposed would be made against Mr. Powderly and other general officers is said to have been given up.

THE UNIONISTS

Feel that Something must be done to save Themselves.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Unionist leaders are alive to the fact that something must be done to save the Unionists from utter ruin as an organization distinct from other political parties, and have built great hopes upon the ability of the meeting next Monday to devise means of extricating themselves from the anomalous position they occupy at present. It is asserted that Mr. Balfour is going to Dublin to take the helm and endeavor to steer the shoals of national opposition to the crimes act. If he does not go or send some one who can carry out his ideas to the end, the government will be in a bad way. Mr. Balfour will undoubtedly in some way make strenuous efforts to save the government from a complete defeat in the fight against the league.

ARRESTED FOR THE MURDER

Of Cashier Barron, Found Dead Nine Years Ago.

DEXTER, Me., Oct. 12.—Nine years ago the bank here was robbed and Cashier Barron was found dead, bound and gagged in the vault. The affair created a great sensation. It has generally been believed since that Barron robbed the bank and committed suicide. To-day David L Stair was arrested at Franklin, Mass., for the murder. His son confessed and told how a gang led by his father planned and executed the robbery and murdered Barron.

Give Them A Chance.
That is to say your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.
When these are clogged and chocked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.
Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

FAIR IN QUEENSBURY.

The Queensbury and Southampton Agricultural Society.

A Pleasant Day and a Good Attendance.

Potatoes the Only Line of Exhibits Below the Average.

The Southampton and Queensbury Agricultural Society held its annual fair and competitive exhibition on the grounds of Messrs. G. A. and John Lounsbury on Thursday, 6th inst. The day was all that could be desired and the assemblage of people much larger than on former occasions; indicative of a growing interest in things agricultural. The competition in many lines was close and the general display much better than that of former years. A very decided improvement is noticeable in live stock, especially among the horses, of which some really magnificent specimens were on the grounds.

The only line showing a decided inferiority to the usual exhibit was that of potatoes, the crop of which is very short and on many farms, almost a total failure. Of grain, pulse and vegetable a good show in both quantities and quality was made. While of domestic manfuactures including dairy produce, bread, and ladies useful and fancy work, a really suberb collection was on view, showing that the desire to display and excel is still dear to the feminine heart. Following is the list of judges in the various departments and of the successful competitors and the prizes.

Judges.

Horses—Patrick Lockhart, Wm. Cronkhite and Wm. Burnett.

Neat cattle, sheep and swine—Wm. Graham, Joseph Hoyt, and Jas. T. Marston.

WIT AND HUMOR.

A Few Short Jokes for Those who Like Them.

Bulls and Bears.

The Moscow Gazette declares that the people of British India believe that Russia will soon liberate them from the yoke of John Bull.

"Let Russia rise on England's fall,"
Declares the Muscovite Gazette,
Yet, in 'Change language, it is all
A case of "bulls and bears" as yet.

What She Would Say.

He was feeling his way. "If I were to tell you, Miss Smith," he said, in a low, earnest tone, "that I am about to start a long journey, even across the sea, and that it may be months, and possibly years, ere I return, what would you say?"

If the girl dropped it wasn't perceptible. "I would say, Mr. Sampson," she replied, "ta, ta."

He Drowned the Dog.

"I drowned my dog last night—the spaniel you know."

"Why, how did you manage it? The dog swam like a duck."

"Well, I tied a loaf of bread to his neck, and he went down like a rock."

"A loaf of bread?"

"Yes my wife does her own cooking and baking now."—Detroit Free Press.

"Danged" the Schoolmaster.

Here is how a farmer "danged" a scholar. Bringing his son as a pupil, he was asked by the schoolmaster what he intended to make of the lad. "Well, if he gets grace, we'll mak' him a minister." "Ah," returned the schoolmaster, "and if he gets no grace, what then?" "Then," said the father, "he maun just become a schulemaister like yerself."

This 'll End It.

The seeds of the "Thistle" are down in American pockets.—New York World.

More Ways than One of Killing a Cat.

Old lawyer—"I don't like that case and am sorry you took hold of it."

Young lawyer—"Oh, it's all right. We'll win."

"Have you arranged for the witnesses?"

"No, but I've arranged for the jury."—Omaha World.

The Muskrat's Powers.

(Albany Argus.)

A muskrat has thrown 3000 mill hands out of employment at Nashua, N. H., by opening a break in a canal. The muskrat must go.
