An Ottawa despatch announces that the period of snail bag net fishing has been extended to February 28th owing to the poor season.

While practising hockey in the rink here a few days ago, Mr. Lemuel Seller, of Prince of Wales College, got a bad gash on the chin from a skate, the steel entering to the bone, necessitating his being laid up for a time.

Another fatal accident occurred at the steel works at Sydney on Wednesday night last, Robert Glover, twenty years of age, employed at the blast furnaces, came in contact with a live wire. His death was instantaneous. He was a native of New Brunswick.

I wish to thank those who have patronized our watch and jewelry sale, and I beg to announce that the sale will close on Saturday, March 1st. Should you wish, by paying a small deposit we will hold an article for you a few days after that.—E. W. Taylor, Cameron Block.

The "Stars" of Souris defeated the second team of the Victorias of this city at Souris last Thursday night by a score of 11 to 5. The play was very warm but on account of the smallness of the Souris rink the city players were at a disadvantage. A return game will be played here tomorrow evening.

An old man named Wright applied at the Police Station several nights ago and asked to be kept for the night, as he had nowhere to go. He was taken in and remanded for a week, pending his removal to the Poor House. It seems that he has no home and for the last few years has been sleeping in barns or anywhere he could get the chance, and often being badly in the want of food.

The big Furness Line Steamer Dalton Hall, which called at Charlottetown on Dec. 15th last and carried away a large cargo of cattle and produce, to Liverpool, while on route from that port for Halifax, collided on Sunday with the steamer Marcella and Sutherland at the mouth of the Mersey. The Dalton Hall was cut down to the bilge water on the starboard side and had to be beached off Seaford.

The Nova Scotia Legislature opened on Thursday, and Thomas Robertson of Shelbourne, was chosen Speaker. The speech announced that steps will be taken during the year to establish a sanatorium for tuberculosis and that a Maritime Agricultural college will be established. The Quebec Legislature, also opened on Thursday. The speech promised the appointment of a Commissioner to consider the best method to promote immigration.

In the last hockey match of the league series played here on Friday night, the Victorias of this city defeated the Crystals of Summerside by a score of 4 to 3. This gives the trophy to the Abegweit. The match between the second team of the Abegweit and the Summerside Pioneers, was won by the Abegweit by a score of 5 to 2. The result of this game gives the intermediate trophy also to the Abegweit. 130 people came from Summerside to witness the games.

The steamer Prince Rupert, during a thick fog from a heavy frost, ran aground the Grand Manan, fishing schooner, Friday last, Wednesday, while coming out of St. John harbor. The schooner was dismantled and had her starboard bow cut away. Capt. Ingalls, of the schooner was terribly mangled, and then sank in the water. William Scott, the pilot, saved the other man, who went crazy from exposure. He was placed in charge of the quarantine doctor on Partridge Island. The Prince Rupert proceeded to Digby.

The Marquis of Dufferin, former Governor-General of Canada, and who had filled many high diplomatic posts in the English service, died Wednesday morning at his residence at Clonsilla, County Down, Ireland. Lord Dufferin had been long in ill health. He passed away peacefully after a night of total unconsciousness. Lord Dufferin never wholly recovered from the shock which he experienced as the result of the death of his son, Lord Ava, in South Africa, and the failure of the London and Globe corporation and kindred companies, of which he was a director, completed his breakdown. With the exception of his youngest son, Lord Hamilton-Temple-Blackwood (who is with his regiment, the 11th Lancers, in South Africa), all the family were present at the death bed. Lord Clonsilla, the elder son, who is a clerk in the foreign office, and who married Florence, daughter of John H. Davis, of New York, succeeds to the title. Sir Wilfrid Laurier sent Lady Dufferin a telegram expressing the sympathy of the Government and the people of Canada on the death of Lord Dufferin.

John Turnbull, aged 28 years, son of the late Andrew Turnbull, died under sad circumstances last Wednesday. He was a number of other men were employed at packing ice in Messrs. Saunders & Newcombe's ice house on Oliver street when he took sick and had to discontinue work. Some of the men found him in the stable leaning over a bin. He appeared to be very sick and said he had eaten some rusty herring for dinner. He refused to go inside the house but lay down in the manger. He was covered up with rugs and left there all the afternoon. Andrew Martin with whom Turnbull boarded, came at six o'clock to take the unfortunate man home and found him speechless. He was taken to his boarding house and Dr. Conroy was summoned and when he came he found the man was dead. He gave as his opinion that Turnbull had died from congestion of the lungs and deemed an inquest unnecessary. Dr. McNeill who also viewed the body gave as his opinion that the deceased died from alcoholic poisoning and thought a post-mortem examination should be held to ascertain the condition of the brain, heart and lungs. Such an examination was not held however. An inquest was held however which showed that the deceased had been drinking and had been supplied by liquor by agents looking for votes. At the inquest Dr. McNeill offered to make an autopsy and verify the cause of death if paid a fee of $20. He was told that the usual fee in such cases was $5, but refused to do the work at that price. After some sharp argument between the coroner and Dr. McNeill the jury after deliberation returned a verdict of death from "causes unknown." Whatever may have been the cause of death it is plainly to be seen that the unfortunate man was sadly neglected during his illness. His funeral took place Saturday afternoon. The Engineers and Labour Union attended in a body.

A gun-shifting competition was held in the drill shed at Souris last Wednesday between four detachments of No 1 Company of the artillery for a purse of $20. The purse was presented by Capt. Leslie at the close of the contest, the winners receiving great applause.

The first of the special Lenten Sermons was preached in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Sunday evening last, by Rev. Father Johnston. His theme was "Original Sin," and his text was from St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans, Chapter V., verse 12th: "Wherefore as by one man sin entered into this world, and by sin death; and so death passed upon all men in whom all have sinned." The Rev. preacher narrated the creation of the angels pure spirits who surrounded the throne of God. But when some of these rebelled against God and were driven from paradise, Almighty God created man to take their place. Man was made a little less than the angels and was placed in the terrestrial paradise, whence he was to be taken to Heaven, in due time, should he remain faithful to God. But man disobeyed God's command, and in consequence brought upon himself the wrath of God. He was stripped of his original innocence and justice and driven out of paradise. In a moment man fell and in a moment he lost everything, and brought upon himself sin and sorrow and death. This original sin of Adam, with its train of evils, was transmitted to all his posterity. In this original sin we are conceived and born into the world; this original sin is transmitted with our life. All the evils of the world are to be traced to this original sin which we inherit from Adam. After pointing out the havoc sin has wrought in human souls throughout the world's history, the Rev. preacher exhorted his hearers to enter seriously into a realization of its terrible malice and enormity, and during this holy season of Lent to do penance, so as to rise from sin at Easter.
