TOBACCOS TED BY A LANDSLIDE A Madrid despatch says another terrible calamity has occurred. The picturesque and romantic village of Aleala del Jucar has been almost wholly destroyed by a landilide. Very many of the inhabi-tants were killed or wounded. The village was situated in Murcia, in a rocky locality on the left bank of the river Jucar, and had a population of about $,000 souls. Fifty families are rendered homeles led medal by the National Medical Association. LONDON, Jan. 15.

A Peeth despatch mays serious disturb-nces cocurred on Tuesday and Wednes-ay, in consequence of the duel between saron Maithanyi and Herr Verhovay, a nember of Parliament, in which the latter as a family remedy, it is, without doubt, the best in use. Its healing and pain-aliaying qualities being superior to those of any known substance, while the speedy relief it affords for piles and chiblains is almost magical. As an emolient, Vaseline is way ahead of anything else, as it renders the skin smooth, soft and clear, and our lady friends will find it not only the best, but, perhaps, the sole substance which will really preserve and restore to the com-niewion the huse of youth, making the cheek like THE WEEKLY MAIL Is published every Thursday morning in time for the English mall, second edition on Priday, and de-spatched by first trains and express to all parts of the Dominion.
