Admiral of the state.

Man it please Your Evelency,—
The undersigned Commissioners, appointed by Royal Commission addressed to them under the Great Seal of Canada, bearing date the 14th day of August, A. D. 1863, have the honour to report—
(1.) That they met at Ottawa on the 18th day of August last, for the purpose of making preparations for the discharge of the duty imposed on them by the Commission. (2.) The course of proceedings was then settled, and the 4th day of September last was appointed for entering upon the examination of witness.

(3.) The Commissioners, on undertaking the cardinity they were enjoined to make, but they are the cardinity that the the worked with Hottentots. Narrowly to satisfactor of t the enquiry they were enjoined to make, had hoped that the entire conduct of it had hoped that the caure conduct of the would not have been left in their hands; that the Hon. Mr. Huntington, or some one who believed that the charges specified in the Commission could be established by evidence, would have conducted the enquiry before them, and they had resolved in such event not only to accept such aid in the investigation, but to allow to the promoter at least the same latitude in the made of proceeding as the programized Control of Justice allowed the reversity of Control of Statistics on earth to make trouble, commend me to a letter! You write as you would say it,—but it goes to your friends without the grace of a voice,—the indection, the gesture, the laugh that would made a joke of it. There are that the control of the reversity the recognized Constant Justice allowed forever. The thing you write in one in ordinary judicial investigations, and mood finds your friends in another also to give to the members of the may be in the very one which all others is least hospitable to your message. I have seen a whole family cast down by missioners to be just, and in accord-missioners to be just, and in accord-ance with what they believe to be Your part of an absentmember of it. BRAUTIFUL IGNORANCE. - A gentleman was once riding in Scotland by a bleaching ground, where a poor woman 1392.3m W.M. J. P.E.N.1011, P. O. Box 219, Hamilton was at work watering her webs of linen cloth. He asked her where she went to church, what she had heard on the preceding day, and how much she remembered. She could not even tell the text of the last sermon.

"And what good can the preaching do you," said he, "if you forget it all!"

"Ah, sir," replied the poor woman, "if you look at this web on the grass, you will see that as fast as ever! put the water on it the sun dries it means the preprietor on the premises. the water on it the sun dries it up, and yet, sir, I see it gets whiter and whiter!" A Temperance Locture.

A man died in Worcester, Mass, the other day, whose career ought to be for young men the most effectual of temperance lectures. Twelve years ago he was a young lawyer in Connecticut, of uncommon abilities and brilliant promise. He entered the army, and rose to the rank of Colonel, but he became addicted to drink, aid rapidly sank to the grade of a common drunkard. While, intoxicated hone, and a baronet Knight of the most Fustcious order of St. Patrick, and Knight Commond raf Knight of the med Tustrious order of Knight of the med Tustrious order of the Medick, and Knight Community of the Medick, and Knight Community of the Medick, and Knight Community of the Medick, and taken to Cape Tewn.

St. Patrick, and Knight Community of the Medick, and the will several others were rescued and taken to Cape Tewn. St. Patrick, and Kaishi Commune or the Both, and the Most Homework and or of the Both, was arrested and imprisoned, and after wards hired to a Datch farmer, where he worked with Hottentots.
