"THE FIGHTING TRAIL"

It is a far cry from the demure role of "Youth" in "Everywoman" to that of a daring mountain girl who rides, shoots and mitches her wits against a gang of outlaws, but that is exactly the transformation that occurred in the life of Miss Carol Holloway, Vitagraph star, who will be seen here Friday, Saturday and Monday of next week at the Happy Hour.

"The Fighting Trail," Vitagraph's big outdoor serial. Miss Holloway's work in the picture is a splendid example of histrionic versatility. The story starts in next week Advocate.

Dickison & Troy Make Business Change

Business now Divided in Two Branches, But Continues Under Old Name

M. Dickison, while Mr. John H. Troy, takes charge of the Drug Business. Both of these gentlemen have been very successful in their chosen spheres, and through their continued efforts and co-operation as well as their popularity have built up a creditable business, and we feel assured that they will meet with the same measure of success in the future as in the past. The business will continue as heretofore at the old stand and under the old name of Dickison & Troy, which has become almost a by-word for good goods and honest service.
